PETROLEUM MARKET,

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY July 10, 1869. REVIEW FOR THE WEEK.

nominally unchanged. Out Means in moderate request, without decided change in price. Bacon duli and nomi-nal. Lard quist at 191/@193/c for fair to prime steam. Eggs steady at 21@22c. The market has been remarkably steady during the past week, and while there has been a fair volume of business in the aggregate, there has been less fluctuation in prices than for several reights active and a biate hinder, our gagements were made at 14%@14%c for Wheat to Buffalo, and 7%@80 to Kings-ton. Flour quiet but firm at $5@5,20 for weeks past, and that sensitiveness and uneasiness which has so long prevailed appears to have, to some extent at least, subsided, The report in regard to the production for June, is just about what operators generally expected it would be, though some of them are disposed to doubt its correctness, believing as they do, that it is larger than the Herald report makes it.

The Receipts Crude this week, 21,800 bbls-last week, 33,700; from January 1st to date 406,855; same time last year, 614,276; Exports Refined this week, 12,083; last week, 13.151; from January 1st to date 232,151; same time last year, 52,839. Sales this week 57,800 bbls 292,639. Sales this week, 57,800 bbls; last week, 77,300. As will be seen from the above figures, we are considerably behind thus far this year, compared with same time 1868. CRUDE
