HOSTHATT GAZETTRA MONDAT, AUGUST 2. MONDAY, AUGUST 2 1869 PITTBURGE CAMETER

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

WARS LOW STREET

8.

THE GASETTE & furnished in the city the six days of the week for 15 cents per week ; by mail, $8 per annum : 8 mos., $2

Argumenu.

the Mederator.

were read and approved.

LEWD PUBLICATIONS.

Rents promise to come down next year The new buildings in the Court House yard are rapidly going up. Blackberrice will be unusually plenty the season commenced. So will tomatoes.

An Artist is to sketch the Linn Court this afternoon, if permission be obtained. following testimony:

Snocks says an English greyhound re-cently poisoned attributed his death to fever and nague.

The Silver Letters on blue coats "C. P.' do not stand for City Police, as many suppose, but for canine polsoner.

It is suggested to put the soldiers' mon-ument on the base of St Pauls old tower. It could be seen all sround.

Linn's "Living Thoughts" contains nothing from the pen of Linn, but is a collection of other people's ideas.

Diminished. The chances for Dimey, the victimized coachinan on the gold speculation Diever hearing of the confidence operators man who struck Mr. Lann was intoxicat-ed; the man who was with me told me last night he could awear the man was drunk; I am a member of Rev. A. K. Bell's (Sandusky Street) Baptist Church, The law breakers were quiet in Alle-cheny on Saturday night, and Mayor Drum's morning laves yesterday was attended by nine persons only. Allegneny.

More Pittoburghers are absent at the watering places this season, than for any corresponding one for many years. A sign of good times.

Personal.-Rev. Dr. Paxton is in our city looking well and hearty. He occu-pied the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church at Shady Side yesterday morn

The Park Question excites consider able attention just now, inasmuch as the people will be shortly called upon to vote for or against a public breathing

Obituary .- Mr. Jacob Boobyer, one our oldest and most respected business citizens, died at his residence in Scott township, on Saturday, at the advanced Large Increase. The books at the U. Large increase — The books at the U. S. Collector's office show the revenue receipts for July 1885, to be in round numbers $97,000, while for July, 1885, they foot up $221,000, Uncle Sam should be gralified at that increase.

A Big Crane.-Mr. David McGonnigle, of Chartiers township, on Tuesday last shot a large sand grane near the mouth of Chartiers brock. It measured seven feet from tip to tip, and is said to be the largest bird of the species ever seen here-

Heavy Defalcation.—Rumora are afloat of a heavy defalcation by the confiden-tial clerk in a manufacturing establishment of this city. The amount involved is about $25,000. The matter is undergoing investigation, but as yet no arrest has

I have known

by her mother, if I remainder correct-by the inbrotuced Mr. Linu it. her mother and probably her father. I don't remember what Mr. Linn said to OHIO PRESETTERI. estimany for the Detense Continued These Doctor Bosts-Mr. Lann's Pepa-Isrity-Pablication of his Boot-Close of the Testimony and Opening of the don't reinember what Mr. Linn said to her but the greeting seemed to be pleas-ant on both sides. We all went to the school house together. I saw Mr. Linn with Miss Smith during the evening. I was within a few feet of them the most of the securing. I did not see snything FIFTH DAY-MOBNING SESSION. Presbytery convened at half past hine o'clock and was opened with prayer by was within a few feet of them the most of the evening. I did not see anything improper in Mr. Linn's conduct toward Miss Smith. I did not notice anything on the part of Miss Smith that would in-dicate that Mr. Linn had wounded her feelings. On the contrary, she seemed quite pleased with his attendance, at least until the supper hour, when he left The minutes of the preceding session quite pleased with his attendance, at least until the supper hour, when he left her to go down to supper with my sister-in law. The school building, in which this meeting wits held, is five stories high. The speeches were made on the third four and the supper was served on Rev. Mr. Collier, Chairman of the Committee appointed to take testimony, was called upon to report, and read the THE SUSPENSION BEIDGE. Andrew Hartung, sworn-Am in the shoe business, on Federal street, Allegheny; last fall, on the night of the Democratic procession, I was coming to Pittsocratic procession, I was climing to the seven and eight o'clock: I came on the seven and eight o'clock: I came on the bridge between the toll gate and the first pier; noticed Mr. Linn speaking to a pier; noticed Mr. Linn speaking to the seven th don't know whether he struck him or not; he came up from behind; the lady said not to strike him: she said that she sked the way to the depot or: the cars, or something of that kind; do not dis-tinctly remember what she had said; I did not see Mr. Linn offer this lady any any insult; she rather defended him; I aporeto Mr. Linn immediately after, near this place; on the bridge; I think the man who struck Mr. Linn was intoxicat-ed; the man who was with me told me Inoughts of Leading Thinkers," rone of the books were delivered promptly; the book was circulated some time be-fore Dr. Jacobus received his; I think the book was delivered within a month.

