

Pittsburgh Gazette.

VOLUME LXXXIV.

FIRST EDITION.

MIDNIGHT.

THE CAPITAL.

The Mississippi Election—Judge Dent Will Not Decline—Correspondence Concerning the French Cable—Appointments—Revenue Decision—Bingo Tax in New York, etc.—(Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, July 30, 1869.

UNPUBLISHED STATEMENT.

The recent statement that Commissioner Delano had recently given orders to stop the distillation of spirits in New York until further orders, is pronounced untrue at the Revenue Bureau. It is believed the recent activity of officers in New York in settling out frauds led the offenders against the law to make the report.

THE MISSISSIPPI ELECTION.

Nothing has occurred to show that the President will interfere in the coming election in Mississippi; but he has expressed his determination that there shall be a fair one. The District commander was appointed in each county of the State a Board of Masters composed of one Radical on each, a Republican, and one army officer.

A gentleman just from Mississippi, representing the National Conservative Republicans, similar to Mr. Walker party in Virginia, are making accusations from the extreme Radical wing.

Rev. James Lynch, a colored minister from Mississippi, as he says, had a most cordial interview with President Grant this afternoon, in which he assured the President that the colored people of the State were rapidly improving in all that constitutes useful citizens; that they look to the Republican party as the fountain of their recently conferred rights, and therefore would be promotive of public interests.

Thomas J. Tullock, a clerk in the Treasury Department, who was appointed by the President Callahan of Internal Revenue for the District of Columbia, in place of Mr. Flint, deceased.

REVENUE DECISION.

Mr. President has appointed P. R. Gray Collector of Internal Revenue for the Twentieth District of Pennsylvania.

The following Consular appointments were made to-day: William Spendy, Vice Consul of New York, Consul at Ling Kui, and Consul O. Getty, of New York, Consul at Gase, East Indies; Edward M. Peebles, of Michigan, at Treslond.

The President has appointed Gilbert Robertson, Asst. Assessor of Internal Revenue for Florida, and Philip V. Philip H. Nebr., suspended; Philip Ward, Assessor, for the Eighteenth District; vice Alfred H. Palmer, suspended, and John S. Masters, Collector of the Florida District, New York, and vice James Foray, suspended. There are no charges against the suspended revenue men, but it was thought a change would be promotive of public interests.

Thomas J. Tullock, a clerk in the Treasury Department, who was appointed by the President Callahan of Internal Revenue for the District of Columbia, in place of Mr. Flint, deceased.

JUDGE DENT DOES NOT DECLINE.

The following correspondence took place to-day:

Washington, July 30, 1869.—Hon. Lewis Dent—Dear Sir: Having seen certain dispatches to the New York press, reviewing the report that you would decline the candidacy for Governor of Mississippi on the National Union Republican ticket, I desire to assure you that whether you achieve your previously expressed determination on that subject. For the purpose of putting this matter finally at rest, we trust you will favor us with an early response.

Very respectfully,

L. J. JEFFERDS,

(Geo. Mooreman,

Washington, July 30, 1869.—GENTLEMEN: In reply to your communication I bear leave to say that while I cannot determine whether you have formally preferred me, you are at liberty to do so. The National Union Republican party, and the people of Mississippi generally, have never been more improving, and said "they should be" under the promptings of good judgment. He intimated a great desire to have the Fifteenth Amendment ratified.

The following correspondence took place to-day:

Washington, July 30, 1869.—Hon. Lewis Dent—Dear Sir: Having seen certain dispatches to the New York press, reviewing the report that you would decline the candidacy for Governor of Mississippi on the National Union Republican ticket, I desire to assure you that whether you achieve your previously expressed determination on that subject. For the purpose of putting this matter finally at rest, we trust you will favor us with an early response.

Very respectfully,

Louis Dent.

THE FRENCH CABLE—CORRESPONDENCE.

