

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

THE GAZETTE is furnished to the city at the rate of $1.00 per week for 12 weeks in advance.

A Grand Social Picnic is to be held in McFarland's Grove on Thursday, July 20th.

Gun Shop Entered.—At an early hour last Sunday morning the gun shop of J. H. Johnson, on Wayne street near Liberty, was entered by burglars.

Desertion.—Mrs. Ann McGinnis made information yesterday before Alderman Donaldson against her husband, Andrew A. McGinnis, for desertion.

Selling Liquor on Sunday.—Mrs. Luclinda M. Blood, who, it is ascertained, is acting in the interests of the "informers," yesterday made information before Alderman Nepper, charging Henry Eichner, a druggist, with selling liquor on Sunday.

Kept the Furniture.—Robert H. Hartley made information yesterday before Alderman McDonald, yesterday, against G. P. Smith for larceny as follows: The accused, according to the allegations, rented an office from Hartley, on Fourth street, containing a quantity of furniture, for which he was to pay a certain price.

Fatal Accident.—Coroner's Inquest. Coroner Clawson held an inquest last evening on the body of George Berry, a resident of Newark, N. J., who died at the Homoeopathic Hospital, on Second avenue, about half-past two o'clock.

Alleged False Pretense.—Carl F. Frisch made information before Justice Ammon, of East Birmingham, yesterday, against a young business man with cheating by false pretenses.

A Bill of Greecies.—John Mitchell proprietor of a grocery store on Fourth street, alleged that John Fritzer obtained from him groceries, amounting in value to twenty dollars and sixteen cents, by representing that he was a contractor, and that at the time he had a contract with the Connellville Railroad Company, to remove debris from a large pile, which would not give him a considerable profit, representations which subsequently were found to be untrue.

Assaulted at a Pic-Nic.—A few days ago a picnic was held at a grove near Chambersburg, which numbered among its attendants Adam Becker and Frederick Gasen.

Assault and Battery.—J. P. Krohan made information before Justice Ammon, of East Birmingham, yesterday, charging Terrence and Catherine Seely with assault and battery.

An Unsafe Custodian.—A few days ago, so runs the information, James Camp, in an excess of confidence, entrusted to the care of a boon companion, James Ferguson, eight dollars for safe keeping until the next day.

Alexander Von Humboldt.—A meeting of the leading German citizens of the city was held at Turner Hall, sixth avenue, last evening, to make arrangements for the celebration of the centennial anniversary of the birth of Alexander Von Humboldt, which occurs on the 14th of September next.

The Park Fountain.—The Allegheny Park Commission have decided to reserve the space on Ohio street, between Union and Cedar avenues, for occupation by a large fountain, which will be so constructed as to afford facilities for watering horses and cattle passing by, thus serving the double purpose of beauty and utility.

The Davis Drinking Fountain, in the Second Ward Square, has proved so popular that it is proposed to place a number of others at prominent points throughout the grounds for the promotion of promenaders. These will be placed in position as fast as the completion of the ground progresses.

THE COURTS.

Quarter Sessions.—Judge Street. WEDNESDAY, July 14.—Stewart Sampson, indicted for aggravated assault and battery, was placed on trial and the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The next case taken up was that of the Commonwealth vs. John McKirdy, indicted for embezzlement. The defendant was Secretary of the National Refining and Storage Company, which Company, it appears, had sold to John Thompson 5,000 barrels of oil, to be delivered at a future time, and when the time arrived the Company could not deliver the oil, and the Secretary, contrary to the instructions, as it is alleged, of the Board of Directors, drew a check in favor of Thompson for the damages alleged to have been sustained by the latter.

The Commonwealth was represented by Messrs. Marshall and Brown, and Messrs. Woods and Geyer appeared for the defendant. The Commonwealth proved the appropriation or conversion of the money to the use of John Thompson, and that the Secretary had been notified not to pay the check.

The defense offered to prove the debt a just and legal one, in order to rebut the presumption of fraud, and in necessity implied a violation of the trust transaction upon which the debt was based.

The presentation objected, holding that the payment of the check was not a violation of the trust, but was a payment of the debt which was legal or not.

The Court overruled the objection and admitted the evidence. On trial.

440. Com. vs. Wm. H. Parsons. 424. " B. Hartman. 424. " Wm. Furlong. 434. " Thos. Gambert. 434. " John Anderson. 434. " John Ryland. 424. " Stophan Herman. 183. " John McDonald.

Tired of Life. Tuesday night about eleven o'clock, and at two o'clock yesterday morning, Mrs. Mullen, wife of Hugh Mullen, residing on Penn street in the Tenth Ward, attempted twice to end her earthly career, by taking a leap into the mystic fluid.

On being interrogated as to why she attempted so rash an act, she replied that she had no peace on earth and had no desire to live.
