(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

RIOT AT SPRING HILL GROVE.
A desperate riot occurred yesterday at Spring Hill Grove. The Emmett Guards of Jersey City, had a picnic there, the participants numbering over fifteen hundred persons. A rough insulted lady and was knocked down by the guards, when a general fight ensued. The roughs, who were in the majority, made a desperate attack on the guards. During the melee revolvers were drawn and knives and stones freely used. John Malone was shot and a man named O'Brien stabbed, and severely wounded with stones. After a great effort the Emmett Guards succeeded in getting back to their barges, and put off at three o'clock. There was great excitement among the women and children, and a fearful scene prevailed for some time.

When the boats got out a large number of the crowd on shore returned to Jersey City, where they collected nearly six hundred sympathizers, and waited, last night, at the landing, for the arrival of whoever shot Malone was freely expressed, but the police were unable to bring about a great excitement and a free use of their muses, succeeded in averting a riot, and escorting the excursionists safely to their homes. Several arrests were made.

THE FREIGHT QUESTION.
It was this morning ascertained that although the competing lines had no contract to freight to the western points at the present low price, after Saturday at 5 P. The prices bulletined at the Pennsylvania Central Railroad office at St. Louis last night, 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th classes to Chicago fifty cents per ton; 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th classes to St. Louis sixty cents; all classes to Erie and New York Central depot are: All classes to Erie yesterday sent out from Jersey City fifteen trains, averaging eighteen cars to each engine, and a single car on the route at the side switch between Port Jervis and Jersey City alone. DECISION BY THE COMMISSIONER OF CUSTOMS.
Considerable excitement has been occasioned by the decision of the Commissioner of Customs, that the fees collected by the Collector of New York under several laws are unconstitutional, and cannot, hereafter, be collected. It seems that the decision will not in the least diminish the amount of duties and municipal fees, which hitherto have been paid to United States officers, as a condition to owners, who prefer to pay a fine to the Supreme Court alone has power to decide what laws are unconstitutional. It is believed that the Secretary of the Treasury will not uphold the Commissioner's decision, which, at most, would render necessary separate collection officers.
