Our Allegheny Subscribers.

Some complaints having reached us from Allegheny City of the non-delivery, or late delivery of the GAZETTE, we have to say that our arrangements are for the delivery of the paper to all our Allegheny subscribers at from 5 to 7 o'clock A. M. If any fall of delivery or are not dropped before 7 o'clock A. M., we will think the subscribers to leave notice of the delinquency at the office, in order that the evil may be remedied.

The Names of Mr. Lockhart and Mr. Mawhinney are in the list of Americans, Paris, registered at the banking house of Messrs. Drexel, Harass & Co.

Disorderly Conduct.—Rose Bling made information before Alderman Koenig, charging Gottlieb Feil with disorderly conduct. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Committed.—Yesterday morning Jos. Smith had a hearing before Mayor Drum on a charge of stealing a copy of tobacco from the freight depot, on Penn street. He was committed for trial.

An Improvement.—A decided improvement has been made at the Second avenue spring or fountain, by the addition of a large cast iron cover to the fountain, which is in the hands of the Birmingham Bridge Company.

Sent to Clarence.—Samuel Gibson, a notorious boy, was sent to the Work House yesterday by the Mayor, on a charge of attempting to rob the Messrs. Bruggers at Orion, commission merchants, on Liberty street.

Completed.—The repairs on Smithfield street, which the Birmingham Passenger Railway Company have been making, have been completed, and the workmen have been transferred to the South side of the river for the purpose of repairing Carson street.

Dr. Ingraham & Co.'s Advertising Troupe are in Allegheny. It consists of four horses, one a dancing horse, and a man. They are well equipped with every place they have visited. The Kiltanning Sentinel says: "They are gentlemen, and do as they agree."

Personal.—Rev. E. B. Snyder, formerly pastor of the North avenue M. E. Church, Allegheny, on a brief visit from Chicago, to his friends in the city. He will preach to-morrow morning to his old congregation at the M. E. Church, Sunday School in the afternoon.

Alleged Larceny.—Andrew Harry made information, some days since, before Justice Ammon, charging Charles Mollenhaus with the larceny of a wagon valued at $20. A hearing was held yesterday when the defendant was discharged, the case being dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor.

Hot Weather.—Yesterday was by several degrees the hottest day of the season in this locality. The mercury in the thermometer at the south end of the Monongahela Suspension Bridge stood at 97 deg. above zero in the shade at half past two o'clock, and at the same point reached 109 deg. in the sun.

Officer Prosecuted.—Patrick Mabby made information before Justice Ammon yesterday against officer Gabby of the Allegheny Police, for assault and battery. The prosecutor alleges they had a difficulty in the South side of Carson street, when Gabby knocked him down. Warrant issued.

Surety of the Peace.—Mrs. Mary Harrison made information before Justice Ammon, charging Howard Munn and others with malicious mischief. He alleges that Munn and two other boys entered the orchard of Howard Munn and destroyed the orchard, and destroyed the fruit trees, "contrary to the act of Assembly in such cases made and provided." A warrant was issued.

The Boat Race.—The referee in the boat race of Thursday, gave his decision in favor of the party who quit their boats, declaring that Coulter had won the race and was entitled to the stakes. The time, as given by the timekeeper by the referee, was thirty-seven minutes and fifty seconds, which is the best time ever made in a race over that course.

Slight Fire.—At fifteen minutes past nine o'clock last evening an alarm of fire was given from box 25, which was occasioned by a slight fire in Anderson, Cook & Co.'s steel works, on Ross street and First avenue. The fire department responded promptly but did not go into service, as the fire was extinguished by a hose belonging to the establishment. No damage of any consequence was done.

Pocketed the Proceeds.—William Reese and another man ran a foot race at Ormsby's Grove, Monday, for seeing which the sum of twenty-five cents was charged, and Thomas Sullivan was gate-keeper. It is alleged that Thomas Reese pocketed the proceeds of the race, and was charged with larceny. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Ferocious Dog.—William Palmer is the possessor of a dog, which, not being an inhabitant of this city, failed to receive a dose of Hagar's "veterinary" and consequently had during the dog-days been roaming at large, "seeking whom he might bite." In the course of a recent visit to a little girl, the daughter of Patrick Thorne, a resident of South Pittsburgh, who made information before Justice Ammon, charging Palmer with keeping a ferocious dog. A warrant was issued.