Q. Did you understand this book to be published as Mr. Wilson recommended? A. There was about fifty pages added to the manuscript after Mr. Linn showed it.

to me. Mr. Linn might have said something that I did not hear, there might have been a short time intervening that I did not see them together, cannot say how. Keruirect-Am a member of St. Andrews Church. I think it is cust drews Church. 1 think 1/15 customary when books are sent as compliments to mark them as such. Subscription book publishers generally send with a book sent in that way a circular, and request-ing the endorsement of the book. Cross-examined—The book was pub-liabed the last of April or the first of May. I can't say whether Dr. Jacobus'

LEWD PUBLICATIONS. Drvid B. Oliver, sworn-I reside in Birmingham; I spent about eight years in the Pittsburgh Postoffice; I think a portion of the time I was there Mr. Rid-ide was Postmaster in Allegheny; I was engaged in the mailing branch of the business, and from frequent handling we became quite familiar with the ap-measure of the packages that contained hooks, such as Mr. Riddle described in his testimony before Presbytery as cov-ering obscene books; the reason I think they are the same packages is because he lished the last of April or the first of May. I can't say whether Dr. Jacobus' name was on the list when the manu-script was handed to me. His name was near the head of the list. Think the names of the Faculty were all together. Direct-One of the motives for pub-lishing the book was receiving the name of the faculty; the book was submitted to me, and Dr. Jacobus' name was fourth on the list. they are the same packages is because he they are the same packages is because he said he could detect one across the room; those hooks would not by some be regarded as obscene. Q. What kind of books were they? A.

Q. What kind of books were they? A. They were books that treated on phyo-logical subjects entirely, and L would not regard them as gratifying an ob-script submitted to you when the sub-script submitted to you when the sub-script submitted to you when the sub-script submitted to you when the sub-scription book was presented? A. T them quits well and paid no atten-tion to them at all, the books were not if the target as obscens: there think he added same forty or fifty pray-ers in order to make the book larger. Direct—There was nothing objectiona-ble or out of keeping with the general character of the book in what was add-ed. It was satisfactory or I would not have published it. Testimony approved. Mr, Linn asked the Court to receive the criticizes of the Western Theologition to them at all; the books were not generally regarded as obscene; there were books that were obscene, but you could not tell them scross the room; we called the books in packages described doctor books in my whole experience there I saw some one or other of the ob-the catalogue of the Western Theologi-cal Seminary as evidence that he was a fourth year student. There was no objection and the cata-scene books found out, but there was no characteristic by which they could be the speaker had not concluded. Freabygone by, since Michael Folcort persuad-AFTERNOON SESSION.

