OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY July 14, 1869.

The most important feature we have to notice is an acknowledgement by the Titusville Herald of an error of twenty-five thousand barrels in regard to the shipments from the oil regions in the month of June. This changes the aspect of the production materially as instead of a decrease of nearly one hundred bar-

The Sheep market, particularly for the better grades, is considerably stronger than last week, and prices are fully a than last week, and prices are fully a quarter, perhaps, a half-higher. Both New York and Philadelphia buyers were anxious to buy, and all the good sheep offered were picked up and that too at the advanced prices. We now quote fair to good at 3@4; prime, 43/@5 and extra 51/4. As has been the case for some time past, there is little or no demand for low grade sheep, and inferior will scarcely bring enough to pay feed bills, yarding and cost of transportation. and cost of transportation.
