Collided.—Yesterday morning about aix o'clock, two freight trains on the Connellsville, railroad collided near Saltsburg. The engines were badly wrecked and several cars thrown off the track and demolished. No person was injured. The accident was caused in some measure by the fog, which prewanted the engineers from observing each other. The regular trains on the road were delayed but an hour or two by the accident.

The Board of Trade. At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade, yesterday, Messra, Ed Jay Allen, Thos. J. Craig, A. A. Anderson and Sons, Henderson & Bros. A. Q. Castleberry, C.H. ZEOBABLY PATAL APPRAY.

The Knife and its Consequences—Cutting Affray in West Pittsburgh—The Per-petrator Arrested and Escapes—The Wounded Man in a Dying Condition. A brutal and disgusting cutting affray occurred in West Pittsburgh yesterday, which will doubtless be attended with party who will furnish us with such in fatal consequences. The principals in formation as will lead to the arrest and the affair were Barney Duffey, a puddler, formation as will lead to the arrest and conviction of any person or persons engaged in tampering with packages of papers sent to our agents by rail or water.

PENNIMAN, REED & Co.

The shall were Barrent by Laby, a partiel, and Thomas alias "Pug" Sullivan, of Ormsby Borough. These parties, it appears, met yesterday morning in Louis Aurien's saloon, in West Pittsburgh, near the saloon, in west ritibuling, near the Jones' Ferry landing, when they drank together several times, and apparently parted in friendship, both leaving the saloon and going to their homes.

THE FIGHT.

About one o'clock in the afternoon Dufley returned to the saloon, which at that time was filled with customers, who were engaged in drinking and talk-ing, and in about half an hour afterward Sullivan came in. He had been in the saloon but a short time when he entered into conversation with Duffey, and, it is Mr. Strain will make an efficient officer.

Completed.—The sewer on Fourth avenue, from Smithfield street to Cherry alley, was finished yesterday, and the street cleaned off preparatory to being repaired.

The conversation with Durey, and, it is alleged, they again took a drink to gether. The conversation was resumed, and shortly they got into a discussion as to which was the better man, a fact, so far as we can learn, which has also been a matter of dispute between them. The discussion are a partial convergence netwern such The Second U. P. Church Sixth avenue, Rev. T. H. dispute between them. The discussion as an atter of dispute between them. The discussion as an enter of men, led to a quarrel, when it is alleged that Duffey struck, at Sullivan, but did not hit him. The latter instantly drew alarge dirk knife from his pocket and plunged it into Duffey's bowels up to the hill, prefacing his remarks with an oath that he would kill him. Duffey after receiving the wound kicked at Sullivan when the latter made another thrust at him with the knife which he warded off. Duffey then remarked that Sullivan had billed him. saulted with the knife but succeeded in warding off the thrust, which was made in the region of the heart. Sullivan then quietly put the bloody knife in his pocked, walked out of the door to the sidewalk, and the wounded man, faint and staggering from the loss of blood, started for the door, and fell almost instarted for the door, and fell almost insensible in the doorway. Sullivan, whose conduct proves him to be a most bloodthirsty and vicious fiend seeing his adversary in that condition approached him with a paving stone in his hand, and seizing him by the hair raised his head from the sidewalk and struck him a number of times on the head, fracturing the skull and beating his head into a jelly. He then threw down the stone and started home as unconcerned as though nothing of an unusual character had occurred, and the crowd who had witnessed the brutal, bloodthirsty and most probably tatal affray, made no effort to arrest him.

The injured man was removed to the office of Justice Schiseldig, where his wounds were dressed, after which he was carried to his residence in Temperanceyille. Dr. McCook, Sr., was called to see him last evening, and we learn pro-nounced his injuries fatal. The wound in the abdomen, from which the intes-tines were protruding, is on the right side, below the ribs, about three inches officer Thomas, of West Pittsburgh, on hearing of the affray started in pursuit of Sullivan and after considerable search, found and arrested him in Ormshands on him again. Being disabled in one arm, the officer concluded not to force matters and the man escaped.

