A Human Body and the Hour of Day. Seat yourself at a table. Attach a piece of metal (say a shilling) to a thread.

Knocking knees are among the commonest deformities of human nature; and wise mothers assert that the afflicted one having been put upon his feet too early in babyhood.

Wade Bolton, the man who was recently shot in Memphis by Dr. Dickens, jet, by his will, $10,000, to Mrs. Stone-wall Jackson, and ten acres of land to each of his former slaves.

Ladies at the Adirondacks. A correspondent of the Boston Advertiser, who is doing the Adirondacks by the ignis fatuus of the Rev. Mr. Murray's book, writes: I meet people who protest with much energy against the coming of ladies to the wilderness, and assert that it is "no place for women."

Spiritualism and Science. Professor Tissot, of Dijon, France, an eminent psychologist, has recently published a work upon the imagination, in which he argues that the phenomena of spiritualism and kindred mysticisms can all be accounted for upon purely scientific principles.

The St. Clair Manuscripts. The papers of General Arthur St. Clair, at one time Governor of the Northwest, and one time offered for sale by his descendant, have been examined by the Western Reserve Historical Society.

Knocking knees are among the commonest deformities of human nature; and wise mothers assert that the afflicted one having been put upon his feet too early in babyhood.
