PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, July 23, 1869. Business generally continues quiet, and there are no indications at present of any immediate improvement. It is a noticeable fact that the receipts of flour are remarkably small, and at no time, perhaps, within the past twelve months has the supply in this market been so much reduced as at present. This is owing to the fact that it is relatively lower here than in the west, most of the dealers are nearly sold out, and they cannot replace it at present prices. Grain, also, of all kinds is scarce and firm, and provisions continue to tend upward. There is a continued good demand for raw sugars, as the time for putting up small fruits has arrived, and compared with last week the market is firmer. Apples, Peaches and Berries is firmer. Apples, Peaches and Berries have commenced to arrive pretty freely. upward. There is a continued good dehave commenced to arrive pretty freely. | $1,30 seller to 15th September. Highwines
