FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, July 14, 1869.

Gold which touched last evening 136¾, opened at 137⅝ this morning, declined to 136⅞, and closed at 137⅛. The temper of the gold room is rather bullish, and a very strong feeling for much higher prices is manifested, although it is probable that a reaction from present prices may follow within a day or two, especially in case the government would delay purchasing bonds at advanced figures.

The exports of gold are moderate, and below the average calculated upon during the present month, but unless bonds should advance more in Europe, larger shipments of gold will be necessary.

Government bonds advanced about ¾ per cent. from the quotation of last evening, declined ⅛ per cent. at noon, and closed strong at an advance fully equal to the decline of the forenoon.

Stocks are strong, and range higher through the entire list.

Money easy.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, July 14, 1869.

The markets generally continue dull and devoid of anything new or important. The demand for almost everything is restricted mainly to supplying immediate wants, and, as a consequence, the volume of business is light, while in regard to values, there are no important changes.

The progress of harvesting is being watched with great interest by the public generally, as it is a matter in which everybody is more or less interested. It is generally conceded that the wheat crop will be considerably above an average, and those people who have been predicting that the yield would be a comparative failure, and that high prices would be the order of the day, are not likely to have their expectations realized.

The Peoria Transcript in speaking of the recent excitement in the Chicago grain market says: "Grain-buyers here are looking at Chicago with an evil eye. The bulls and bears of the market there, are "cornering" all the grain and destroying the chances of buyers in as small a city as Peoria. The prices of corn and wheat in Chicago are within a few cents of what is paid in New York city. Of course that is a fictitious market, and instituted for the purpose of getting and holding all the grain in Chicago for the purpose of speculation. Somebody may lose money on the speculation, or he may gain largely, but, whichever way it results, it don't at all please the Peoria dealers."

The chances are that "somebody will lose" on the speculation, but hohlders in the interior have made much better prices for some days past, in consequence of the operation, and besides Peoria dealers may yet find a chance to buy at their own figures.

The wheat crop of California will be fully up to the average of the past two years, and a considerable quantity of the old grain is still in the hands of the growers. The same is true of oats. They have a surfeit of barley and hay on the Pacific coast.

APPLES—Sales of new crop at $3@4 per bbl, as to quality.

BUTTER—Continues quiet and unchanged; sales of good to prime at 20@25.

BEANS—Dull at $1,75@2.

BROOMS—Quoted as follows: No. 5 $6,50; No. 4 $6; No. 3 $5, No. 2, plain, $4,50, and market firm.

CHEESE—Sales Western Reserve, at 15; Hamburg, at 16; Factory, at 17; and Goshen, at 18.

CARBON OIL—Quiet; may be quoted in a jobbing way at 29@30, for standard brands.

DRIED FRUIT—Dull. Peaches nominal at 9@10 for quarters; 12@14 for mixed, and 16 for prime halves. Apples 10@13 cts.

EGGS—Sales at 20@21c.

FEATHERS — Supply in hands of commission men almost exhausted. Live geese may be quoted at 85@90, to the trade, and $1 in a retail way.

FISH—Quoted as follows: No. 1 Mackeral, $14 per half bbl; No. 2, $10,50; No. 3 large (full) $7,50; do short, $6,75; Baltimore Herring $9 per bbl do Shad, $8,50, Lake Herring, $3,25 per half bbl, and White Fish, $8.

FLOUR—The market is quiet but firm, with only a moderate demand, and no change in prices—dealers here, under the influence of a sharp rivalry, are selling at a very slight advance above Chicago rates. Western Flours are quoted at $6,50@7. for Spring Wheat brands, and $7@7,25 for Winter Wheat. Rye Flour $6,25@6,50.

GRAIN—The offerings of Wheat continue light and there is a good milling demand at $1,35@1,40 for good to prime Red. Oats firm but quiet, and it looks now as if holders are going to have some trouble in forcing the market up; we continue to quote at 66@67 on track, and 68@70 in store. Small sales of Rye at $1,25 and a round lot would probably command $1,30. Corn quiet and in limited supply; we continue to quote at 78@80 for mixed, and 83@85 for prime Yellow.

HAY—Baled is being sold to the trade at $25@28 for good to strictly prime Timothy.

HEMP—Last sales at $205.
