Heavy Robbery.—The boarding house of Mr. Cuthbertson on Sandusky street, Allegheny, was entered by thieves Monday night and one hundred dollars ney and two silver watches carried off, the property of the boarders. The robber was only discovered next morning. The front door of the house, which had been locked the evening before, was found open in the morning, indicating the use of "outsiders" in performing the job.

Fatal Accident.

A shocking accident occurred on the Pennsylvania Railroad, near Wilkinsburg, about half past ten o'clock Monday night, resulting in the death of an unknown man. Engine No. 65, under charge of Wm. McLane, engin on the way to Brinton Station to remove a wreck from the road at that point, struck and passed over a man, who was, struck and passed over a man, who was, most probably, walking on the track, as it appears he was at the Union Depot the night before, when he stated that he was going to Braddock's. He took passage on the Homewood train, and was doubtless on his way to Braddock's when on the Homewood train, and was doubt-less on his way to Braddock's when killed. He was somewhat under the in-fluence of liquor when on the train, and persisted in riding on the platform. persisted in riding on the plantom.

The engineer, on arriving at Brinton, discovered bloodd on the wheels, and remarked that he feared some one had been killed, and in a few moments afterbeen killed, and in a few moments after-wards received a dispatch from Wilkins-burg, stating that the mutilated body of a man had been found on the track near that place. He had a bundle with him and a bevel square. The hold will he hangely to square. The body will be brought to Devore's for interment.

Resumed Business.

A slight operation in the "confidence" line was transacted yesterday, in which Thomas Baker, of Eastern Shore, Maryland, was the victim. Baker has been in the city some days, intending to go to in the city some days, intending to go to Quincy, Illinois, and yesterday morning, while walking up Fifth avenue, he was accosted by the "well dressed" gentleman who, after a few remarks on the weather; languired his destination and was informed that his new acquaintance was from Quincy, Illinois, and that his business here was to procure laborers. Baker wanted work, and a contract was entered into immediately, by which it was stipulated that Baker should accom-Baker wanted work, and a contract was entered into immediately, by which it was stipulated that Baker should accompany the "well dressed" gentleman to Quincy, and when there was to receive two dollars per day. The preliminaries stranger seked Baker to accompany him to the Monongahela wharf, and contidentially informed him that he had purchased a lot, of sheep to take with him. After proceeding a few steps the stranger suddenly recollected that he needed, some money to pay the balance due on the sheep. He reluctantly (?) applied to Baker, and promised to return the amount as soon as they should arrive at Quincy. Baker was pleased to accommodate him, and handed over thirty-eight dollars—all the money he had with the exception of a fem can note. The stranger counted the money, made a memorandum of the amount, and then suddenly remembered that he wanted to see a friend doing business on the second floor of a building in Brewer's block. If Baker would wait a moment he would run up stairs bid his friend good bye and ther go to the boat. Baker consented, and the man disappeared. He waited five, ten and twenty minutes, before his suspicions were iness on the second floor of a building in Rewer's block. If Baker would wait a moment he would run up stairs, bid his friend good bye and then go to the boat. Baker consented, and the man disappeared. He waited five, ten and twenty minutes, before his suspicions were aroused. It is needless to say that the "well dressed!" gentleman has not been seen since the transaction, as there never has been a confidence operator captured in this city.

THE TEACHERS' WORK. Second Day of the Teachers' Institute-Increasing Attendance and Interest— The Exercises, &c., &c.

The Institute re-assembled at nine o'clock yesterday morning. The exercises were opened with prayer by Mr. L. H. Eaton. The attendance was much larger than yesterday, over one hundred teachers being present. The minutes of Monday's sessions were read and approved, after which the Institute was entertained with some exellent music. Nominations for a Committee on Permanent Certificates being in order, the following were named: Messrs. Dean, Taggart and Greeves, and Misses Raiston, Martin and Davis. The nominations were on motion closed, to be opened again at the afternoon session. Prof. Bartt read a paper on the Theory and Practice of Teaching, and after some remarks on the theory he explain-ed the plan upon which he conducted the primary department of his school with great success. A discussion on the subject then ensued, in which Messrs. Eaton, Andrews, Mortimer, McClymonds and Kelley An excercise in gymnastics, up

Randall, of Oswego, New York, who is a highly accomplished lady, read several selections in a very creditable manner. The lady gave evidence of great ability, and was greeted with the most enthusiastic approbation.

Afternoon Session Convened at two o'clock, Prof. Eaton presiding in the absence of Superintendent Luckey.

After the usual introductory exercises, Prof. Burtt made a few remarks on "Common errors in the use of lan-

The Largest Stone.

A mammoth stone was delivered at the new City Hall building, on Smithfield street, yesterday, by Messrs. Harrison & Brothers, from their quarry at Cat Fish, Clarion county. The stone is the largest Clarion county. The stone is the largest that has ever been delivered in this city, being in dimensions eight feet wide, sixteen feet long and fifteen inches in thickness, or one hundred and sixty square feet, and weighing about twelve tons. It is intended, with two others of the same size, to cover the balcony of the new City Hall, and will project about six feet from the main wall. The next largest stone in the city is that in the sidewalk at the entrance of the Monongahela House.

Canning Fruit. A correspondent gives a method of closing tin cans, which he states com-pletely obviates the usual difficulties of unsealing. Take one pound of rosin and a table spoonful of lard and melt them a table spoonist of lard and mest them together, the lard r ndering the rosin less brittle when cold. After filling the can with fruit, place the tin cap in position, then take a piece of strong muslin, larger than the opening in the can, smear one surface with the melted rosin, and fit smoothly and accurately over the tin cap; when cool smear the upper surface of the muslin with the rosin. The can is readily opened with the application of hot water. Glass jars, it is stated, may be sealed in the same way. The above method has been tried for several years, and it is asserted, has effectually preserved the can-ned fruit from the air, while allowing ready access to the contents of the vessels.

MINERAL LEMONADE. -A German scientific paper highly recommends for summer use a beverage made by taking equal parts of strong, pure sulphuric acid and strong, pure ninety-per cent alcohol, mixing thoroughly and adding one small teaspoonful of the same to a tumbler of cold water, sweetened to taste. The beverage has long been a favorite one in the cafes of Paris, Berlin and Vienna, and is known under a somewhat pretentions title to the medical fraternity here. It is recommended above lemonade made with vegetable acids, in that it does not increase perspiration; it is borne by the stomach, and exerts no deleterious effects on the vasc