Onvened at two o'clock. The min-utes were read and approved... Dr. Marshall moved to adjourn at half-past three o'clock, to meet at half-past nine o'clock on Monday morning. Car-Dr. McKinney, from the committee ried.

appointed to answer the protest of Mr. Linn, submitted the following: ANSWEE TO PROTEST OR DEMUBRER OF MB. LINN.

numan nature, and the subsequent na-tory of their matrimonial career de-veloped their sad short-sightedness. A little incident transpired in their 1. The precentment on which Mr. Linn 1. The presentment on which Mr. Linn is being tried is precisely that which was adopted by the Presbytery, a copy of which was duly furnished him. 2. The nature of the case made it ne-cessary that the charges should be some-what indefinite, but they come within the neutrino the book of dissipline. A little incluent transpired in their household on Saturday which illustrated the style in which Michael kept his promise. He is a coal miner by occupa-tion, and returned home at an early this meeting was held, is five stories 2. The nature of the case made it ne high. The speeches were made on the cessary that the charges should be some-thing foor, and the supper was served on the first floor. The entire build-left on the tirst floor. The entire build-ing was exceedingly crowded all over. I have known Mr. Linn from ten to the live years. There never heard any thing against Mr. Linn's reputation unit the Oleveland matter occurred, and what I heard of that was from Mr. Linn.

Cross-examined—Did you ever ask Dr. Jacobus to pay for that book. A. We sometimes send books to ministers and others. who have not subscribed; the itile of Mr. Jinn's book was "Living Thoughts of Leading Thinkers," None of the books were delivered promotion to be done at the first meeting (unless by consent of the parties) than giving the minister a full copy of the charges, with the names of the winesses annexed," &c. Mr. Linn had a full copy and the names. ". Whet Mr. Linn calls an "argument". In the asserter is but an effort to give

 What Mr. LIDD Calls an "argument" in the charges, is but an effort to give them definiteness.
The presentment rightly goes be-yond the limit of a year and the bounds. yond the limit of a year and the bounds of this Presbytery, because the charges are somewhat, general in their nature, and the specifications extended back-ward, but the things noted had recently ward, but the things noted had recently become flagrant. The more grevious are within a year, and are in our immediate region. The whole is a series of deeds connected by similarity; and a Presbyfore Alderman McMasters on Saturday against R. F. Smith for false pretence. Smith is a stranger in the city, having connected by similarity; and a ready-tery's moral-jurisdiction is over its Own members. 6. The presentment is "inquisitorial" only in the view that it provides for in-vestigating the truthfulness of the alle-gations therein stated and made. 7. There is no law requiring the strived here but a short time since, and put up at the St. Clair Hotel, registering himself as a resident of St. Louis. He represented himself to be engaged in the dvertising business, and at once sat gations therein stated and made. 7. There is no law requiring the "Prosecuting Committee" personally to wait upon the persons alleged to have about canvassing for advertisements for a show card. He was very successful, and succeeded in recuring a number of wait upon the presentment is based upon no 8. The presentment is based upon no "false issue.". The issue is honestly, truthfully and precisely what the indict-truthfully and precisely matches and the indictment states. This was abundantly man-ifested to the accused at the meeting of Presbytery in the early part of this The so-called protest to which the fore going is an answer, was not introduced to Freebytery till after the trial was com-menced and Mr. Linn had pleaded to the charges; and he then said he did not present it as a bar to the proceedings ini-tiated.

The protest was ordered to be received

Dr. McKaig then resumed his remarks. In referring to the Cleveland troubles, he took the opportunity to read a letter from Mr. Blackburn, of Cleveland, in which the writer stated that Mr. Linn had never been ordered from his house; they had not left the church because of any conduct of Mr. Linn. He also read a letter from the Stated Clerk of the Western Reserve Presbytery, setting forth that Mr. Linn's resignation had been accepted, and recommendand filed. Dr. McKaig then resumed his remarks. scene books round on the species ever seen here-rgest bird of the species ever seen here-rgest bird of the species ever seen here-rgest bird of the species ever seen here-touts. Heavy Defaication by the confiden-found out; there was a general get ould detect as soon as we saw them. There was no objection and the cata-fourth year student. There was no objection and the cata-the style of wrapping and putting up the style of the gospel. Dr. MoKaig ond not be received as testimony at these books passed through the malls. The Moderator ruled that the letter the srgument for the defense. The Moderator, you see

