Democratic County Convention-The Organization—Scenes of Confusion—Report of Committee on Contested Seats
—The Nominations—Resolutions, &c. The delegates elected by the Democracy on Saturday, the 14th inst., assembled in Convention in the Supreme Court Room yesterday morning for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the several county and other offices to be filled at the ensuing October election. The Convention was called to order at half-past ten o'clock by T. J. Keenau, Chairman of the Democratic County Executive Committee, who stated that he was ex-officio temporary chairman. After stating the object of the Convention he said that the Democracy had assembled and were ready to do their duty to their party. It had been his privilege for several years past to perform the du-ties which he was now performing for the last time, as he had positively da-

He announced that the first business in order would be the elec-tion of temporary Secretaries. On motion, the following named gen-tlemen were elected: S. C. McCandless, George H. Kuhn, W. M. Rafferty, Ed. J. Hughes and Charles B. Mowry. The credentials of the delegates were then called for, and bythe method adopted then called for, and by the method adopted a very full representation was obtained. When a district was called, if there were no credentials handed in, some gentleman would give the names of two persons, which would be entered by the Secretaries, about one-fourth of the districts being represented in this manner. In calling over the districts, it was ascertained that there were contests for the seats in three districts, the Fifth ward, Eighth ward and McClure township.

Christy Bradford, a claimant from the Fifth ward, whose right to a seat was contested by C. B. Strain, handed in his credentials, and Alderman J. A. Strain ounced that the seat was contested. announced that the seat was contested.
Christy replied that Mr. Strain was not a member of the Convention and had no right to speak.
When McClure township was called, R.

H. Kerr, Esq. before handing in his credentials desired to explain the contest in his district. The Chairman ruled him out of order and stated that it would be necessary to appoint a committee on contested seats o whom this matter would have to be Mr. Kerr replied that it would not be necessary to appoint a committee in the case of McClure township as the contest

Mr. Moore held that the resolution was out of order at this time.
Mr. Keenan held that it was in order and was only passed to facilitate business.

Mr. Strain said that by a resolution previously adopted it was decided to re-fer all resolutions to a committee, and he moved that the whole matter be laid on The Chairman ruled that there was nothing before the Convention as he had decided that the resolution was adopted. Mr. Moore appealed from the decision f the Chair. A vote being taken, the appeal was apparently sustained but was not so deci-ded by the Chair, and the motion was ded by the Chair, and the motion was allowed to rest for a time.

Mr. Moore asked permission to make an explanation. He said that during the temporary absence of the Chairman of the Convention, Mr. Keenan had offered the resolution for the purpose of supports. the Convention, Mr. Keenan had ouered the resolution for the purpose of smug-gling it through the Convention. That notwithstanding the fact that the resolution had not been put to a vote or heard by the Convention, the gentleman officiating as Chairman had vote or heard by the Convention, the gentioman officiating as Chairman had decided that it was adopted. He had appealed from that decision, which appeal was sustained by a very decided vote, yet the Chair had not so declared. He desired to say that this Convention would protest against such action, or against that resolution standing as a part of the action of this Convention. of the action of this Convention.

Another scene of "confusion worse confounded" here ensued, and cries of consounced nere ensued, and cries of the is out of order," "go on with the marking," "go on Mr. Moore," &c., were heard from all parts of the house.

After considerable trouble the Chairman succeeded in restoring partial order when the marking was proceeded with.

A LIBERAL COLLECTION.

Mr. Keenau stated the Janitor had considerable trouble cleaning the room after siderable trouble cleaning the room after Democratic Conventions, and at the last two Conventions he had been overlooked. He would therefore sugest that a Committee be appointed to pass around and raise a collection. A Committee was appointed and started round, whereupon several delegates had business outside and others were in search of "change for a quarter." The sum total contributed was $5.90. On motion adjourned. The successful candidates are marked with an asterick.

Mr. Geo. Moore Called on us yesterday, he and his wife having just returned from a visit to the Old World. They left Glasgow on the 3lst of July on board the steamship Gambria, and made a very narrow escaps from shipwreck. For three days and nights they were surrounded by dense fog, and finally struck on a rock of New Foundland. For three hours off New Foundland. For three hours their situation was one of imminent peril. The boats were prepared, portions of the cargo were thrown over and the passengers united in prayer. At last, as Mr. Moore says, by a special interposition of Providence, the for lifted just as the tide moore says, by a special interposition of Providence, the fog lifted just as the tide was raising and the vessel was able to go off upon her proper course, the same day that the ill-fated Germania struck and went to pieces. Mr. Moore says that all the passengers unite in the belief that the officers and crew did their whole duty and everything else that was in their power to avert the catastrophe, which they so narrowly escaped.

Further Particulars. Winnie Orenel on Monday afternoon threatened to throw a bottle of "stuff" on Margaret Krane. She was promptly arrested on a warrant from Alderman Humbert, at Margaret's instance, and the evil design thus thwarted. At the learing before the Alderman she was further compelled to give bonds to keep the peace toward her neighbor. Incensed at being thus checked up, she appeared at Alderman Strain's office yesterday and complained that Margaret had struck her twice in the face with her fist. An officer with a warrant repaired to the residence of Mrs. Krane, No. 17 Point street, to arrest her but found the house vacated this time, the lady having re-tired but a few minutes before his arri-val. She will, in all probability, have an opportunity of explain matters to-day.

Unpleasantness.

Samuel Stevenson and Benjamin Hogan are employed in a rolling mill in the Tenth ward. Yesterday they had a little unpleasantness, which resulted in two informations before Alderman Taylor, one for surety of the peace and the other for assault and battery, Hogan in both cases appearing as defendant. Ac-cording to Stevenson's statements, Horan struck him in a puglistic way, and followed it up with an ominous threat that he would deprive him of his brains by knocking them out. The Alderman issued a warrant for Mr. Hogan's arrest, when the circumstances will be investigated.
