PITTSBURGH GAZETTE: SATURDAY, JULY 17, 1869.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY July 16, 1869. The market was rather quiet to-day, the volume of business having been compartively light in the agregate, though as a general thing, sellers were asking a slight advance over yesterday's quo. tations. There has been no life in business for two or three days, and for some cause or other, operators generally, do not seem inclined to do much, preferring. as it were, to hold off and await further developements. The shipments of refined east continue, liberal while the receipts of crude thus far this week, have been comparatively light. CRUDE.

Sale 1,000 bbls July at 14%; and 1,000 spct (40 to 44) at 14%. -The report that the Captain of the -Ine report that the Captain of the Colossal had been stabled in the abdo-men by a negro is incorrect. It was Capt. Jim Lockhart, of the Bertha, who was cut, while on his steamer st Sloux City. It seems that he had some trouble with his crew, and was compelled to dis-charge and order them from the boat, when one of the impusebonts? when one of the "roustabouts" turned on him with a knife and gave him a seri-ous cut as reported. Filot Jos. Ohl-mann, of the Colossal, says that at no time during the present season has there been more than thirty inches of water on Dauphin's Rapids.
