The Corner stone of the new High School building will be laid on the afternoon of September 30. Duncan—G. W. Roberts, Jr., has been appointed Postmaster at this office, vice R. L. McQuisition, resigned.

Troy Bill brightened up a little yesterday under the genial influence of the day, although everything was quiet enough. A regular monthly meeting of the Allegheny Board of School Controllers will be held to-morrow evening, seven and a half o'clock, in the Common Council Chamber, city building.

Thanks to Gen. Negley for a magnificent bouquet. His rare beauty seems to transfer one of the conspicuous attractions of Shady Side to the dingy and contracted imprisonment of the city.

Forestalling.—Saturday Mrs. Snyder was brought before Alderman Hamberg, charged with selling liquor without paying the usual fine and costs.

Fell in a fit.—Saturday afternoon about three o'clock a peddler whose name was not known, fell in a fit at the corner of Fifth avenue and Market alley. He recovered after a short time and was able to walk to his home.

Arrested.—Chief Hague received a telegram from officer Anderson, at Enon, announcing the arrest at that place yesterday morning of Thomas Sully, the man who attempted to kill Barney Duffy in West Pittsburgh, Friday.

Run Over.—Saturday evening between seven and eight o'clock a little girl about six years of age, residing on Liberty street, near the Pennsylvania railroad round house, was run over by a buggy and severely though not seriously injured.

I. O. O. F.—A new Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, to be known as W. E. Devore Lodge, No. 676, will be organized at Wilkensburg, Monday evening, the 18th inst. The same evening the new Old Fellows Hall at that place will be dedicated.

Correction.—Our item published on Saturday in reference to Mr. Charles R. Taylor's being without a home or appropriate lodging place, we have since been informed in an entire misapprehension of the facts, and calculated to do very great injustice to an old citizen of our city.

Robbery on Liberty Street.—Saturday morning before daylight Dr. Keyser's store, on Liberty street, was entered and robbed of a lot of blacking brushes. The thieves effected an entrance from an alley in the rear. They also carried off the keys to the money drawer and back door.

The Brownsville Boats have stopped running between Pittsburgh and Fort Perry in consequence of the repairs being made on Lock No. 2. Freight passengers will be transported between these points by the Connellsville Railroad Company, whose trains will make regular connections with the boats.

Owing to the obstruction of the street in front of the Second Ward Allegheny School House, caused by the construction of a new sewer, the school will not open until Wednesday morning. The directors and teachers will hold a meeting in the Principal's room this morning to arrange matters for the coming term.

Mayor's Office.—There were twenty-eight unfortunate, arrested at the Mayor's Morning Court yesterday, eleven of whom were charged with drunkenness, sixteen with disorderly conduct, and one for vagrancy. They were disposed of as follows: Nineteen paid fines, eight were committed and one was discharged.

The Humboldt Centennial.—The Finance Committee of the Humboldt Centennial Association collected, on Friday last, nearly two thousand dollars for the monument fund. It is to be hoped that the citizens will generously contribute to this praiseworthy object, and that the necessary sum of six thousand dollars will be speedily forthcoming.

Not Slow.—Mary Ann Snow, colored resident of the Sixth ward, was before Alderman Nepper Saturday on complaint of Julia Ann Read, who alleged that Mary Ann had struck her a vicious blow across the eye with a stick. Such a breach of the peace was not tolerated by Julia. After a hearing, the case was compromised, the costs being divided.

Pitt Building and Loan Association.—This enterprising and reliable company will hold an election next Tuesday evening for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing term. They have also a few shares of stock not yet disposed of, and parties wishing to invest in stock is sure to return them a handsome profit would do well to attend the meeting.

A Good Appointment.—Mr. John H. Stuart, of the firm of Joseph Woodwell & Co., of this city, has, we are pleased to learn, received the appointment of Consul to Turk's Island, West Indies. Mr. Stuart is a gentleman of high attainments and large experience, which fully qualify him for the duties of the appointment. It would have been difficult to make a better selection.

It will be interesting to the ladies of both cities to know that Miss Bartholomew, an experienced and skilful artist, is prepared at her rooms, No. 65 Federal street, Allegheny, to execute, promptly, orders for Wigs, Braids and other hair work; and also for ladies' hair dressing at her rooms or their residences. Miss Bartholomew studies the styles, and does her work in conformity with the latest fashions. Her industry and integrity should be rewarded by a liberal patronage.

