The miners only resumed work to-day after a suspension of about three months. Among the men in the mines is Mr. Hughes, the Superintendent.

FURTHER PARTICULARS. SCRANTON, Pa., September 6, 10 P. M. The latest information from the Avon dale mine states that the shaft was cleared and two men went down and penetrated sixty or seventy yards to a gangway door, which they could not force open. They found three dead mules outside the door, and sulphurous fumes wars nouring out through the fumes were pouring out through the door. No signs of life were discovered, and it is feared all are dead.

LATER AND STILL WORSE. After the rubbish from the bottom of the ugust 6.—10.p. w shaft was cleared away two miners descended in a bucket and sent word up to send down a pick and shovel to clear the send down a pick and shovel to clear the doors with. The bucket was brought up and two men started down with the tools. As they started the men at the bottom requested them to hurry, and on their reaching the bottom both were found dead. No hopes are entertained for the men in the shaft—all are supposed to have perished. The black damp is very bad here.