The following correspondence has just reached:

Washington, July 18th, 1869.—Sir: I have the honor to address you on behalf of the Societe du Cable trans-Atlantique Francais, whose interests I represent in this country. I have been informed, in the first instance by Mr. Marton, H. B. Major's Minister, and afterwards by Count de Flourey, the French Charge d'Affaires, of the views of the United States Government, as to its attitude in regard to the proposed incorporation of the French cable in the United States. I desire to assure you that the cable is now owned by the National Union Republican party, and the people of Mississippi generally, have never been more improving, and said "they should be" under the promptings of good judgment. He intimated a great desire to have the Fifteenth Amendment ratified.

The following correspondence took place to-day:

Washington, July 30, 1869.—GENTLEMEN: In reply to your communication I bear leave to say that while I cannot determine whether you have formally preferred me, you are at liberty to do so. The National Union Republican party, and the people of Mississippi generally, have never been more improving, and said "they should be" under the promptings of good judgment. He intimated a great desire to have the Fifteenth Amendment ratified.

The following correspondence took place to-day:

Washington, July 30, 1869.—Hon. Lewis Dent—Dear Sir: Having seen certain dispatches to the New York press, reviewing the report that you would decline the candidacy for Governor of Mississippi on the National Union Republican ticket, I desire to assure you that whether you achieve your previously expressed determination on that subject. For the purpose of putting this matter finally at rest, we trust you will favor us with an early response.

Very respectfully,

Louis Dent.

THE FRENCH CABLE—CORRESPONDENCE.

The following correspondence has just reached:

Washington, July 18th, 1869.—Sir: I have the honor to address you on behalf of the Societe du Cable trans-Atlantique Francais, whose interests I represent in this country. I have been informed, in the first instance by Mr. Marton, H. B. Major's Minister, and afterwards by Count de Flourey, the French Charge d'Affaires, of the views of the United States Government, as to its attitude in regard to the proposed incorporation of the French cable in the United States. I desire to assure you that the cable is now owned by the National Union Republican party, and the people of Mississippi generally, have never been more improving, and said "they should be" under the promptings of good judgment. He intimated a great desire to have the Fifteenth Amendment ratified.

The following correspondence took place to-day:

Washington, July 30, 1869.—Hon. Lewis Dent—Dear Sir: Having seen certain dispatches to the New York press, reviewing the report that you would decline the candidacy for Governor of Mississippi on the National Union Republican ticket, I desire to assure you that whether you achieve your previously expressed determination on that subject. For the purpose of putting this matter finally at rest, we trust you will favor us with an early response.

Very respectfully,

L. J. JEFFERDS,

(Geo. Mooreman,

Washington, July 30, 1869.—GENTLEMEN: In reply to your communication I bear leave to say that while I cannot determine whether you have formally preferred me, you are at liberty to do so. The National Union Republican party, and the people of Mississippi generally, have never been more improving, and said "they should be" under the promptings of good judgment. He intimated a great desire to have the Fifteenth Amendment ratified.

The following correspondence took place to-day:

Washington, July 30, 1869.—Hon. Lewis Dent—Dear Sir: Having seen certain dispatches to the New York press, reviewing the report that you would decline the candidacy for Governor of Mississippi on the National Union Republican ticket, I desire to assure you that whether you achieve your previously expressed determination on that subject. For the purpose of putting this matter finally at rest, we trust you will favor us with an early response.

Very respectfully,

L. J. JEFFERDS,

(Geo. Mooreman,

Washington, July 30, 1869.—GENTLEMEN: In reply to your communication I bear leave to say that while I cannot determine whether you have formally preferred me, you are at liberty to do so. The National Union Republican party, and the people of Mississippi generally, have never been more improving, and said "they should be" under the promptings of good judgment. He intimated a great desire to have the Fifteenth Amendment ratified.

