CITY AND SUBURBAN.

THE GAZETTE is furnished in the city the six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $8 per annum: 3 mos., $2.

Troy Hill had few visitors yesterday. As a place of Sunday resort, it is declining.

Councils will meet this afternoon. It is thought the Connellsville Railroad business will come up for action.

The Livery Stable men are having a lively quarrel and the result so far is the reduction of carriage and buggy hire all around.

Obituary.—Mr. Redmond Ledlie, a young gentleman well known and highly respected in this city, died yesterday morning.

False.—The alarm of fire struck from Box 54, Allegheny Fire Alarm, on Saturday evening about nine o'clock, proved to be false.

Tallow! Tallow!!—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that Isiah Dickey & Co. want 100,000 pounds of tallow.

Discharged.—Three officers were discharged from the Pittsburgh police force on Saturday, one for incompetency and the other two for drunkenness.

Trinity Chapel, in course of erection in the rear of the Trinity Church lot, on Sixth avenue, is being pushed forward rapidly. Workmen are already engaged on the roof.

Removed.—All the wooden work of the spire on St. Pauls' Cathedral has been removed and workmen will this morning commence to tear down a portion of the brick work.

Repainted.—The exterior of the Old Theatre is hardly recognizable since it was coated with new paint. The improvements on the interior are also of a substantial character.

The Allegheny lock-up was remarkably quiet yesterday, not a single arrest having been made during the day. There were but half a dozen common cases at the morning levee.

Still Another.—John Carr forgot that the grass and flower beds in the Allegheny Park were not designed as a public highway. His actions, caused by forgetfulness, cost him five dollars.

Taken Back.—The insane man, picked up on the streets of Allegheny, Thursday night, was taken back to Rochester Saturday morning, from whence he came. His friends have not been heard from.

The single-scull contest between Hamill and Coulter, which comes off on the upper Monongahela course next Saturday week, attracts attention from our boating men and citizens in general, as well as from abroad.

Daylight Bathing.—Several boys were arrested yesterday for bathing in the Allegheny river at the foot of Twenty-fifth street. They were released after a severe reprimand by Mayor Brush and upon promising not to repeat the offense.

The Temperance Movement.—The Court House has been secured for the Temperance Convention which will be held in a few days, when a candidate for County Commissioner will be nominated. A politician of this city is talked of as the probable candidate.

Locked Up.—Yesterday, officer Blondin arrested William Thompson, one of the two brothers charged with feloniously assaulting Cyrus Fitch, an old man, about a week ago, in Chartiers township. The prisoner was locked up and will have a hearing before Alderman McMasters to-day.

Allegheny Quartette Club.—This famous musical organization, will start on their tour to-day. To-night they sing in Salem, Ohio, and to-morrow night at Alliance. If a varied and excellent musical entertainment is any attraction in the places visited, the club are certain to be cordially greeted and meet with gratifying success.

The Attention of those of our readers who are fond of good reading is called to the advertisement of J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia. These Publishers stand at the head of the list in their business, and can be relied on as an honest fair dealing firm. We commend them to our readers. All orders promptly attended to.

The Monongahela House, one of the largest and finest hotels in Steubenville, is kept by Mrs. Thomas Costamagna, the esteemed wife of Thomas Costamagna, Esq., business manager of the Steubenville Herald, and at one time associated with this paper. They extend a warm word of welcome to all Pittsburghers who stray into that pretty little city.

Corrected.—Our article on the "Fatality from Hernia or Rupture" appeared in Saturday's Gazette in a transposed manner, which entirely destroyed its sense, and hence we reproduce it this morning as it was originally written. It will prove instructive and entertaining reading matter, especially to those afflicted with the maladies treated upon.

Where's the Major.—It requires all kinds of people to make a world, which explains the existence of a female child in our city, seven years of age, and the fortunate possessor of twelve toes, eleven fingers, and one hundred and six pounds of flesh and bone, fighting weight. Major Burnell ought to see that child. His museum contains no creature that as well can toe the mark or has such a handful.

Heavy Damages.—Christian Widekind, a German, while passing along the road through South Pittsburgh, leading to Mt. Washington, some weeks since, fell over the banister or railing down an embankment, sustaining serious injuries about the head. He has brought suit against the borough authorities, laying the damages at $10,000. Sheriff Cluley served the writ upon the Burgess and town Council on Saturday.