The War in Africa.

Crawford street, in the neighborhood of No. 23, was the scene of considerable excitement yesterday morning. An engagement took place between the Fairfaxes, Richards and Duffays. It is not known, and probably never will be known, the exact circumstances which brought on the conflict. It will suffice, however, to know that after a short colloquy Mrs. Fairfax, better known as Fanny, dropped a word which caused the feelings of Fanny Daily to overflow. She did more; she became violent in her demonstrations of displeasure, and it is said in her wrath seized a poker with which she staggered Mrs. Fairfax by two well-directed and powerful blows. Mrs. Fairfax received one on the back of the neck and the other below her right eye. This was all wrong. Pokers were not made for this purpose, and should not be so used. The Fairfax stock was game thought, and did not succumb—not yet, it is maintained her ground gallantly, though odds turned against her. Mrs. Richards, finding her neighbor Duffay's wife in the wrong, called to her rescue. Mrs. Fairfax was made aware of the presence of a new opponent by a brick which was thrown at her. She was frightened with the thought of the provisions of the assault and battery act by endeavoring to escape, and landing some assistance by a crowd of onlookers.

Who is Responsible.

Some weeks since a notorious character was arrested, in this city as a professional thief, and taken before the Mayor, who committed him for ninety days in accordance with the laws. Subsequently, an attorney, on obtaining a promise from the Mayor to release him on condition that he, the thief, would leave the city within twenty-four hours, and not return again. The chief of police was informed by the Mayor on what conditions the man had been released, with instructions to arrest him if found within the city limits after the expiration of twenty-four hours. Over a week has passed since these instructions were issued, and the thief, although he may be seen on the streets every day and night in the week, has not been arrested. Who is responsible? It is quite evident some one is at fault.

The attorney certainly had a right to secure the release of the thief, and to release him; in fact it was the best thing he could do, provided the conditions of the release were complied with, as he could thereby save the county the expense of keeping the prisoner. It is the duty of the Chief of Police to see that the conditions of that release were fully carried out, and if not to arrest the man and have him re-committed. We should think that the number of larcenies and robberies which have been committed in this city during the past week or two would be an inducement to Chief Hague to cause the arrest of a man whom he had committed to the hands of thieves and burglars. Will he do it?

Changed His Mind.

There are several ways of being taken in, some of which are creable and others are not. Sometimes persons are taken in by being made the victim of a scampt in whom they have trusted. It was in this way James McGowan, proprietor of the Western Hotel, at the rail-car crossing, Penn street, alleged he suffered. John Welch is charged with making him the victim of a scampt. John obtained boarding at the hotel for some time, and left his baggage as security for the bill when the scampt was made. He was managed to slide along two or three additional days, when he requested the landlord to allow him to procure some clear lines on the rail, representing, it is alleged, that he was about to get the money for the bill. The countering landlord, however, declined to do so for the purpose of making the change. He saw him no more, nor the scampt either. He asserts that the scampt, by some reptilian means, effected his escape, and thus cut him out of the loss of his bill. To endeavor to right the matter he made information before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, against Welch for false pretence. Warrant issued.

Miraculous Escape.

Thursday evening, between six and seven o'clock, Captain T. K. Fowler made a very narrow escape from instant death at Leetsdale, about fifteen miles beyond this city, on the Fort Wayne Railroad. At that point he stepped off the train, which had stopped for passengers. The train was about to start, and he was again when he attempted to jump on the front platform of the rear car, but tripped and knocked his head against the car, causing him to lose his hold and fall on the track underneath with his head resting on the rail. Quick as thought a bystander seized hold of one of the wheels, from his perilous position, not five seconds before the wheels of the hind truck passed over the track upon which his head was resting. He was somewhat stunned by striking his head, but recovered in a short time and was able to walk around, apparently none the worse for the accident, which almost caused his death.

Grand Charity Picnic.

On Wednesday next, at Monitor Grove, on the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago Railroad, the Union Charity Club, of this city, will hold their annual excursion to the woods and wilds with a grand select picnic. The social winter and summer occasions of this philanthropic and benevolent society, which has many of our best and most respected young men, have always been regarded with high favor by the general community, and doubtless there will be large attendance on Wednesday next. A string band, a good dinner, a broad and wide platform for dancing and no noise in the neighborhood, are the striking temptations. No person will be admitted to the grounds who has not paid a membership fee, and no exception on any consideration has ever been known to this rule by the Club. We advise our friends who are desirous to attend to seek out the managers and procure an invitation.