SUN LIVING.—Barney Duffy, the man who was out by Thomas Sullivan, in the affray in West Pittsburgh, Friday afternoon, is still living and may probably recover.

Failed.—An attempt was made by thieves before daylight Saturday morning to enter Kennedy's saloon on Smithfield street. The operators attempted to force open the door in the rear, but a noise which had been placed against it, foiled them in their efforts. They succeeded in breaking the glass in the case, and stopped there, doubtless frightened off by the noise.

Boy Drowned.—David Dorner, son of Crispin Dorner, a resident of Carson street, Birmingham, was accidentally drowned in the Monongahela river yesterday. The boy, who was about nine years old, started with an older brother to Sunday School about one o'clock, and at three o'clock was carried home dead. He was playing on a flat and fell in the water, and before assistance could reach him was drowned.

Breaking Things.—Samuel Glass was out "breaking things" on Saturday night, and passing down Webster avenue about seven o'clock, he fell over a table in front of Hatch's furniture store. The table was broken and Mr. Hatch requested Samuel to pay for it. He refused to do so, and was threatened to break Hatch's head. An officer was called, who took Samuel in charge and conducted him to the lock-up, where he was fined $5 and costs for breaking the law.

Criminals.—There are forty-nine cases on the jail calendar to be tried at the present term of the Quarter Sessions, which begins to-morrow. The following is a summary of the offenses as charged: Rape 4; child murder 1; assault; horse stealing 1; larceny 2; larceny by receiving 1; felonious assault and battery 3; burglary 2; surety of the peace 4; wife desertion 3; assault and battery with intent to commit serious assault and battery 3; false pretense 2; bigamy 1; aggravated assault and battery 1; murder 1. Total 49.

Caught Again.—"Snibbs" alias Wm. Arnold, whose reputation for interfering with the justice of the law is well known in this community, appears to be in a bad streak of luck. "Snibbs" has been caught about ten times in the "nabs" until a few weeks since, when he was picked up and sent to Clearmont for thirty days. The place did not suit his refined and delicate taste, however, and he left before his allotted time had expired, coming back to the city. He was again picked up and brought to the lock-up, where he will remain. He will probably get ninety days in the penitentiary for interfering with the justice of the law.

Home Again.—James McAuley, Esq., President of the Select Board of the City Council, and President of the Iron City National Bank, has returned home after quite an extensive tour in search of health. We are glad to note that he has fully recovered, and that he is in his customary vigor and in good trim for undergoing the hard and arduous duties which will be his own for the good of the city. No gentleman in either branch of Council has a better record than Mr. McAuley, and certainly none are more respected and esteemed by all classes of citizens.

Base Ball.—Last Saturday afternoon the weather at last proved favorable, and the long talked of match between the Atlantic and Olympic clubs, came off at Union Park. There were a number of spectators present, and the game proved to be one of the most exciting and closely contested since the opening of the season. The holding of the game was most fortunate, as the Atlantic and Olympic clubs seemed to have the advantage at the bat. The Olympics eventually won the game, the score being fifteen to ten. The game was played on the Allegheny club, acted as umpire. This is the first of the games to be played between these clubs for the championship of Western Pennsylvania.

Criminal Court.—The September term of the Quarter Sessions Court for Allegheny county commences to-day, and as there is a large amount of business to do it will probably be a lengthy term. The Magistrates throughout the county have generally been prompt in making their returns, and for the past ten days Assistant District Attorney Flick has been extremely busy preparing bills for the Grand Jury, among which is the Point homicide case, and as will be seen from our summary of the late case, several cases for burglary, rape and felonious assault and battery. Cases remaining over from last term will be taken up to-day, while the Grand Jury is preparing the new business.