The following correspondence took place to-day:

Washington, July 30, 1869.—Hon. Lewis Dent—Dear Sir: Having seen certain dispatches to the New York press, reviewing the report that you would decline the candidacy for Governor of Mississippi on the National Union Republican ticket, I desire to assure you that whether you achieve your previously expressed determination on that subject. For the purpose of putting this matter finally at rest, we trust you will favor us with an early response.

Very respectfully,

L. J. JEFFERDS,

(Geo. Mooreman,

Washington, July 30, 1869.—GENTLEMEN: In reply to your communication I bear leave to say that while I cannot determine whether you have formally preferred me, you are at liberty to do so. The National Union Republican party, and the people of Mississippi generally, have never been more improving, and said "they should be" under the promptings of good judgment. He intimated a great desire to have the Fifteenth Amendment ratified.

The following correspondence took place to-day:

Washington, July 30, 1869.—Hon. Lewis Dent—Dear Sir: Having seen certain dispatches to the New York press, reviewing the report that you would decline the candidacy for Governor of Mississippi on the National Union Republican ticket, I desire to assure you that whether you achieve your previously expressed determination on that subject. For the purpose of putting this matter finally at rest, we trust you will favor us with an early response.

Very respectfully,

L. J. JEFFERDS,

(Geo. Mooreman,

Washington, July 30, 1869.—GENTLEMEN: In reply to your communication I bear leave to say that while I cannot determine whether you have formally preferred me, you are at liberty to do so. The National Union Republican party, and the people of Mississippi generally, have never been more improving, and said "they should be" under the promptings of good judgment. He intimated a great desire to have the Fifteenth Amendment ratified.

The following correspondence took place to-day:

Washington, July 30, 1869.—Hon. Lewis Dent—Dear Sir: Having seen certain dispatches to the New York press, reviewing the report that you would decline the candidacy for Governor of Mississippi on the National Union Republican ticket, I desire to assure you that whether you achieve your previously expressed determination on that subject. For the purpose of putting this matter finally at rest, we trust you will favor us with an early response.

Very respectfully,

L. J. JEFFERDS,

(Geo. Mooreman,

Washington, July 30, 1869.—GENTLEMEN: In reply to your communication I bear leave to say that while I cannot determine whether you have formally preferred me, you are at liberty to do so. The National Union Republican party, and the people of Mississippi generally, have never been more improving, and said "they should be" under the promptings of good judgment. He intimated a great desire to have the Fifteenth Amendment ratified.

The following correspondence took place to-day:

Washington, July 30, 1869.—Hon. Lewis Dent—Dear Sir: Having seen certain dispatches to the New York press, reviewing the report that you would decline the candidacy for Governor of Mississippi on the National Union Republican ticket, I desire to assure you that whether you achieve your previously expressed determination on that subject. For the purpose of putting this matter finally at rest, we trust you will favor us with an early response.

Very respectfully,

L. J. JEFFERDS,

(Geo. Mooreman,

Washington, July 30, 1869.—GENTLEMEN: In reply to your communication I bear leave to say that while I cannot determine whether you have formally preferred me, you are at liberty to do so. The National Union Republican party, and the people of Mississippi generally, have never been more improving, and said "they should be" under the promptings of good judgment. He intimated a great desire to have the Fifteenth Amendment ratified.

The following correspondence took place to-day:

Washington, July 30, 1869.—Hon. Lewis Dent—Dear Sir: Having seen certain dispatches to the New York press, reviewing the report that you would decline the candidacy for Governor of Mississippi on the National Union Republican ticket, I desire to assure you that whether you achieve your previously expressed determination on that subject. For the purpose of putting this matter finally at rest, we trust you will favor us with an early response.

Very respectfully,

L. J. JEFFERDS,

(Geo. Mooreman,

Washington, July 30, 1869.—GENTLEMEN: In reply to your communication I bear leave to say that while I cannot determine whether you have formally preferred me, you are at liberty to do so. The National Union Republican party, and the people of Mississippi generally, have never been more improving, and said "they should be" under the promptings of good judgment. He intimated a great desire to have the Fifteenth Amendment ratified.