Among the many who lost or won on the boat race, none were more enthusiastic or interested in the aquatic excitement than Mrs. Ellen Kemp and Mrs. Mary Alexander, ladies of color, residing on State alley, Sixth Ward. Mrs. Kemp was firm in her convictions that "the little engine" would come off triumphant, while Mrs. Alexander was equally confident that success would crown the efforts of "the Manchester steamer."

In intervals of leisure, the two would pass the time pleasantly in spirited discussions in reference to the matter, but until the race was decided, no feeling was manifested. Then the amicable relations were somewhat disturbed by the action of Mrs. Alexander. It was well enough that she should rejoice at the result which confirmed her previous judgment, but rather went beyond the limits of decency and propriety in the manner of Mrs. Alexander. She jubilated extensively and in a boisterous manner. As might have been expected, Mrs. Alexander was the first to turn the other cheek, and finally turned the Alexander joy into mourning, by lifting several handfuls of hair from the head of Mrs. Alexander, when she called at Alderman Butler's office yesterday and complained to the chief of police, who immediately sympathized with her, and directed his constable to secure the attendance of Mrs. Kemp at a court to answer a charge of assault and battery.

How It is Done.

A few days since a young man, having been guilty of some slight indiscretion, in consequence of which he was involved in a criminal proceeding of a rather serious nature, called upon us and requested us not to publish the matter, with which request, after hearing his explanation of the affair, we promised compliance. He then informed us that he had requested the Alderman Butler to make a statement to the effect that the information was made to suppress it from the reporters, which that worthy declined to do only on condition that he had no objections to Alderman making heavy bills of costs and collecting them, if the court will permit. We have no objections to Alderman making heavy bills of costs and collecting them, if the court will permit. We have no objections to Alderman making heavy bills of costs and collecting them, if the court will permit.

The Robbery on Sixth Street.

We stated yesterday that a little boy had robbed the till at Hespeneheid's store, Sixth avenue, and incorrectly stated the amount taken. It should have been one hundred and thirty dollars, the little fellow, Patsy Cummings by name was arrested about nine o'clock the same evening at his father's residence Point street, and also this morning when, E. A. Frank, the clerk at the store made information against Cummings for receiving stolen goods. Cummings was committed to jail, and will have a hearing this morning. One hundred and thirty dollars, and a portion of the same was found in the possession of Whelan.

Retained the Effects.

The funeral of a colored lady who had made Allegheny her home, occurred a few days since. The deceased left behind some household effects and personal property, and hardly had her mortal remains been laid in the grave, before a difficulty arose relative to the disposal of the articles. The matter ended in a suit which was tried yesterday. Anna Heilich, a sister of the departed, claimed the goods, but alleges she was cheated out of them by a man who obtained possession of and refused to give them up, notwithstanding her repeated demands for the arrest of the obstinate James, who will be allowed an opportunity to explain himself. All the parties reside in the third ward.

Recovered.

A day or two since some dextrous scamp entered the office of Dr. Donnelly, on Grant street, and carried off a new light spring overcoat from the back of the coat rack. The scamp was traced by Officer O'Connor, of the circumstance, and was diligent search found the article in Cohen's pawnbroker shop, corner of Penn and Canal streets. Mr. Cohen, when the article was identified immediately handed it over to the recovering man, and after receiving his name as Frank Lyons, Frank failed to pay an appearance. He will probably not have left town, as he is supposed to have left town.

An Amusing Wager.

An amusing incident consequent upon the result of the boat race between Hamilit and Coulter will take place this evening. D. W. Keeler and John Faas bet on the boat race, the wager being that the losing man should wheel the other to the residence of the winning oarsman in a wheelbarrow, the prize being a brass band, and after securing the champion return in the same manner to the starting point. Keeler having bet on Hamilit is of course the losing man, and at five o'clock this evening the "wheelbarrow train" will start from the Mayflower saloon on Federal street, Allegheny city, preceded by the Grand Western Band.

The New York Circus.