An Old Offender.—Saturday night, about eleven o'clock, residents on the upper part of Federal street, Allegheny, were again disturbed by the antics of Robert Anderson, a colored individual, who periodically indulges in the "crazy howl" which he generally results in his commitment. Saturday Robert had engaged in this pleasure exercise, and coming home rather late in the evening, undertook to increase the bills of mortality by shooting his wife. In attempting this feat he was interfered with by several neighbors, whereupon he became so excitedly boisterous as to attract the attention of the night watch. His arrest was rather difficult and required three of the officers, who literally carried him to the lock-up, he making night hideous with his unearthly howls as he was borne along. Yesterday morning, Robert was fined twenty-five dollars, and in default was committed to jail for thirty days.

Business Change.—The well known and extensive book and job printing establishment of Messrs. Ercott, Anderson & Co., No. 34 Fifth avenue, in GAZETTE buildings, has just changed hands, Messrs. Rev. Dr. S. H. Nesbit, of the Christian Advocate, Jas. A. Moore and Thomas Telford having purchased it, under the firm name of Telford, Moore & Co. The liberal experience, energy and enterprise of these gentlemen is sufficient guarantee that the business will be conducted in such manner as to merit public patronage. The offices of the office will be enlarged, and the firm will take care that no piece of work will quit their establishment until they are not only satisfied with the reputation for taste, neatness, beauty and general excellence. Particular attention will be paid to German work of all kinds. We bespeak for the new firm an increase of the liberal share of patronage hitherto awarded the outgoing firm.

Aquatic.

The interest in aquatic sports is on the increase, in this city, since the race between Coulter and Hamill, and there is an apparent disposition to conduct all races on principles of fairness and honesty, to which in a great measure this increasing interest may be attributed.

The annual number of races took place on Saturday, principal among which were the race between Kaye and Luther, and a four-oared race between the crews from the Vigilant and Eagle fire companies.

THE SINGLE SCULL RACE.—The single scull race between Kaye and Luther which took place upon the Allegheny river, for a purse of three hundred dollars, was a very exciting one and was witnessed by a large concourse of people. Both crews were in fine form and the race was a close one. Kaye took the lead but maintained it only for a short time. Before the Hand street bridge was passed Luther came up with and soon after passed his adversary, which position he kept throughout the race, coming in easy winner in 22:25.

THE FOUR OARED RACE.—The race between the crews of the Vigilant and Eagle, for a purse of five hundred dollars, took place at half past five o'clock, over the lower Monongahela course. The race was witnessed by a large concourse of people, who appeared highly interested in the result, but there was not much more than a close race. The Vigilant boat was manned as follows: Maxwell, (stroke), Reimeyer, Herbert and Eccles, (bow). The Eagle crew consisted of Earl, (stroke), Smithson, Boyer and Andrew Miller, Jr., (bow). Some time was spent in getting in position, but at length the word was given, and a fair start was made. The boats kept tolerably even for a little while, but the Eagle crew at length made a change of hands on the race, and on the home stretch, led off at an increasing distance. On the way home the Vigilant boat was lifted off and pushed some distance. By this, of course, much time was lost, and the distance between the boats was considerably increased. An easy victory was ahead of the Eagle boys, however, and they rowed triumphantly. The Vigilant pulled, but came in in a long distance behind. The time made by the Eagle was twenty-two minutes. The race was a very interesting one, and the supper served at Schild's Saturday evening, and was a very enjoyable one.

Amusements.—OPERA HOUSE.—The amusement season at the Opera House opens this evening. The improvements in the establishment have all been completed, the old scenery replaced by new and beautiful scenery from Palmer's artistic hand. The "Worrel sisters play the opera house" will be presented for its first time in this city. The season promises to be one of the most beautiful we have ever seen. The Opera House has secured a full company of first class actors, and has also succeeded in effecting engagements with all the principal "stars" in the profession. The box office will remain open daily between nine and four o'clock, the grand opening of the season. The present indications the opening to-night will be largely attended.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—The "Old Dutch" since its opening on Thursday evening has been doing an excellent business. The improvements made during the summer and winter have resulted in a more comfortable and well lighted establishment, and the company as a whole is decidedly the best that has ever been presented in the city. Mr. Williams has been extremely fortunate in the selection of his company, as the manner in which he has managed the company has been most satisfactory. The "Whiting Sisters and Miss St. Clair" are a credit to the profession, and their talents are well shown in every member of the company is deserving of special notice, and are favorites in their particular lines of the audience. The Opera House cannot attend the evening performance.

