The amount of private deposits stolen from the Ocean Bank is stated by the bank authorities not to exceed a quarter of a million dollars. The bank is not responsible for these losses, which are mainly, if not all, bonds. A reward of $4,000 is offered for the return of those taken belonging to the bank itself, being twenty five-twenties of 1862, $500 each. The affair is in the hands of the detectives. There is little additional information as to the frustrated Cuhan expedition. The men who were to have gone on the Catharine Whiting are probably hiding on Long Island and up North River. Rumor says another expedition is being fitted out in Long Island Sound. The rendezvous is said to be in the vicinity of Lloyd's Neck. Other reports say the Catharine Whiting's expected passengers were landed at some point to prevent straggling, and in the hope that another vessel will be ready to take them tonight. Marshal Barlow has taken steps to zoertain their hiding place and prevent the departure of any hostile expeditions in future. The Whiting is closely watched by two revenue cutters.

FRANCE. Paris, June 28.—The Emperor yester day visited the city of Beauvais and was received with enthusiasm by the people. The Mayor and Bishop of Beauvais received the Emperor at the city gates and conducted him to the Hotel de Ville, where they presented addresses of welcome His Majesty, in reply to the Mayor's speech, returned thanks for the welcome he had received from the municipality and people. He reminded the Mayor of his presence in the city at the inauguration of the statue of the heroine Jean Fougnet La Hachette, eighteen years ago. He was pleased to see the progress which the city and department of which it was the capital had made since that period in agriculture and industry. He declared that this prosperity was mainly due to the order which for the past seventeen years had reigned in France, and he was certain that this condition of order would never be seriously disturbed.

In response to the Bishop of Beauvais, the Emperor aid the addresses of Rishops, conched in the language of plety, were always received with deference. If his prayers were heard, religion would be honored by a happy people, and France would be great and prosperous. A Rare Opportunity for Property Buyers. Business sites are hard to procure in Pittsburgh nowadays. The heavy rents which landlords demand and receive have inspired great desire on the part of renting merchants to secure places of their own. It is very rare that good chances are afforded to purchase desirable building sities, or buildings. Property is held high here now, but owing to the geographical situation of the town, which limits and confines trade to narrow boundaries, promises to increase with each returning year. We have to day an advertisement on our fifth page, which announces the sale by auction of as desirable a Wood street piece of property as could be obtained. On the premises, other yessels have either been killed by troops or died from disease.