In a few days the celebrated "New York Circus Company," of New York, will spread their tent in Allegheny City and invite the people to an entertainment which has won the highest praise from the leading eastern journals. This company has a decided reputation and introduced a circus in amusement under the tent. Discarding all that is low and vulgar and offering an entertainment which is pleasing and amusing without resorting to a show, they are to be congratulated and we are convinced there is no doubt, and innocent amusement in the ring, and genuine humor in the performances under the tent.

Locked up for a Hearing.

William Palmer was arrested on a charge of larceny, last evening, by Officer E. Buckley, a constable on Market street. It appears that Palmer is a brother of the late John Palmer, who was arrested on a charge of larceny, and while at the work, he alleges that he stole a pair of shoes from a man who was arrested by the other brother. The boy was locked up in the watch house for a hearing to-day.

In Memoriam.

At a special meeting of the Allegheny County Medical Society, held August 17, 1896, the following tribute of respect was paid to the memory of their late colleague, Franklin Irish, M. D.:

Resolved, That the members of this Association having heard with deep sorrow the death of their late associate, Dr. Franklin Irish, take this opportunity of acknowledging and conveying to the friends and family of the deceased their high appreciation of his many sterling qualities, and their sense of the great loss to the profession and the community he has sustained.

That in the death of Dr. Irish this Society has lost an honored and useful member and the profession a devoted and accomplished disciple, one who by his bearing and intercourse with his professional brethren, obtained and received tribute due to honorable men.

Urban and amiable in his intercourse with all, yet detached the pleasure of society in a great measure by reason of failing health, incurred by his services in the late war, where he was known as an efficient and faithful surgeon.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the papers of this city for publication at the discretion of the Society.

S. N. BENHAM, M. D., THOS. J. GALLAGHER, M. D., & TO M. F. EAST, M. D., J. WILSON WISHEM, M. D., Committee.

Mortuary Report.

The Physician to the Board of Health, Dr. W. S. Wiley, makes the following report of deaths in the city of Pittsburgh, for the week commencing August 7th and ending August 14th, 1896:

There were 24 deaths, of which 15 were males and 9 females; 82 were white and 2 colored.

Life Insurance.

On this subject a writer for the Sunday Leader, speaking from experience, says: "When our policy was handed to us we accepted it with much the same feeling that we should have accepted the title deeds of an estate for our children, and such it really is—Life Policy in a real sense is a policy for $5,000 in the hands of $5,000 cash."

As to companies, make your own choice. (We several of the leading companies, and we must preserve their health. The effect of foul, injurious food, entering the stomach, is to derange the digestive organs and produce a thousand ailments, such as indigestion, low spirits, feverish burnings, etc., which are the symptoms of that horrid disease, Dyspepsia, which assumes a thousand forms, and points toward a miserable life and premature decay. PLANTATION BROTHERS will prevent, cure and cure with unerring power, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage.

MAGNOLIA WATER.

Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price. T. H. S. F.

Arrival.—We would call the attention of parties desiring anything in the way of fine goods, to the new goods now opening at the well known house of H. Higby & Co., 189 Liberty street, imported directly from Europe, and of the highest quality. This is a desideratum not found elsewhere, but which is certain to be properly appreciated, and, as in the case of the Continental, makes it a successful. Meals are served at all hours, and our readers may call and test the Continental for themselves.

A Handsome Pavement.—The recently patented pavement for sidewalks, known as the Boulevard, is destined to become popular and extensively used wherever it is used. It is a pavement of the most durable and beautiful character, and is well adapted for use in front of any residence with comparative small cost. The pavement has been used in many places, and has given universal satisfaction. It is now being introduced in this vicinity by Messrs. McGowan & Co., who have already fitted a number of orders for its use. Full particulars of the Boulevard may be obtained by applying to Messrs. McGowan & Co., No. 55 Ohio street, Allegheny.

Berthold Auerbach's Celebrated Novels for sale by John W. Pitcock, opposite the Postoffice; Villa Eden, the Country House on the Rhine, $2; On the Heights, $2; Edelweiss, $1; Black Forest, $1.50. Miss Alcott's two new stories for girls, Little Women; Jo, Meg, Beth and Amy—first and second series, each $1.50. Jean Ingelow's new fairy book, Mopsa the Fairy, $1.50. Five hundred volumes of bound books, which were formerly sold at $1.50, $1.75, $2 and $2.50, at 75c. apiece. This is one of the cheapest lots of books ever offered, and embraces almost every phase of literature—history, romances, travels, poetry, etc., &c.

