ASCENSION DAY. Upward with Theel
Beyond the dim, thick mists of earth,
That blur each holy thought:
Beyond the griefe of mortal birth,
With restless marmaus fraught:
Beyond the weary days of toil.
Whose harvest seems bus weeds:
Beyond the nights of heart turmoil,
When hope dies out in deeds.

Upward with Thee!

Bearing but meagre, ill-ripe sheaves,
As fruit of all out life;
Bearing dry and shriveled leaves,
Parched by human strife;
Bearing "the taient" hid by sloth,
Wasted, dead, abused;
Bearing "the lamp" our bands were loth
To trim, or light; unused.

Yet upward still with Thee.
Thy mighty, bissed Love forgives.
The ill our years have wrought.
To Thee by sorrow brought:
To Thee by sorrow brought:
Thy mercles are the wings, that bear our fainting souls to God:
Thy angels soothe all lears, all care.
Priuss where Thy feet once trod.

Doward with Thee!

Above—O infinite release:
Thou bid'st us share thy rest:
Noarthiness invades that prace
Thyself crowns Heaven blest!
Thyself crowns Heaven blest!
The bere from mortal sight;
Death bere from mortal sight;
In Thee our spirit lives to blend
Mid joy that knows no blight.