Information of the affray having been received at the Mayor's office, four of-ticers were despatched to "Limerick" to search for Sullivan, but without success. The injured man was still living last night, but no hopes of his recovery were Unsuccessful.

Another unsuccessful attempt at burglary was made a few evenings since at the residence of Mr. John McIntyre, lo-cated on the Perrysville plank-road, just outside the limits of Allegheny. The thief was in the house rummaging about, when Mr. McIntyre awoke, and con-fronted him. He immediately started off closely followed by that gentleman. The chap however, it seems had antici-pated a chase and prepared for it by leaving a door open, thus affording a means of easy escape. In the darkness he became somewhat confused and crehe became somewhat contused and created a lively racket by tumbling over tables and similar performances. He finally just escaped the clutches of his pursuer by reaching the doorway, and disappearing with the most unceremonious haste. Unfortunately, Mr. McIntyre had not the teaching the savelyar or the fallow time to secure his revolver, or the fellow might have carried off with him, something he had not calculated upon. Robberies in the outskirts of Allechoncares in the outskirts of the gheny are becoming quite numerous. A few policemen might be detailed for the locality, especially around the upper part of the city, with considerable advantage. If the force is not large enough to do this, and we think it is not, more men should be segured. men should be secured.

Alleged Infringement.

In the United States Circuit Court, yesterday morning, Messrs. Weaver & Jones by Messrs Carnaban and Marshall, their attorneys, filed a bill in equity complaining that N. Haller & Co., J. O. Tilton and A. B. Clarke & Co, are infringing on their patent right in manufacturing and their patent right in manufacturing and disposing of a patent pocket corn sheller. The complainants saked that a preliminary by one of the Mayor's police. She enleavored to tear his coat, but failing in the attempt tore her own clothing. On arriving at the lock-up, she was conducted to the front office for a hearing.

Serious Accident. Yesterday afternoon about three o'clock a horse attached to a buggy, in which was a Mr. Mechling, of this city, and a Miss Peters, of Meadville, while passing down Grant street, took fright at the corner of Grant and Diamond streets, and ran away. When near First street the buggy collided with a heavy wagon and the occupants were thrown out. The the occupants were thrown out. The lady, who was seriously injured, was removed to a house near by, and a physicfall sent for. The young man was only slightly injured. The frightened horse was caught by one of the Mayor's of-thorough resitting, is still the centre of attraction for lovers of a dainty, clean and palatable repast. We can see no marvel in the immense patronage which this establishment enjoys when the style in which everything is conducted is considered. Perfectly clean and tidy tables, polite and accompandating walters, and polite and accommodating waiters, and a rich and varied abundance of the best the market in season affords, should cer-tainly attract patrons in large numbers. This is the secret of the great success of the "Continental," which deservedly is one of the most popular institutions of its character in our city. Croft & Phillips' Pittaburgh Real Estate Register.

This valuable real estate reference is out for September, and we find it as usual full of the most desirable information in regard to properties of all kinds, and in every location. This feature of issuing a descriptive book of property for sale is solely the idea of Croft & Phillips, who deserve credit for introducing more real enterprise in the real estate more real enterprise in the real estate business than any who ever attempted that line in Pittsburgh. Nothing is so puzzling to one wanting to purchase property as to know where to look for what his mind is fixed upon, and advertisements here and there in the papers depict answer the purpose. The pames often as these $2 assessments are paid, tisements here and there in the papers de not answer the purpose. The pamphlet issued by Croft & Phillips fills the bill completely. The extensive list of properties in their hands for disposal, covering all sections of this and the adjoining counties, enables them to suit every one, and each property is fully set forth, location, size, description, improvements, general features, price, terms, etc., so that a person can consuit it with some satisfaction. Their trade extends over such a vast territory, and extends over such a vast territory, and their reputation is such, that all wanting to buy or sell can feel entire confidence in transacting business through them.