The following correspondence took place to-day:

Washington, July 30, 1869.—Hon. Lewis Dent—Dear Sir: Having seen certain dispatches to the New York press, reviewing the report that you would decline the candidacy for Governor of Mississippi on the National Union Republican ticket, I desire to assure you that whether you achieve your previously expressed determination on that subject. For the purpose of putting this matter finally at rest, we trust you will favor us with an early response.

Very respectfully,

L. J. JEFFERDS,

(Geo. Mooreman,

Washington, July 30, 1869.—GENTLEMEN: In reply to your communication I bear leave to say that while I cannot determine whether you have formally preferred me, you are at liberty to do so. The National Union Republican party, and the people of Mississippi generally, have never been more improving, and said "they should be" under the promptings of good judgment. He intimated a great desire to have the Fifteenth Amendment ratified.

The following correspondence took place to-day:

Washington, July 30, 1869.—Hon. Lewis Dent—Dear Sir: Having seen certain dispatches to the New York press, reviewing the report that you would decline the candidacy for Governor of Mississippi on the National Union Republican ticket, I desire to assure you that whether you achieve your previously expressed determination on that subject. For the purpose of putting this matter finally at rest, we trust you will favor us with an early response.

Very respectfully,

L. J. JEFFERDS,

(Geo. Mooreman,

Washington, July 30, 1869.—GENTLEMEN: In reply to your communication I bear leave to say that while I cannot determine whether you have formally preferred me, you are at liberty to do so. The National Union Republican party, and the people of Mississippi generally, have never been more improving, and said "they should be" under the promptings of good judgment. He intimated a great desire to have the Fifteenth Amendment ratified.

The following correspondence took place to-day:

Washington, July 30, 1869.—Hon. Lewis Dent—Dear Sir: Having seen certain dispatches to the New York press, reviewing the report that you would decline the candidacy for Governor of Mississippi on the National Union Republican ticket, I desire to assure you that whether you achieve your previously expressed determination on that subject. For the purpose of putting this matter finally at rest, we trust you will favor us with an early response.

Very respectfully,

L. J. JEFFERDS,

(Geo. Mooreman,

Washington, July 30, 1869.—GENTLEMEN: In reply to your communication I bear leave to say that while I cannot determine whether you have formally preferred me, you are at liberty to do so. The National Union Republican party, and the people of Mississippi generally, have never been more improving, and said "they should be" under the promptings of good judgment. He intimated a great desire to have the Fifteenth Amendment ratified.

The following correspondence took place to-day:

Washington, July 30, 1869.—Hon. Lewis Dent—Dear Sir: Having seen certain dispatches to the New York press, reviewing the report that you would decline the candidacy for Governor of Mississippi on the National Union Republican ticket, I desire to assure you that whether you achieve your previously expressed determination on that subject. For the purpose of putting this matter finally at rest, we trust you will favor us with an early response.

Very respectfully,

L. J. JEFFERDS,

(Geo. Mooreman,

Washington, July 30, 1869.—GENTLEMEN: In reply to your communication I bear leave to say that while I cannot determine whether you have formally preferred me, you are at liberty to do so. The National Union Republican party, and the people of Mississippi generally, have never been more improving, and said "they should be" under the promptings of good judgment. He intimated a great desire to have the Fifteenth Amendment ratified.

The following correspondence took place to-day:

Washington, July 30, 1869.—Hon. Lewis Dent—Dear Sir: Having seen certain dispatches to the New York press, reviewing the report that you would decline the candidacy for Governor of Mississippi on the National Union Republican ticket, I desire to assure you that whether you achieve your previously expressed determination on that subject. For the purpose of putting this matter finally at rest, we trust you will favor us with an early response.

Very respectfully,

L. J. JEFFERDS,

(Geo. Mooreman,

Washington, July 30, 1869.—GENTLEMEN: In reply to your communication I bear leave to say that while I cannot determine