Hungry Thieves.—A party of hungry thieves, not having the fear of the law before their eyes, at an early hour on Saturday morning broke into the cellar of Dr. Johnston's residence, No. 80 Federal street, and carried off all the provisions they could secure. Nothing else was disturbed, the depredators evidently being moved to commit the robbery more by a healthy appetite than evil dispositions for plundering.

Conductor Arrested.—Yesterday a conductor on the Troy Hill branch of the Manchester Passenger Railway, was arrested by the Allegheny police for stopping his car so as to obstruct a street crossing. There is an ordinance against this practice, but heretofore it has been as a dead letter. The public will certainly be pleased at this evidence that it is to be enforced hereafter. The conductor gave bail for a hearing to-day.

Teachers Elected.—The following persons have been elected teachers for the Twentieth Ward, to serve during the ensuing year: Principal—John P. Cameron; Assistants—School House No. 1, Miss Maggie Cramer and Miss Jennie Irwin. House No. 2, Miss Martha D. Simpson. House No. 3, Miss Mollie E. Hamilton and Miss Anna M. Asper.

Serious Fall.—Saturday afternoon, a German carpenter, whose name we could not learn, fell from the roof of Mr. Stout's new building in course of erection at Oakland, Fourteenth Ward. No bones were broken, but he was very severely bruised upon various parts of his body and had to be carried home. He received medical attention at his residence.

Futile Effort.—Alderman Lynch made another futile attempt on Saturday to dispose of a couple of the Snyder cases, but the exertion was too great for his official nerves and he was compelled after getting half way through to postpone further consideration until to-day. In the meantime, several additional members of the family have appeared on the tapis, and several new suits are threatened.

Body Found.—Friday afternoon the body of a boy apparently about fourteen years of age, was found floating in the Ohio river opposite Freedom. It was without clothing, and looked as though it had been in the water several days. From the description given, Mr. Fishbaugh, of South Pittsburgh, thinks it is the body of his son who was drowned in the Monongahela, while bathing, about ten days ago. He will investigate the matter to-day.

Bad Boys.—Saturday morning some malicious boys filled up the waste pipe of the drinking fountain in the Allegheny Park with sticks, stones and dirt, causing the ground in the vicinity to be flooded with water. The young scamps escaped detection, but suspicions are entertained as to who they are. If the mischief is fastened upon them they will be severely dealt with. Such a spirit as they manifested in the mean business, augurs badly for their future.

Fall of a Pipe.—Saturday afternoon, while workmen were engaged in lowering into the trench pepared for it, in Oakland, Fourteenth ward, a large water main, the rope snapped, allowing the heavy casting to fall upon one of the workmen in the trench, and severely injuring him. He was taken out when it was found that no bones were broken, although it is feared his internal injuries from the accident may result seriously. He is being attended by a physician.

Allegheny Black Mailing Operation. A few days since a woman appeared before one of the city Aldermen, and made information charging a respectable gentleman residing in one of the new wards of the city with adultery. The offense, she alleges, was committed with her sister, who is a married woman, and equally guilty. The charge was doubtless made for the purpose of levying black mail, and we learn that the friends of the gentleman intend to prosecute the woman also.

We the undersigned desire, through your valuable journal, to return our thanks to Dr. Reed, of Dixmont Hospital, for the courteous manner in which he made us so welcome and showed us through that excellent institution during a late visit to the Hospital. Also to Mr. Cain and his estimable wife for their kindness to us.

James K. Speer, Mrs. Speer, George Cibler, Mrs. Cibler, Joseph Chadwick, Mrs. Chadwick, Thomas Neely, Mrs. Neely.

Kicked by a Horse.—Yesterday afternoon, Mr. John Keefer was watering his horse at a hydrant on Webster avenue, when the horse was struck by a stone thrown by a boy, causing it to wheel suddenly round and kick Mr. Keefer in the side, inflicting very serious internal injuries. He fell to the ground but was picked up and taken to his residence near by, where medical attention was procured. His injuries are of a very severe character, and the result is exceedingly doubtful.