Popular.—Decidedly one of the most popular houses in the city is Moorhead's trimming establishment, No. 31 Market street. This is explained by the fact that customers are always treated with the greatest courtesy and have the benefit of selecting from a large and fashionable stock, always consisting of the very latest novelties. We know of no place in the city which we can more conscientiously recommend to purchasers.

Elegantly Finished, durable and cheap as the cheapest.—The Keystone Ware Manufacturers, No. 383 Liberty street, Philadelphia, Pa., are manufacturing at the Keystone Pottery, Mansfield, O., a new and improved article of ware, known as the "Keystone Pottery." It is a ware of the highest quality, and is well adapted for use in the kitchen, and is well adapted for use in the kitchen, and is well adapted for use in the kitchen.

Figured Grandines.—Bates & Bell offer Silk Grandines for 50c, worth 75c. All Grandines proportionately cheap.

Constitution Water is a certain cure for all ailments and all diseases of the Kidneys. For sale by all Druggists.

The Celebrated Keystone Ware from the Keystone Pottery, Messrs. Kler & Co., proprietors, at the warehouse, 383 Liberty street.

Remnants of dress goods, silks and poplins and wool goods, cheap at J. M. Burchfield & Co.'s.

Truth in a Nut Shell.

It is a very hard matter to decide from the many conflicting statements that from time to time appear in the daily papers regarding the number of Sewing Machines sold in this community. Some enterprising agents assert that they sell double the number sold by their rivals, while others make more modest assertions. In order to help our readers arrive at the truth, as the popularity of a machine is the best evidence of its superiority, we would state, as all business men know, that each agent is compelled by law to make a return under oath of his yearly gross sales. From the first day of April, 1895, to the 31st day of March, 1896, as we learn from official sources, these returns were made as follows:

Wheeler & Wilson, 115 Grant St., $38,000; Singer, 115 Grant St., $35,000; Howe, 115 Grant St., $30,000; Grover & Baker, 115 Grant St., $25,000; American Sewing Machine Co., No. 100 Broadway, New York, $20,000.

MORE TRUTH IN A NUTSHELL.

The above figures, so far as they go, are correct, but are intended to mislead, and to give a good many persons who may eventually buy Sewing Machines. As the author of the foregoing paragraph truthfully asserts, "the popularity of a machine is the best evidence of its superiority," and we can affirm that so popular a machine as the Wheeler & Wilson machine, which has become a household necessity, that we have not deemed it necessary to do any advertising for the past ten months, and we are prepared to do so now to prevent misrepresentation. To show the estimation that the public have of the "Wheeler & Wilson," we correct the above statement of popular machine from the Pittsburgh office within the same time:

Wheeler & Wilson, 115 Grant St., $12,000; Singer, 115 Grant St., $10,000; Howe, 115 Grant St., $8,000; Grover & Baker, 115 Grant St., $6,000; American Sewing Machine Co., No. 100 Broadway, New York, $5,000.

This proves that we not only sell "double the number" of machines sold by "any of our rivals," but also that our sales exceed the combined sales of all other sewing machines in this city. Therefore if popularity is the true test, the Wheeler & Wilson is the superior machine. Considering that we are a very well known among sewing machine houses, we cannot understand how our neighbors overlooked us when compiling their report. It must certainly have been an oversight. If intentional, we would imagine they did not want the few who buy their particular machine to know that there was a better one in the market.

We would invite parties desirous of buying machines to call at our elegant showroom, 100 Wood street, and examine the Wheeler & Wilson Machine before purchasing elsewhere.

W. B. SUMNER & Co., 100 Wood street.

The language of nature and experience demonstrates that the beauties of landscape, the joys of companionship, the riches of literature, or the honors of station and renown, must preserve their health. The effect of foul, injurious food, entering the stomach, is to derange the digestive organs and produce a thousand ailments, such as indigestion, low spirits, feverish burnings, etc., which are the symptoms of that horrid disease, Dyspepsia, which assumes a thousand forms, and points toward a miserable life and premature decay. PLANTATION BROTHERS will prevent, cure and cure with unerring power, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage.
