SONG OF THE DUCKS.

TOR LITTLE JAMIE. One little black duck, one little gray, Six little white ducks / unning out to play; One white lady-duck, motheriv and trim. Eight little baby ducks bout d for a swim!

One little white duck holding up its wings. One little bobblog duck making water rings One little black duck turning round its head One big black duck-guess he's gone to bed. One little white duck running from the water, One v ry fat duck-pretty little daughter!

One v ry fat duck - pretty little daughter! One very brave duck swimming off alone, One little white duck standing on a stone. One little white duck walking by its mother: Look, among the water-reeds, maybe there's ancther. Not another anywhere * Furely you are blind. Push away the grass, dear; ducks are hard to find. Bright little brown eyes: o'er the p'cture inger: Point me all the ducks out, chubby little finger: Make the pirt're musical, merrer little shout? Now, where's that other duck ? What is he about? I think the other duck a the nicest duck of all; He hasn't any feathers, and its mouth is sweet and sma f: He runs with a light step, and jumps upon my.

And though he cannot awim, he is very dear to me. One little lady-duck, mo'berly and trim: Eight little baby ducks bound fr a swim: One lazy black ducks taking quite a napi. One little precions duck, here on minima's lap!