To the Penitentiary.—Some months ago a young man entered a jewelry store on Smithfield street, with a companion, and was shown a number of gold rings. He disappeared without buying, but managed somehow to carry with him several of the rings. The police were notified, and after about a month's search, Chief of Police Bowden arrested Charles St. Clair, a young man, in Allegheny, for the theft. He was tried, convicted, and Saturday taken over to the Penitentiary by Sheriff Cluley to fill out a sentence of two years for his crime.

Boy Drowned.—Willie Bulhaser, a little boy about nine years of age, was drowned in the Allegheny river, at the foot of Seventeenth street, Saturday. He resided with his parents at No. 16 Eighteenth street, in the Tenth ward, and left home some time during the afternoon of Saturday. He was not seen by any of his friends after that until the body was recovered, about eight o'clock Saturday evening. Coroner Clawson was notified and held an inquest yesterday morning, when the jury returned a verdict of "found drowned."

Italy Disturbed.—Last evening a couple of small Italians engaged in a combat in an alley off Sixth street, during which one of them was thrown down and was about to have his head operated upon with a huge boulder in the hands of his excited rival, the result of which would certainly have been disastrous, when officer Neubert observed the movements of the boys and hastened to quell any further anger by arresting them both. Neither could speak English sufficient to tell their names or give any information concerning themselves. They will have a hearing to-day.

Insane Woman.—Saturday morning, a domestic in the family of Mr. McNaughers, residing on the hill, at the head of Federal street Allegheny, suddenly became insane and attacked a colored man in the neigbourhood with a knife, cutting a hole through his vest, but fortunately not inflicting a wound. She was secured after considerable difficulty, and locked up in the watch house. She had no friends in this vicinity, and had only been employed with the family named about three or four weeks. During the afternoon an officer conveyed her to the City Poor Farm.

Manager Hess, of the Opera House, Chicago, formerly of this city, is just now being lionized by the press and people of that city for having performed a noble deed of charity. At a late hour one night last week he found a poor girl in great distress on the sidewalk, having been turned out of the doors of a gilded palace containing everything but charity. Mr. Hess, who at one time was a practising physician, attended the girl, had her removed to his boarding house where she received all possible attention, and at last accounts the mother and the street-born infant were doing well and Mr. Hess was the object of the laudations of all who could appreciate a noble act.

Board of Health vs. Night Soilers.

For some past a misunderstanding has existed between the Board of Health and the Night Soilers of this city, relative to certain rules and regulations prescribed by the Board. The question at issue was a resolution adopted by the Board in December of last year, requiring all persons who follow the vocation of night soilers to supply themselves with a machine, such as is used by Mr. McCarthy for that purpose, and in accordance with same resolution they refused to grant permits to persons not having said machines. The matter was brought before the court and an opinion delivered by Judge Stowe in the case of the Board of Health vs. Jacob Smith.

This was an action brought by the Board of Health against the defendant for having emptied the contents of a cess pool without having first obtained a permit from the Board, as provided in the 6th section of An act of Assembly, approved April, 1862, defining the power and duties of the Board. The case was originally brought before Alderman Morrow, and judgment rendered against Smith to the amount of twenty dollars, the penalty prescribed by law. The case went up to the Common Pleas on an appeal from the Alderman's decision, and was intended to test the right of the Board to make such regulations as those under which he had been convicted. The only question to be determined, His Honor said, was whether the defendant is legally bound to pay the penalty of twenty dollars for violating the act of Assembly in question. "The evidence showed that he did do that which the act prohibits, without having a permit, and therefore subjected himself to the penalty. There is no escape except by holding that the law is unconstitutional and void, which clearly it is not. Judgment must be entered in this case for the plaintiff against the defendant for the sum of twenty dollars and costs," Judge Stowe stated that he had been requested to give an opinion as to the legality of the resolution adopted by the Board of Health, requiring persons engaged in vault cleaning to provide themselves with steam vacuum carts and wagons with air tight boxes. He said that the Court did not give opinions in cases not before them, but in this case he would state, as his individual opinion, that under the act of April, 1869, the Board is fully authorized to enforce all requirements embraced in the resolution referred to. He suggested that the only proper way to have a decision on the matter from the Supreme Court, would be to apply to Court for a mandamus on the Board to grant a permit or excuse, or both as the case may be.

Court of Quarter Sessions—Full Bench.