Probably Fatal Accident.—Saturday evening, shortly after six o'clock, William Leobates, about sixteen years old, received injuries at the head crossing, Federal street, Allegheny, which it is all probability result in death. He resides at No. 66 Western avenue, and was returning home on Saturday evening. He was crossing the street when he was in the habit of jumping on the cars. He was standing on the top of the car when the wheels of the car passed over, just below the knee, crushing it to a jelly. He was taken to the hospital, where he remains. The physician being absent, Drs. D. N. Rankin, Hasleton and Haslet were summoned, and in consequence of the injury to the knee, an operation being found necessary. The injured lad, then conveyed to the hospital, where he was lying in a precarious condition. He is the oldest son of a widow, and was the chief support of his mother, which makes the accident more distressing.

Brutal Assault.—Saturday evening about ten o'clock Thomas Rogers, a resident of Pipetown, having taken an overdose of whisky, started home, and on reaching the door of his dwelling sat down on the steps. He had been sitting there but a few minutes when a party of young men came by and made an assault upon him, taking from him a bottle of whisky and in the affray broke the name tag in two places. Rogers was sent for yesterday morning and took Rogers' information, charging William Lloyd and others with felonious assault and battery. Lloyd was arrested last night and brought to the lock-up where he was held for a hearing.

Steckton Avenue.—West End. Messrs. Editors: The strictures of your correspondents relating to mortar beds, mud holes and "wax" stands on the above named avenue, I see, have had some effect. On Saturday several loads of lime and sand were dumped at the mortar beds, and the "wax" stands were more than usual, nearly closing the avenue at Federal street, and the muddy mud hole is considerably enlarged. The city and police, Street Committees and Street Commissioners commissioned and paid mud private citizens to the street. The same officers against law and common decency to be longer permitted to grow more and more offensive.

A FAIRMONT, W. Va., Sept. 2, 1889. Second day: Afternoon session opened with devotional exercises by Rev. J. Hull. Minutes of morning session read and approved.

At half past three o'clock a delegation of Fraternal Messengers from the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church made their address, and were introduced to the Conference, and the hour of two o'clock to-morrow set apart to hear their messages.

New Domestic Goods, Bates & Bell's. The Water Question. Messrs. Editors: News that "Mass Speculation" has received its quietus, it is to be hoped that Councils will devote their attention to the necessities of the city.

A permanent supply of good pure water, a thing of great value to the people. The present supply is insufficient and it requires no chemist to prove that it is most impure. But no town which will supply the want.

And if nothing better can be found than the proposed location of the water works, we have no objection to the plan proposed by the Mayor, but we must have well contented ourselves with what we now have; increasing the capacity of the present works, and the water in the city. Do not our Councilmen know that an "Acid Works" a short distance above the proposed location, would pollute the water with such effect that hempen cables kept in the water in its vicinity are rotted or eaten sharp? The "works" sink away, but in a few weeks the "works" sink away, and the water in the river at that point, and it gets fouler all the way down. We doubt if a proper location can be found short of the Young's Run, or Kiskiminetus rivers. Pure water we must have, at whatever cost, and a liberal expenditure now is the best economy.

CITIZENS. For Linen Goods, Bates & Bell's. Pretty Women.—A comparatively few Ladies monopolize the Beauty as well as the attention of Society. This ought not to be so, but it is; and will be while men are foolish, and single out pretty faces for companions.

They can be changed by using Hagan's Magnolia Balm, which gives the Bloom of Youth and a Refined Sparkling Beauty to the Complexion, pleasing, refreshing and natural.

No Lady need complain of a red, tanned, freckled or rusty Complexion who will invest 75 cents in Hagan's Magnolia Balm. Its effects are truly wonderful.

To preserve and dress the Hair use Lyon's Keshion. Black Alpaca, the choice makes, at Bates & Bell's.

Sanquet at St. John's, N. B. (By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.) St. John's N. B., September 5.—The Governor General of New Brunswick held a levee yesterday at which from fifty to one hundred persons were present. In response to the toast, "The health of the Governor General," the Governor of New Brunswick, Sir John Young said that as opposition to the union of the province with Canada is dying away, he looked for the speedy reconciliation of all parties. The advantages gained by the union of England and Scotland during the last half century, are such results as should be looked for from the Confederation. Speeches were also made by the Lieutenant Governor of the Province, The healths of the Queen and the President of the United States were enthusiastically drunk.