On Friday evening a game of confidence and downright forgery was successfully played on one of our leading Wood street business houses. A man Sudden Death. Mr. Thomas Dardis, an undertaker of Some twenty fast fleeting years have this city, formerly identified with John ed Mary Ann, a blooming and truthful McKeon's livery stable, was yesterday maiden, to link her temporal dostinies riage house of the latter establishment, with his, by promising to love, chercorner of Grant street and Sixth avenue. ish and provide for her until with one He had been ill for several days previous, and on Saturday night laid down on a bench, where he was found. Medical or the other, life's pilgrimage was over. Michael doubtless made his asservations ald was dispatched for, but before of eternal devotedness in good faith, but brought death took place. The deceased alas for him and for Mary, neither cal-culated on the great deceptiveness of human nature, and the subsequent hisbrought death toos place. The deceased was a young man about twenty-six years of age, and leaves a wife and several children. Coroner Clawson held an in-quest, which resulted in a verdict of death from natural causes."

Peticitics of a Married Pair.

Traveling Confidence Man.

Confidence Game and Forgery.

Extortion by Hucksters.

Opera House Company,-We learn that Opera House Company.—We learn that Mr. M. W. Canning, manager of the Op-era Heuse, has engaged the following persons for his theatrical company for next season: Mr. S. K. Chester, Leading Gentleman; Mr. Wood Bankon, Comedian tion, and returned home at an early hour in the morning, after a night of toll, to find no breakfast prepared for him. Incensed at this evidence of neg-lect on the part of his spouse, he mani-fested his wrath in a forcible manner, by seizing the poker and shower. Ing the blows thick and fast upon the head and body of her whom he had engaged to love and a Man; Mr. Wood Banson, Comedian; Mrs. S. K. Chester, Juyenile Lady; Mrs. Mrs. S. K. Cnester, Javenie Lady; Mrs. James Dickson, Soubrette, Mr. Harland, Low Comedian. W. W. Moreland and wife, and E. Everlie, and wife. Mrs. Jas. Dickson was Soubrette at the old upon the head and body of her whom he had engaged to love and cherish forever, a striking demonstration of his fulfillment of that promise. The demonstration, or punishment, as Mary regarded it, was greater than she folt was just to bear, and with this ides in her, mind and the assistance of a friend she reached Alderman MoMasters office from her home on Moust Washington, and hald the facts before that official, which had no in an information for fel-Theater three years ago, while Messra. Moreland and Eberlis and their wives Moreland and Eberlis and their wives were in the Opera House Company of two seasons aco. The Worrell Bisters troupe open on September 6th, playing two weeks. The regular season opens september 20th. Among the start thus for averaged are John F. Owens. F. S. September 20th. Among the stars thus far engaged are John E. Owens, F. S. Chanfrau, Maggie Mitchell, Mrz. D. P. Bowers, Miss Marriott, Mr. and Mrs. Sarney Williams, the Richings Opera Troupe, and the Lydia Thompson troupe. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bates go to the Park Theatre, Brooklyn, and Mr. Harry Hotto to Wood's Theatre, New York. were embodied in an information for fel-onious assault and battery against Mionious assault with barries against was cheal, and upon which a warrant was issued for als areat.

Summer Silks, Thin Dress Goods, Mar-seilles, cheap, at Bates & Bell's, to close Mr. S. R. Johnston, of the firm of W G. Johnston & Co., made information bethe stock.

"Fresh as a Maiden's Blush" is the pure peachy Complexion which follows the use. Hagan's Magnolia Balm. It is the use. Hagan's Magnolia Balm. It is the True Secret of Beauty. Fashionable Ladles 1. Society understand this. The Magnolia Balm changes the rustic Country. Girl into a City Belle more rap-idly than any other one thing. Redness, Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Blotches and all effects of the Summer Spin disappear when it is used, and a genial, cultivated, fresh expression is obtained which rivals the Bloom of Youth. Beauty is possible to all who pure peachy Complexion which follows and succeeded in recuring a number of cards from the most prominent business honses in the vicinity. When his list had been made up he contracted with Measrs. Johnson & Co. to print a number of copies of the large card for fifty dol-lars. The work was done, and at the designated time he called for them, but not having the money to settle the bill was relused them. He retired, but i is alleged, returned again when no one but the foreman was present, and by giving Youth. Beauty is possible to all who will invest 75 cents at any respectable store and insist on getting the Magnolia Ralm.

