PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, August 14, 1869.

REVIEW FOR THE WEEK.

There has been rather more activity in the oil market this week, the volume of business in the aggregate, being considerably larger than that of the week preceding, and notwithstanding the feeling is stronger and prices a shade better, yet the inequality in prices still crops out and presents a bad feature in the trade, so far at least as Pittsburgh is concerned, and what is worse than all there seems to be no way of removing it. The fact that prices are higher is not always an indication of a healthy market; as the case now stands the manufacturer is none the better, as Crude has also advanced with Refined, and now, as before, the former is much higher, relatively, than the latter.

Receipts Crude this week, 11,234; last week, 18,498; from January 1st to date, 494,911; same time last year, 698,346. Exports Refined this week, 15,325; last week, 15,182; January 1st to date, 315,580; same time last year, 382,418. Sales this week, 63,500; last week, 29,000. As will be seen by reference to the above statistics, we are considerable behind both in receipts of Crude and shipments of Refined.

CRUDE.

Not a sale reported, and the market does not differ from that of yesterday. Fifteen cents seems to be regarded as the standard price, though there is little if any offering, while at the same time there are but very few, if any, buyers at that figure. Private dispatches from above report a stronger feeling, but there, as here, it is not likely there was anything done.

REFINED.

But a single sale reported, 500 each, September to December at 33; August last half, same as yesterday, 32½ bid, September first half, 32¼—last half 32¾. Lines for the last five and three months 32¾ and 33. Antwerp has again advanced slightly, but it had no effect, with the exception, perhaps, of causing a little firmer feeling.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, August, 14 1869.

The markets have been a little more active this week, there having been a slightly increased volume of business in the aggregate, and as harvesting is about completed, we may look for a still further improvement. There is a good deal of interest manifested in regard to the grain and flour markets; prices are unsettled and irregular, and grain operators generally, are timid about doing much until the season is a little more advanced. Flour although firm is quiet and devoid of excitement, and owing to a strong local competition, it is said, that neither dealers or millers are making any money.

Last year a rule was adopted by the Chicago Board of Trade, which was intended to prevent unprincipled speculators from getting complete control of the markets, and particularly to squelch out entirely, if possible, the "cornering" movements, gotten up by "shysters" to take advantage of the trade. A movement is now on foot, coming, no doubt, from these shysters, many of whom do not know of what a legitimate business consists, to have this rule erased. The Chicago papers, very properly, are opposed to the repeal, and it is not likely that these reckless speculators, will succeed in gaining their point. About this time last year there was a "corner" in the Chicago wheat market, causing a heavy loss, to many honest and legitimate dealers, others who had all to win and nothing to lose, failed to come to time, and thus the only ones who did not lose were those who belonged to the genus properly designated as "scalpers."

APPLES—Continue very dull with a heavy supply and light demand; we now quote at $2@3 per bbl.

BERRIES—Blackberries are higher, in consequence of diminished receipts; Sales at $1,25@1,35 per bucket.

BUTTER—Is quiet and unchanged; sales at 22@25, for good to prime.

BEANS—Sales at $1,75@2.

BROOMS—Quoted as follows: No. 5 $6,50; No. 4 $6; No. 3 $5, No. 2, plain, $4,50, and market firm.

CHEESE—Is firmer but unchanged; Western Reserve 13½@14; Ohio Factory 14½@15; Ohio Goshen 15½ and York Goshen 16¼.

CEMENT—Johnstown Hydraulic Cement is quoted at $2,25 per bbl.

CARBON OIL—Standard brands may be quoted at 28 for 50 or 100 bbl lots and 30 in a retail way.

DRIED FRUIT—Out of season.

EGGS—Very dull and in large supply; sales at 14@15.

FEATHERS—Dull; quoted at 80@85 cents to the trade, and the usual advance for small lots in store.

FLOUR—The market is quiet but firm, and notwithstanding the arrival are light, the supply is, nevertheless, fully up to the demand. We continue to quote spring wheat brands at $7@7,25 for fair to good, and $7,50@7,75 for choice to fancy. Winter wheat flours are being sold at $7@7.50.