SATURDAY, July 24.—S. D. Rothermel, Esq., presented a petition signed by a number of citizens of the Second ward, Allegheny, asking that the license of Frederick Benner, proprietor of a drinking house at Monterey and Jackson streets, Allegheny, be revoked. The petitioners set forth that drunken men are in the habit of congregating at the house, and by their noise and disorderly conduct cause great annoyance to them and their families. Other annoyances are enumerated, such as are suffered by females who are compelled to pass by the crowds frequenting the house. The Court granted a rule on Benner, returnable on Saturday next, to show cause why the prayer should not be granted.

SENTENCES.

The following prisoners, tried and convicted during the last term of court, were sentenced:

Charles St. Clair, who plead guilty to the larceny of jewelry from a jewelry store on Smithfield street, was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution and to undergo two years' imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary.

Mary Maloney, convicted of larceny, was sentenced to undergo a further imprisonment of ten days in the county jail.

John Mulherron, convicted of unlawfully wounding Thomas St. Clair, was sentenced to pay a fine of thirty dollars and to undergo ten days' imprisonment in the county jail.

H. C. Matthews, convicted of an assault upon Arthur Martin, was sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars and the costs of prosecution.

Robert Hawthorn, a lad thirteen years of age, who was charged with larceny, was sent to the Refuge.

Youthful Criminal.

Some weeks ago, Robert Hawthorne, a lad about eleven years of age, was employed in the family of Mr. Thomas Layng as errand boy. He was kindly cared for, and fared well, until he manifested a disposition of ingratitude and wickedness, quite sad to note in one so young. Noticing that Mrs. Layng was in the habit of putting her pocketbook in a certain drawer, he took advantage of the fact, one night, when all the family were slumbering, to rise and ransack the drawer, securing thereby about fifty dollars in cash. When the money was missed next morning he was suspected, but denied all knowledge of it. He was then taken before Alderman Shore upon an information for larceny, when he confessed the crime, and stated he had given the money to two companions, the same night, they having been lying in wait. These boys, giving their names as Con. Rodgers and Andy. Harland, were arrested, and held for a hearing, while Hawthrone was committed to the House of Refuge, to which he was taken Saturday.

Much of Law.

Catharine Rees seems to have been on bad terms with several of her neighbors, and as a consequence engaged extensively in law suits on Saturday. She resides in the neighborhood of the Copper Works on Second avenue. Alderman Thomas was entrusted with the litigation. The first information was against Robert Knox, charging him with maintaining a disorderly house in the locality named. The second set forth that the prosecutrix had been beaten by Catharine Rowland, with whom she had a dispute in reference to the occupancy of a certain yard with a clothes line, upon which hung her washing. The third and last was against Miss Laura Knox, who is said to have made dire threats against Catharine, which caused her to fear bodily harm. Warrants for the arrest of the accused were issued in all the cases.

Leg Broken.

Saturday morning a little boy about ten years of age, in attempting to cross Pennsylvania avenue in front of a team loaded with lumber, had his leg broken. It appears he first attempted to cross in front of the team, but failing in that, endeavored to pass between the front and hind wheel while the wagon was in motion, when he was knocked down and the hind wheel passed over his leg, breaking it. Officer Shaffer, at the request of the child's father, who it appears, did not know how the affair happened, arrested the driver and took him to the Mayor's office. When the facts were made known the father declined to prosecute and the driver was discharged.

Base Ball Guests—A Game To-day.

The Baltic Club (Blue Stockings) of Wheeling, the Champions of West Virginia, arrived in this city Saturday morning, and put up at the Monongahela House. The nine is composed of the following gentlemen: J. Hornbrook, catcher; J. A. McCoy, pitcher; Charles Whitman, short stop; C. E. Osborne, 1st base; B. F Kelly, Jr., 2nd base; W. H. Taney, 3rd base; J. C. Woodward, left field; E. Hornbrook, centre field; T. S. Achison, right field. The rain that fell during the day augured ill for a game with the Atlantics. However, the Atlantic, as well as the visitors, were present at the Union Park, ready to enter into a contest. To satisfy the audience present, one inning was played, which resulted in favor of the Atlantics by four runs to a "whitewash" for their opponents.