Use Norming but Lyon's Kathairon to dress the Hair. Linen Goods of all kinds at Bates & Ball's.

alleged, returned again when no one but the foreman was present, and by giving him orders for the money on the parties represented in the card succeeded in se-curing about half a dozen. With these he then started around, quickly collec-ted all the money from the various par-sons and departed, so that when the or-ders given to the foreman were presen-The Purest and sweetest Cod Liver The Purest and sweetest COG layer Oil in the world, manufactured from fresh, healthy livers, upon the sea shore; it is perfectly pure and sweet. Patients who have once, taken it can take none other. Ask for "Hazard and Caswell'3 Cod Liver Oil," manufactured by Cas-well, Hazard & Co., New York Sold by sons and departed, so that when the or-ders given to the foreman were presen-ted they were not accepted; and the swindle became apparent. Hence the information upon which a warrant was instead. It is said that Smith is a swind-lay of this character by compation and issued. It is said that Smith is a swind-ler of this character by occupation, and had just arrived in the city from Boston, where he had successfully duped several parties. It is doubtful if he will be ar-rested, as he has in all probability left for other quarters.

Bates & Bell are selling Silk Mantles, Lace Mantles and Linen Goods cheap.

T 267 L burgh. Ladies patronize the Continental.

all druggists

Tents for Camp Meetings, Hunting and Fishing parties; "A," "Wall" and "Hospital" tents, good as new, at J. H. Johnston's, 179 Smithfield street, Pitts-90.9m it not be well for the Mutual Prot ists to attend to the parents of these roads as well as the drivers and conduc-tors? Is not the sharer of the plunder as bad as the thief?

bad as the this!! A Man-Trap.—The board walk sources the West Commons, Allegheny, from Marion system to Webater street, is in a wary dangerous condition for pedes. very dangerous condition for pedes. Coroner's fraguest.—Coroner Clawson, yesterday, held an inquest on the re-mains of Oatherine. Hansell, a young woman, aged about twenty-five years, who died very suddenly Sunday at three o'clock, at her residence in the Sixth ward. A verdict of death from consump-tion was rendered. A Turn.—"Its a long lane that has no turning," is exemplified in the case of Hugh Madison, whom Alderman But-ler's police have been looking after since Soptember last, for threatening to take the life of Sarah Maxwell. The turning ler's police have been looking atter ance September last, for threatening to take the life of Sarah Maxwell. The turning came on Saturday, when Hugh was ar-rested and committed to jail in default of bail for trial.

2.11

Q. Do you know that these books re-elved by Mr. Linn were doctor books? A. 1 don't know that Mr. Riddle, gave f Mr. Linn my book of my personal knowledge, Ama member of the Chris-tion Church, corner of Beaver street and tion Church, corner of Beaver street and tion Church, seene, Allegheny. City, Montgomery svenue, Allegheny. City, Rev. Mr. King pastor. Did not hear Mr. Riddle's testimony; read it. For one of Riddle's testimony; read it. For one of those packages that Mr. Riddle saw T suppose we saw a hundred. Slight Fire. Saturday about one o'clock the roof of a small outbuilding attached to a residence on Federal street, Pittsburgh, caught fire from falling sparks from the chiminey, but the flames were extinguished before any material damage was done. In the excitement, some rearon foolishly struck an alarm. TESTIMONY OF MISS CAREY, OF CLEVE-LAND. Miss Nellie Carey, sworn-Reside in Cleveland; am a daughter of John E. Carey and was a member of the West-minster Church in that city; I joined du-ring s revival in the winter of 1865 and 1868, during: Mr. Linn's ministry: after Mr. Linn left, my mother and I left; took our papers to the Third street Pre-byterian Church. Q. How did Mr. Linn stand among the young members of the church? A. He some person foolishly struck an alarm, which caused the fire department to turn out. Their services were not required. Personal .-- Mr. Thomas F. Russell, of the Irich Republic, a journal of three years standing, published in New York, and devoted to the inculcation of sound Republican doctrines, is in the city solici-MoKsig .- Mr. Moderator. I have known persons to read them that would not seek after obscene books. Cross-examined—Was not in the Pitts-birgh Postoffice all the time that Mr. Riddle was in the Allegheny Postoffice; Was there I think a greater portion of the time. that we have a number of other witness-es that we might call, but we now ask the Moderator to order the defense to

