

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

THE GAZETTE is furnished in the city at the rate of 10 cents per week...

Snooks says arresting any person without a warrant is an unwarrantable proceeding.

Warm.—The mercury was "on a high" Saturday, and succeeded in getting up to 92 degrees above zero...

Order seemed to be Allegheny's first law Saturday night. Only four unfortunate appeared before Mayor Drum yesterday morning.

Foot smashed.—James Wilkins, a coal miner, while at work in a coal pit near Wilkesburg, had his foot crushed by a quantity of slate falling upon it.

Daylight Bathers.—Officer Garrison yesterday arrested four boys for bathing in the Monongahela river between sunrise and sunset.

Work in the Pittsburgh Steel Works, Anderson & Woods proprietors, is resumed after a brief suspension...

The Mayor's Court.—At the Mayor's morning court yesterday there were forty-two cases disposed of.

Is it True?—A New York dispatch in our telegraph columns this morning, stated that one hundred and fifty men from Pittsburgh have contracted with the rebel authorities in Cuba...

Democratic Primary Elections.—The Democracy of this county held their primary elections Saturday for the purpose of electing delegates to a County Convention...

Suicide.—Moses Armstrong, bar tender at the "Bunk Tavern, on the Brownsville road, about three miles from the city, Mr. Young, the proprietor had been out riding and when he returned, on entering the stable, he found Armstrong lying in a pool of blood...

Exciting Interest.—The literary question promises to be one of the most exciting points at issue in the local politics of Allegheny at the next election.

The School Fund.—We learn from Mr. Cochran, the City Treasurer, that he has collected and paid over to the Treasurer of the Central Board of Education $152,000 school taxes for the ensuing year.

Bath House Closed.—We heard considerable grumbling yesterday from persons who have been in the habit of taking a bath on Sunday morning...

Disorderly Conduct.—John Sullivan was before the Mayor yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct. It appears that John committed an assault and battery on William Vogle, a meat vendor on Penn street, by knocking him down.

Artist Interfered With.—Saturday afternoon Alonzo Billings, a house painter and decorative artist, was peacefully pursuing his avocation about his house in the Fourteenth ward, when he alleges, a certain John A. Bixton interfered with him...

Female Education.—Mr. and Mrs. Twining who so long and admirably conducted the popular "Twining School" in this city, have changed their place of operations to Philadelphia...

In Trouble Again.—John Wilbert made information before Alderman Neepser, Saturday, charging James Brown and Daniel Murphy with conspiring to extort money from him.

Female Education.—Mr. and Mrs. Twining who so long and admirably conducted the popular "Twining School" in this city, have changed their place of operations to Philadelphia...

Insane Man Arrested.—Albert Winfield, a resident of Greenfield, Washington county, was arrested in this city yesterday at the instance of one of his brothers...

AQUATIC.

Another Meeting of Hamill and Couther's Friends.—A Race Probably.

The friends and backers of the aquatic sportsman Hamill and Couther had a meeting at Hamill's saloon, Smithfield street, for the purpose of making arrangements for another race between their principals.

St. Martin's German Catholic Church.—Laying of a Corner Stone.

Yesterday afternoon, the corner stone of St. Martin's German Catholic Church, Temperanceville, was laid with appropriate exercises.

The Turner Festival.—Honors Awarded.

The XVIIth annual reunion of the National Turners Association was concluded at Chicago on Friday, after a very successful and enjoyable season of athletic enjoyment.

Rescued from Drowning.

Yesterday afternoon an exciting scene occurred near the Temperanceville landing of the ferry boat "Cassawago."

Daylight Robbery.

Another bold robbery was perpetrated about two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, at the book store of R. S. Davis, Liberty street.

Severely Burned.

A Mrs. Antone, a widow lady residing in a court off Diamond alley, was seriously burned yesterday by an explosion of coal oil.

The Virgin Alley Raid.

In the Gazette of Saturday we published an account of a raid made by the Chief of Police and a squad of his officers upon certain houses in Virgin alley...

We have since learned that another house was entered on the same evening, from which four girls were taken to the lock-up and kept over night.

Education on the Farm.

In noticing the Iron City College, the other day, we made reference to the large numbers of its graduates to be found engaged in the actual business of nearly every town and city throughout the country.

Discharged.

Saturday morning Mayor Brush discharged from the police force Lieutenants Fowler, Mackeler and Bringer.

Black Appropriations.

A few days ago, Robert Madden, one of the colored citizens of the Sixth ward was visited by a dusky friend, John A. Braid, of Brownsville, John engaged the hospilities of his friend two or three days, and departed apparently highly pleased with his trip.

Sudden Awakening.

Wagon Demolished.

Gustava Retzer had a new wagon demolished Saturday afternoon. He explained the cause of the demolition...

The Harvard Crew in England.

The crews of the Harvard crew and of their boats on the Thames, says Witnes' Spirit of the Times, is upon the whole, good.

Bathing in the Basin.

Saturday evening, about a dozen men, suffering doubtless from the excessive heat, and not having had a bath for a year or two concluded to enjoy that luxury...

The Other Side.

An item published a few days ago, of a case in which Mrs. Kelly appeared as defendant and a countryman named Hoag as prosecutor, unintentionally disclosed to the public a lady...

Obituary.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Frances Graham, the estimable mother of Hon. James L. Graham, died at her residence in Allegheny.

Wagon Demolished.

Gustava Retzer had a new wagon demolished Saturday afternoon. He explained the cause of the demolition...

The Harvard Crew in England.

Bathing in the Basin.

The Other Side.

Obituary.

Figured Grandines.—Bates & Bell offer Silk Grandines for 50c, worth 75c.

The Auction.—At the salesroom of J. W. Barker & Co., 20 St. Clair street, will be auctioned this day (Monday), sales commencing at 9 1/2 A. M.

Printed P. M's. worth one dollar, closing out at 50 cents.

Remnants of dress goods, silks and poplins and wool goods, cheap at J. M. Burchfield & Co.

Wagon Demolished.

Gustava Retzer had a new wagon demolished Saturday afternoon. He explained the cause of the demolition...

The Harvard Crew in England.

Bathing in the Basin.

The Other Side.

Obituary.

Figured Grandines.—Bates & Bell offer Silk Grandines for 50c, worth 75c.

The Auction.—At the salesroom of J. W. Barker & Co., 20 St. Clair street, will be auctioned this day (Monday), sales commencing at 9 1/2 A. M.

Printed P. M's. worth one dollar, closing out at 50 cents.

Remnants of dress goods, silks and poplins and wool goods, cheap at J. M. Burchfield & Co.

Wagon Demolished.

Gustava Retzer had a new wagon demolished Saturday afternoon. He explained the cause of the demolition...

The Harvard Crew in England.

Bathing in the Basin.

The Other Side.

Obituary.

Figured Grandines.—Bates & Bell offer Silk Grandines for 50c, worth 75c.

The Auction.—At the salesroom of J. W. Barker & Co., 20 St. Clair street, will be auctioned this day (Monday), sales commencing at 9 1/2 A. M.

Printed P. M's. worth one dollar, closing out at 50 cents.

Remnants of dress goods, silks and poplins and wool goods, cheap at J. M. Burchfield & Co.