A game between the Olympic and Baltics will be played this afternoon, at half past two o'clock, at Union Park, which will doubtless be largely attended. Our boys are very much pleased with the champion club of West Virginia, finding them agreeable and companionable, and in every way worthy the high honor they enjoy both at home and abroad. We hope the Wheelingites may enjoy the excursion, and carry away with them pleasant recollections of our city and our athletes.

Firemen Troubled.

The Treasury of the Hope Fire Company, of Allegheny, contains about $1,200, and how to dispose of it is now the subject of anxious consideration by the members of the organization. Some of them seem to think that if the Fire Department of the city is changed to a paid system, as proposed, that all the money will have to be handed over to the city along with the other effects. For this reason they are in favor of disposing of it in some manner more calculated to yield them pleasure or profit, and accordingly an excursion, or a division of the money, are the plans proposed. Others of the company contend that the money is not a part of the city's property, that it has accumulated, through several years, out of the pockets of the individual members, and that they alone have power to use it, a position which appears to be perfectly just. They therefore object to having it spent until the new system is put into operation, and the company thus compelled to disband and reorganize under the city authority.

The dispute has caused considerable excitement among those directly interested, and a meeting has been called for this evening, at the Engine House, to have it settled.

Needed a Bath.

On the sixth day of the present month the iron doors of Warden Scandrett's mansion, on the hill, closed upon the form of Hughey Freel, who had been granted a ticket of admission by Mayor Brush for twenty days. Yesterday Hughey breathed free air again, and acting upon his first impulse, forgetful of time or place, rushed to the Allegheny river, disrobed himself quickly and was soon enjoying the luxury of a cool and healthful bath. "There is no rose without a thorn," however, a truth which was forcibly impressed upon the mental perceptions of Hughey, who was suddenly seized in the midst of his pleasures, compelled to don his garments, and take up a disagreeable march to the lock-up. The nature of his offense was explained to him there, when he strenuously plead for a release, urging as a reason for his improper conduct, the fact of his twenty days' imprisonment and the great need he had for a bath under the circumstances. Notwithstanding this powerful appeal, however, the officials failed to appreciate its beauty or logic, and inexorably discharged their duty by locking Hughey in a cell to await a disposition of his case to-day.

Important to Engineers.

United States Local Inspectors of Steam Vessels for the 7th District, Messrs. Samuel Walker and Geo. H. Atkinson, call the attention of Licensed Officers of Steamboats to the following rule, adopted at the last meeting of the United States Supervising Inspectors, held in Washington, D. C. Any Engineer failing to comply with this rule is liable to have his License revoked:

"When any Engineer gives up the charge of the Engineer's department of a steamer, by resignation or otherwise, he shall certify in writing as to the condition of the same; said certificate to be kept on board the steamer, subject to the inspection of the United States inspectors of steamers, and the succeeding Chief Engineer. Also, when an Engineer assumes the charge of the Engineer's department of a vessel, he shall examine the same, to see if it is in good order, and in accordance with the specified condition in the certificate given by his immediate predecessor, and if not, report the fact to the United States inspectors of steamers in the port where he belongs."

Poison for Dogs.

The very active Chief of Police, not having the fear of boarding house sausages before his eyes, caused last week "buttons" of poisoned meat to be distributed where dogs do most congregate, for the purpose of lessening their number. Inasmuch as the practicels to be continued during the present week, we would advise all our friends owning canines to keep them within doors or so have them securely muzzled so that they may not fall victims to the humane method adopted by the municipal authorties to enforce an ordinance whose provisions by no means warrant such a proceeding. The officer found distributing such "buttons" on the public streets and alleys, should be arrested and punished according to law, as the instructions given him by higher authority will amount to little in his defense. There is an ordinance on the city code providing for the curtailment of canines, and instead of making a short cut to put it into execution, the Chief of the dog-killers should go about it in the legitimate manner.

Arrested on a Process.

Yesterday afternoon officer Moon arrested, on Webster avenue, John Mayer of Philadelphia. The arest was made on a process issued from one of the Philadelphia Courts. It is alleged that Mayer was Secretary of a Lodge of Red Men, in the city named, and several week ago disappeared with the funds, amounting to $300. No trace of his whereabouts could be discovered for a time, but a strict watch was kept upon his wife, who remained in the city, after his departure. Several days ago she came to Pittsburgh, and the detectives, rightly devining this as an evidence of the retreat of their man, procured the necessary legal paper, came here on Saturday and had the arrest made yesterday. Mayer was locked up until this morning at two o'clock, when, in company with his wife and an officer, he departed for Philadelphia.