Dr. McKinney.-I hope, Mr. Modera-Dr. McKinney.-I hope, Mr. Modera-tor, that the Court will do nothing of this kind. Moderator.-Is this request made. in good faith?. Mr. McKaig.-No, Mr. Moderator, only

mr. mcn.aug.-No, mr. moderator, only made according to the precedent estab-lished by the presection. Dr. McKinney asked that the Court adjourn in order to give the prosecution an opportunity to precure rebutting tea-timory.

Dr. Allison, sworn-Last August Rev. Dr. Allison, sworn-Last August 1857 Mr. Fields, pastor at Connellaville, came to me and said he desired to be absent to me and said he desired to be absent to me and said he dealred to be absent and wished me to secure a licentisteor memployed minister to take his place. I haw Dr. Wilson and he referred me io Mr. Linn, who he said would fill the ap-pointment. I sent for Mr. Linn and he consented to fill the appointment. I never heard anything against Mr. Linn up to that time, except the Cleveland difficulty. Dr. McKinney-Q. Will you state by what authority you published in the

Dr. Mchinney-Q: Will you state by what authority you: published in the Presbyterian Banner: that Mr. Linn had received a call to preach at Waynesburg? Ruled out by the Moderator. The defence here closed their case. The detence here closed that the prosecu-Dr. Marshall moved that the prosecu-tion and defence proceed to sum up the testimony. Adopted.

Rev. Dr. MoKaig opened the argument for the defence, and continued speaking until the hour of adjournment. The ar-gument throughout was forcible, and the reworend gentleman anoreged in refu-ting all the charges in ade against the de-ting all the was frequently applanded arey and was a member of the dual inster Church in that city; I joined dual ing a revival in the winter of 1865 and ing a revival in the winter of 1865 and ing a revival in the winter of 1865 and ing a revival in the winter of 1865 and indicated in the dour of adjournment. The ar-other house. It was not house and John of the charge in the defence, and continue the star of the church. Linn's and indicated in the charges in ade a splint the defence, and the ford in the charge in the charge in the defence, and the star indicated in the charge in the defence, and the star indicated in the charge in the defence, and the star indicated in the charge in the defence, and the star indicated in the star indicated in the charge in the defence. The star is the st closest attention by the members of the court, as well as by the large number of spectators present. He claimed that the committee had failed entirely, and urged an acquittal by acclamation as an act of justice. When the gentleman had concluded, Court adjourned until Monday morning st half-past nine o'clock; with prayer by Rev. Mr. Beacom.

