FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, July 24, 1869.

The rise in gold, as predicted early last week, when we stated that with 135¼, or about that, the market had touched bottom has set in with more firmness than usual. The market opened at an advance of but one-quarter per cent., declined to closing quotations of Saturday last, and suddenly jumped from 136¾ to 137⅜. The market for to-morrow will now depend on the amounts of gold engaged for shipment, and should they prove to be large, a further advance must be looked for as there is a fast steamer on Thursday, and an extra German steamer on Saturday. The shipment of coin will, in all probability, be much larger this week than the previous, and we should not be surprised to see an advance established above or very nearly to forty per cent. So far no cliques exist for the rise of gold, but it is rumored that they will take hold of it and put up the price high and then follow with stock and bonds. If the announcement of the report from Washington, that bonds will be sold during August in the same proportion as in July prove true, money will be easy, and since gold will get scarce in exports, it will costbut little to have it carried, and may command a premium before the end of the month of August.

Bonds are strong but have advanced only a trifle.

Stocks are strong, but, beside the New York roads, do not seem to have any strength.

Money easy at about 9 per cent. whilst business is dull.

NEW YORK, July 26, 1869.

Money easy and steady at 5@7 per cent. on call, with 6 per cent as the ruling rate. Sterling firm at 9½@10¼ for sixty days, and 10½@10⅝ for sight. Gold firmer; the market opened at 136¾, declined to 136¾, advanced to 137½, and closed at 137¾@137⅞. Carrying rates, 6 per cent. to flat. Clearances, $83,000,000. Stocks were strong most of the day, with much excitement and buoyancy in the Vanderbilt shares. Harlem rose 3 to 4 on one time 18 per cent. above Saturday's rates. It is believed certain operators have taken the advantage of the prevailing excitement in regard to Vanderbilt stock, and of the fact that there is but a small amount of Harlem stock available for speculative transaction, and have made the rapid advance of the past two days. In this connection a report has been circulated to the effect that the capital stock of the Harlem is to be doubled, and the road then leased to the new consolidation of the New York Central and Hudson for 999 years, and that 8 per cent. per annum is to be guaranteed on the increased capital.

Late in the afternoon the market became weak, and Harlem dropped over 10 per cent., selling from 170 down to 159¼. New York Central from 218 down to 216¼, and Hudson from 194 down to 191¾. At the close there was a slight fall, and the market left off strong. The balance of the market was generally firm and did not sympathize to any extent with the decline in Vanderbilt stocks. Michigan Southern and Rock Island were the features of the western shares.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, July 26, 1869.

There was a fair supply of cattle on sale to-day, about 650 head. The sales foot up nearly 800 head, but it should be borne in mind that some droves were wholesaled and afterwards retailed, and consequently reported twice. The supply, however, was fully up to the demand, and had it not been for some outside buyers there would have been quite a number left over unsold; and even with the presence of shippers the market was a little tame and with the exception of of prime fat steers, prices compared with last week ruled lower. Some few extra brought 8 cents but the great proportion of the best cattle sold at from 7¼@7¾, and medium to good, at 6@6¼. Stock cattle continue dull, but unchanged at 4@5¼.

Of the Cattle on sale to-day, there were 24 car loads from the West, as follows: Chicago, 6; Cincinnati 2; Forrest, 1; Mansfield, 3; Mt. Victory, 2; Fort Wayne, 1; Alliance, 1; Barnesville, 1 and 4 cars of which we did not learn the place of shipment. In addition there were 161 head State cattle, 64 from Washington Co; 91 from Green and 6 from Butler—last week there were over 200 head from these counties.

In regard to quality the offerings today were about up to the standard of the past month, and about what is generally expected this season of the year, consisting mainly of medium grass cattle—not the kind sought after by No. 1 butchers. As a consequence, all the best cattle on sale were picked up at full prices, while the common grades were very slow, and did not bring relatively as good figures.

D. P. Moore to Rothchilds 13 head Tuscarawas Co. cattle, mixed, at 5¼; 7 bulls to Shamberg at 3¾.

H. Munroe to Cash 20 Western Reserve mixed cows and steers, at 7,15.

John Hyde to E. Davis 20 head Belmont cows and steers, at 5½.

L. Rothchilds 20 head Chicago steers, at 6¼@7¼.

I. Zeigler 24 head Washington Co. steers, cows, heifers and bulls, at 3½@7.

S. Lowensteine 23 head Washington Co. steers, heifers and bulls, at 4¾@6,87.

Kraus & Haas 54 head Ohio steers, at 5½@7¼.

Peter Hartman 40 head Green Co. steers, at 6@7¼.

M. Verner 51 head Green Co. steers and heifers, at 5½@7.

Jacob Needy 35 head steers, at 7@8 cts.

S. Marks & Bro. 105 Illinois and Ohio stock, at 6@8 cts.

Trautman & Lobman 80 head at 6¾@7¼—20 head over.

Hazlewood & Blackstock sold 18 for Hudson, at 7¼@8; 33 head for Morrison, from Illinois, at 6¾@7¾.

Katz & Keefer 24 Western steers, at 5¼@6¼.

Greenwald & Kahn 60 head Ohio steers, at 7@8.

Holmes, Lafferty & Co. 60 mixed stock, at 5@7.

Hedges & Taylor 67 head Ohio and Illinois steers and heifers, at 5@6¼.

Smith & Blue wholesaled 20 head Ohio steers to Lewis; at 7,15; 20 head Ohio steers to Hartzell, at 6,25; retailed 11 head at 5@6.

Carr & McAllister had 20 head—up to 9:30 they were unsold.

Jas. Hanlin 17 head Washington Co. cows, steers and heifers, at 5@6.

C. Beeler 6 head Butler Co. scalawags, at 4@4¾.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

There was only a moderate supply of this grade of stock on sale to-day, about 1,025 head, and with an improved demand, the market ruled stronger and the best grades of both Sheep and Lambs ruled higher than last week, and even at the advance the supply of this kind was scarcely equal to the demand. Prime fat Sheep may be quoted at 5@5¼ cents per pound and Lambs sold at from $1,50@4 per head, for inferior to extra.

Stakely & Bro. 118 head Lambs, at $1,50 to $3,75@4,00.
