PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSRURGH GAZETTE,

THUESDAY, August, 26 1869. It is a fact worthy of special mention, that all of the leading markets have reacted right sharply within the past ten days, and while prices have declined materially, it is not at all probable that the bottom has yet been touched. Wheat is down 10@12 cents per bushel in Chicago, and as there is every appearance of heavy receipts, together with unfavorable news from Europe, we should not be surprised to see it down as much $1,12@1,14 for sound do, and $1,14@1,16 more. Private advices report quite a number of failures in Chicago within the past month or two, and it is expected that there will be many more within the next thirty or sixty days. We clip the following from the Chicago Republican, of Wednesday :

"The "longs" have evidently given up all hopes of keeping prices up and left the market to follow its natural ten-dency, a large number of settlements being made, generally at a good priofit to the "short" seiler. The "longs" were afraid to run prices up, rule thirteen for-bidding them, and to this rule alone must bo attributed the lack of a "cor-men of the practical working of rule thirteen, which we invite all to look at. There is no question but that the mar-There is no question but that the mar-ket could have been "cornered," and that the "shorts" would have suffered left also 500 therees steam at 101/c seller that the "shorts" would have suffered had not the rule been in force, instead of making a handsome profit, now that the market is left to itself. The receipts of wheat continue on a liberal scale, and steady at 11@166. crew will leave for Parkersburg this morning to bring up the Bellvernon. -The Barranquilla passed Bellair on Wednesday, all right, and it is not pro-bable that she will have any further difficulty. -The Bell, we understand, is being fitted up for the Pittsburgh and Parkers-burg trade. She will be commanded by Captain H. H. Sholes.

-The Dew Drop, a queer looking spe-ciment of marine architecture, arrived from some place about Big Sandy, with a lot of oil barrels and some apples.

-The Bellevernon, nearly two weeks out from Cincinnati, arrived at Parkers

-The St. Joseph Union, of Sunday, says: Passengers from up the river say there is but eighteen inches of water on the rapids-lower than known at any time before for years-and a number of boats are aground near Fort Peck.

-The Dubuque Herald, says: The deck crew of the Northern Belle left the boat yesterday with the mate, who was discharged, the company being unwil-ling to continue his salary at the rates lately paid. Another male, Mr. C. Trayer, was given the position, with instruct