Richmond papers state the Norfolk and Great Western Railroad Co. concluded its deliberations in that city by entering into a contract for the sale of fifty thousand acres of land, now held by heretofore to be acquired by the Virginia International Land Company, composed of a number of wealthy men in New York. Another important matter brought to the consideration of the Norfolk and Great Western Company was the subject of the consolidation of their line with the Memphis, El Paso and Pacific Railroad. The Directors had an interview with a member of the Executive Committee of the road and took in the same steps for the purpose of making their line part of the Southern Pacific road. A Committee was appointed to confer with the Committee of the Southern Pacific, to make a contract for the consolidation of the roads.

Temperance and Reform.—Address to Voters.

To the Voters of Allegheny County:—FELLOW CITIZENS: Some time ago a Temperance and Reform Convention was convened in the Court House, in the city of Pittsburgh, which unanimously nominated Isaiah Dickey, Esq., for the office of County Commissioner, to be voted for at the coming October election. That Convention was not political in its character, but was composed of men who felt that something must be done, if possible, to check the ravages of intemperance among us. And as the execution of the license law has been placed in the hands of our County Commissioners, and as we felt that those already filling that office have not carried out that law in its spirit and intention, and as we were not persuaded that any candidate presented by the political parties would carry out its provisions so as to improve this state of things, we were constrained to nominate a man who we believed to be honest and reputable in life. It is proper to say that Mr. Dickey did not consent to the use of his name in the hope that if elected he may be instrumental in having our existing license law repealed, but he has consented to it in no sense the aim of the present movement to do away with the existing law; we are determined to bring a good work of men who we are confident will be better regulated of church finances, support of the Gospel, ministerial labor, etc.

Rev. J. W. Ward, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Education, was introduced to the Conference, and delivered an address, showing the need of being in good work, and urging the co-operation of all the churches. After some notices, the forenoon session adjourned with prayer.

Mr. Dickey is not before you as a politician, but as an independent temperance candidate, pledged to faithfully execute all laws that now exist or may exist for the term of three years. He is not thrust upon your attention with any design to break up old political organizations, but we are determined to let it be understood that we will no longer blindly follow the lead of any political ring. As lovers of good order and the well-being of the county, we demand that men of character shall be nominated for office, else we will not support them. And we are not right in this? Is it not high time that something should be done in this direction? Might not the election of Mr. Dickey be of incalculable benefit in the hereafter of our political history as a county? Therefore, fellow citizens, convinced that we have no right, we earnestly appeal to you, to meet in the election of Mr. Dickey. We ask you to seriously consider the matter, and give your influence and votes in the promotion of a man to office whose integrity is undoubted. We feel that you owe it to yourselves and families to at least make the trial. The work of intemperance that has become so widespread in this community demands that something should be done, and that promptly, lest they be still more augmented and become quite universal. It is worth while sometimes to break off from party for the sake of a specific object that is good, and in this case we feel that to do so would be honorable, right and praiseworthy. We have no quarrel with the spoils of office, but an earnest and determined resolution to secure reform.

By order of the Ex. Committee. JOHN B. CLARK, Chairman. Allegheny City, Pa., Sept. 3, 1889.

Thursday night at a saloon in Wheeling, a difficulty arose between two well known gentlemen of that city who were present at the evening social, when one called the other a liar. This was immediately followed by blows and during the ball taking effect in the right breast of a gentleman who was attempting to separate the principal actors in the affray. One has come 3,000 miles by sea, the other a hundred miles by land.

A GERMAN paper of New Orleans, in alluding to the numerous gambling halls in that city, says: "If an energetic remedy against this evil is not soon found, our children of the next generation will become a miserable nation of gamblers. Monitor says nearly $11,000 worth of bank checks and bonds were discovered in an upright boiler in front of the boiler works, near the city. The boiler was found to contain American works, by a lad of about fourteen years of age, employed at the boiler works. He also found a large wallet and memorandum book, and all were delivered to the owner."
