No interesting luncheon will be allowed on the grounds, and consequently a day of unalloyed pleasure may be anticipated.

THE COURTS.

Court of Quarter Sessions—Judge Surrett.

MONDAY, July 12.—In the case of Clarence Bell, indicted for larceny, previously reported, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Thomas S. Clair, et al., indicted for assault and battery, a nolle prosequi was entered and the prosecutor, Thomas Mulholland, to pay the costs.

The next case taken up was the Commonwealth vs. Mens Minshart, indicted for assault and battery, Peter Welsenbaugh prosecutor. The offense was committed at Elizabeth, where the defendant keeps a saloon, and it is alleged that the prosecutor entered the saloon and behaved in a disorderly manner, when the defendant struck him with her fist. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty and the prosecutor to pay the costs.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Andrew Marks and William Titus, indicted for larceny, Mr. Gibson prosecutor. It appears that the prosecutor was the owner of a "rest sheep" which was running loose in the First ward, Allegheny, which the defendants, who are boys, caught and took home with them to Garfield Run. The prosecutor, hearing where the sheep was, demanded it from the defendants who refused to give it up, unless he would pay them for catching it. The defense proved by some other party that the sheep belonged to him. Jury out.

In a case taken up was the Commonwealth vs. John Walliger, indicted for aggravated assault and battery. Amanda Ross, prosecutor. It appears that the prosecutor and the defendant occupy room in the same building, and that it was necessary for the prosecutor to pass through the apartment occupied by defendant in order to reach her room. On or about the 16th of June a difficulty occurred between defendant and the prosecutor's mother, who resided with her daughter, and the prosecutor went down stairs to ascertain the cause of the disturbance, when, it is alleged, Walliger made an assault upon her and kicked her upon the nose, breaking it. She fell insensible from the force of the kick, and he again kicked her. It was alleged that the defendant then the prosecutor was striking at him with a palling or lath, and that he, in defending himself against the attack, lashed the stick against her face and thus inflicted the wound. On trial.

Free Bath-House.

We have often advocated, in these columns, the urgent necessity of establishing somewhere in the city the "free bath," as adopted in some of our larger cities. The shameful exhibitions of public bathing in the hot season, have become of late an intolerable nuisance to our citizens. And yet we have sympathized somewhat with those who, under necessity compelled to adopt this system of exposed bathing. But we are happy to advise that steps have already been taken to obviate this necessity in the future. The board of directors of the "Home for the Destitute," composed of some of our most philanthropic citizens, have undertaken and almost completed the erection of a free bath-house, which will be situated on the bank of the river below the Hand street bridge, and when completed will be launched into the river to the depth of 3822 feet. It is to be divided into eighteen apartments, to be used for dressing rooms. It is proposed to supply these dressing rooms with soap and towels at a charge of five cents each. The city has kindly granted a site for the establishment free of charge. We feel that this is a move in the right direction, and worthy of the highest commendation, and we hope that our citizens will always encourage and sustain these efforts of those gentlemen who are endeavoring so earnestly to cleanse the community of its moral and physical filth, and who have done so much towards this end in the past.

Snakes About.

Mrs. Wilkinson, a colored lady, called at Alderman Neely's office yesterday, and acquainted the magistrate with certain singular grievances, which at present seem to seriously affect her happiness. She explained that one of her tenants, Mrs. Eliza Williams, also colored, had failed to meet her monthly rental, and consequently had been requested to give up possession of the premises. This natural demand, under the circumstances, was indignantly rejected by Eliza, who understood, it is alleged, to have revenge for the insult by putting a number of reptiles in the well, from which the water used by the Wilkinson family was taken. The Alderman, after examining the authorities upon the question, decided that it was emphatically the duty of the peace officer to see that the provisions of the peace act, and issued his warrant accordingly, which brought Eliza to his office. The matter was then arranged, the prosecutor paying the costs.

A Scientific Wonder.

A newly invented scientific device has been exhibited which is said to make one think that the days of wonder are not yet gone. It is a milk whose use transforms the most deplorable complexion to one of almost alabaster smoothness and lighted glow during hot weather. This exquisite beautifier is known as "Milk of Violets," and promises to take the place of poisonous and fancy goods dealer. V. W. Bingham, N. Y., general agent.

Yesterday was the anniversary of the "Balfie" in the history of the city. In former times the Balfie was celebrated in the streets by the boys, who would be dressed in livery, and these have been discontinued. There are numbers now living who have pleasant recollections of their juvenile years, as householders in their juvenile years.

Fire at Elizabeth.

A destructive fire occurred at Elizabeth about six o'clock Sunday evening, by which the extensive planing mill of Messrs. S. P. & J. N. Large was totally destroyed. The flames had gained considerable headway before the fire was discovered, and notwithstanding the efforts of the citizens, who turned out en masse to suppress the destructive element, the entire building and contents, together with a quantity of lumber, were consumed. The mill was located on the bank of the Monongahela river, and was surrounded by a number of sheds and our building, to which the flames communicated, and they were also destroyed.

The residence of Mr. S. P. Large, some thirty feet from the mill, was in imminent danger, but was finally saved. The household furniture was greatly damaged by the heat, and the loss is estimated at from fifteen to twenty thousand dollars. A large amount of lumber, rough and finished, was also destroyed.

The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, but as yet no clue has been obtained which would lead to the detection of the perpetrator of the act. On Friday all the belting in the mill was cut in pieces by some unknown party, and some of the heavy machinery taken apart. It is supposed that the parties who committed these depredations fired the premises Sunday evening.

The Grand Concert at the Birmingham.

Last night the citizens of Birmingham who attended the concert at the Town Hall received at the hands of the International Troupe a most decided treat. The debut of Mr. Lewis, both in this city and at Birmingham, was a success unparalleled in this city. His voice deep, full and of an extraordinary power, in fact one of the finest ever heard on a stage in this city. His songs, "In a Garden," "The Echo Song," "The Willow of the Wisp," were most charming and poignant, we recollect ever having heard. Miss Luyvo Lewis, who sang with him, was equally successful, and together with the troupe, most among the finest contraltos of the age. Although young in years, she masters her voice in an admirable style, and her vocal performance was most successful.