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

A Benedict's Traubles. Entering the sea of litigation before the honeymoon is over, seems like rush-ing from serene happiness to the most abject misery, yet sometimes, in ther ceeding is necessary, of which the checkered career of John Adias fur-ling from sametimes and information of the matter checkered career of John Adias fur-ling to married a dameter ceeding is necessary. of which the checkered career of John Adias fur-ling to married a dameter ceeding is necessary. of which the checkered career of John Adias fur-ling to married a dameter ceeding is necessary. of which the checkered career of John Adias fur-nishes an illustration. Sometime ago-ling to married a dameter ceeding is necessary. of which the checkered career of John Adias fur-ling the sametime ago-ling the set of line married a dameter ceeding is necessary. A sum a set of the more and information of the matter checkered career of John Adias fur-ling the sametime ago-ling the set of line marries and information of the matter ceeding the set of line marries and a dameter with set of the set o ing from misery, yet sometimes, in the ourse of human events, such a pro-ceeding is necessary, of which the ceeding is necessary, of which the checkered career of John Adams fur-ishes an illustration. Sometime ago-dishes an illustration. Sometime ago-of Mrs. Lousia MoKain, of Allegheny, of Mrs. Lousia MoKain, of Allegheny, about a year since; when the marriage is about a year since; when the marriage tie was severed by the demise of the his companion, and remained a widow-his companion, and remained a widow-his companion, and remained a widow-be until within a few days ago, when he er until within a few days ago, when he for monial estate. This action seems to monial estate. This action seems to find in the marrier of the first setting and the second time of monial estate. This action seems to finding her reand drew the money. The height of Gen. Rowley's name was subsequently 3 Gen. Rowley's name was subsequently 3 left at the Mayor's office, and the very experienced and highly successful corps of detectives are now endeavoring to ar-rest, the sharper, who is well known in this community, and we patiently wait to see what success will attend their ef-forts. If dog poisoning can be forgotten for awhile, the probability is that the ar-rest will be made. It will be a new sen-rest will be made. It will be a new sen-rest will be made. It will be a new sen-through the efforts of our dity detectives, and one not experienced for some time part. monial estate. This action seems to have been against the will of his former, mother-in-law, who, finding her re-monstances in vaid, determined upon it that nothing accumulated during the life of her daughter should be enjoyed by the new mistress of the mansion. To carry out this design, it is alleged, while the festal ceremonies alleged, on at the house of the bride. Dast

Is it because our market house is rented out to hucksters, who engross all the eligible or accessible stands, that the prevailing high prices of fruits and vegetables are maintained? Pittsburgh and etables are maintained? Pittsburgh and Allegheny are said to have the dearest markets in the whole country. We were in Uniontown on Friday and saw hlack-in Uniontown on Friday and saw hlack-berries and whortleberries respectively selling for 'twenty cents per gallon. On the way down we saw probably one thousand gallons of these berries brought, to the train to be sold in our markets of get on Saturday we went to market of get some of this cheap fruit, and were asked yarlous. mices, from twenty to thirty.

MARRIED. BAYBURN-DAIN-On Monday, July S6th. 1869, by Esv. George Sisterly, Mr. J. C. RAY-BURN, of Fittsburgh, to Miss. HANNAH 1350,00 in DAIN, of Allegheny City, Pa. burs the cashing of the paper would be agreat: scommodation to; him. The cheque was signed with what purported

DIED: McGOWEN-On Saurday morning, July 31, 1869, at four o'clock, Mrs. JUHA McGUWEN, In the 35th year of her, 4ge, SHM-ON Saturday mornin . July 31st, at two o'clorg, hAITE LUELLA, infant d uphter of o'clorg, hAITE LUELLA, infant d uphter of Sarah and Andrew Sims, aged 10 mont, s and 36 Sarah and Andrew Sims, aged 10 mont, s and 36

Notice of funeral in Evening and Morning papers.

UNDERTAKERS.

ALEX. AIKEN, UNDER. ALEX. No. 166 FOURTH STREET. HISDURTH, PLOBTINS OF AIL FIRE CRAPES. HOVES, and every description of Functal For-hisdurg Hoods for Binacd. Booms open data to the cartigges furnished for utry ins rais as 40.00 each. . U. CACh. sty Enabling-Bev, David Kert, D.D., hev. h. . Jacobus, D. D., Thomas Ewing, Esu., Jacob Miller, Sac. 49 00 each CHABLES & PEEBLES, UN. CHABLES & FEERLES, UN DEFTAKEES AND LIVERY STABLER CORE, I EAN DUSKY STREET AND CHURCH AVENUE Allegheny City, where their COPFIN AVENUE Allegheny City, where their COPFIN milation by cowood, Manorany, and Walmat imilation. Borces tarying from $$ to $100. Bo. Combs, at propared for interment. Herrees and Car-des propared for interment. Herrees and Car-tinges furnical who, all stads of Monring ringes furnical. Office open stall hours, day and algot.

PECTAOLES . WEAK EYES!

1.

1.00

- Antina Several Andreas