That Market House.

MESSRS. EDITORS: "Taxpayer" seems to have understood the matter of a new market house and to have viewed it in the proper light, with the exception that the case was hardly represented strong enough. Not only is a market needed in the locality named, but if the citizens, and taxpayers, to be benefitted thereby, are to have justice rendered them, it should be built immediately. As the case now is, having to purchase at the Diamond, transport the stuff to their homes, lose about half a day in the journey, [for journey it surely is,] and bear all the trouble and inconvenience attending such a mode of procuring supplies, they lose fully one-half what they are worth. For this reason a great many are deterred from visiting the Diamond market and prefer rather to be dependant upon the stores and such places for their produce and marketing. Were a market house convenient, however, things would be different. It would be patronized and abundantly supported by these people, and then the city would secure a new and considerable revenue, where she now realizes nothing.

As regards the Lyons Lot, recommended by the Committee, the strongest and best argument in its favor is the fact that the citizens interested heartily endorse the selection. Easily reached, ample enough for the purpose, the most central spot in the section to be benefited, and offered on liberal terms, it seems no surprise that the Committee viewing the matter deliberately and looking to the best interest of all concerned, from an unbiased standpoint, unhesitatingly decided in its favor. Now that the matter at last has assumed some shape, it is to be hoped that their recommendation will be promptly approved by Councils, and the long delayed market built at once. One year hence will clearly evince the wisdom of the choice, or a large number of people will be greatly disappointed, among whom will stand,

A RESIDENT OF THE VICINITY.

The Fatality from Hernia or Rupture.

Hernia or Rupture, although not ordinarily a fatal malady, is one full of dangerous and evil consequences, and we feel that we confer a favor on our readers when we direct their attention to a place that stands the equal of any in the United States for the variety and perfectness of such appliances. Now and then we hear of deaths from strangulated hernia, and no one who is threatened in that way can be too seriously alive to the important necessity of early and appropriate management. The applier of trusses in a community as densely populated as that of Pittsburgh, is as much entitled to adequate encouragement as in any kind of business with which we are acquainted, especially when the immunity from danger, and the security to personal safety is afforded at a comparatively trifling cost. No branch of business is entitled, at our hands, to a higher regard than that which affects human life and health; and when we look around us, and note the fact that one out of every six of the male population are so afflicted, no words of warning can be too forcibly urged nor too frequently reiterated. People do not always suffer from rupture of the bowels through open neglect, but often from want of knowledge, where, and from whom, to seek the proper remedy. There are hundreds of persons who from infancy to boyhood and even manhood, defer attention in this respect for want of a proper appreciation of the seriousness of the malady of which we write. DR. KEYSER, at his great medicine store and office, No. 167 Liberty street, has qualified himself in a notable and praiseworthy degree, to meet every indication of hernia, besides a number of other abnormal conditions which appear to be, and perhaps are, strictly mechanical as in regard to the means to be used for their alleviation or cure. Rupture is one of these conditions, and one which entitles him to more than an ordinary share of public patronage—as well because of his extraordinary ability as because of the extra advertising which insures their publicity.

TURKISH RAILROADS.—Letters from Vienna state that the four principal financial institutions of that capital have united to take part in the construction of the Ottoman railways, for the execution of which a capital of 80,000,000 francs is required. Those companies are the Austrian Credit Mobilier, the Austro-English Bank of Vienna, the Bankverein and the Austro-Hungarian Bank. Around them will be grouped the chief credit houses of Austria and other countries, so that the capital may be already looked upon as subscribed. The Austrian market is ready to provide two-thirds of it.

COMMODORE VANDERBILT, says a New York letter, buried his wife a few months since—a noble woman who had been his companion from early manhood, and to whom he was indebted for very much of his success in life. When he kept a country tavern on Staten Island she ran the house and attended to everything while he was absent on his boating expeditions. Report has it that the Commodore, who is now seventy-five years of age, is to lead to the hymenial altar in a few days a blooming maiden of seventeen summers.
