SECRETARY FISH has not favored the selection of Mr. George Wilkes for the Chinese mission.

A LARGE AUDIENCE may be reckoned on for the speech of Judge BINGHAM, of Ohio, on Thursday evening, in the Allegheny Diamond.

HON. DANIEL KALBFUS, of Mauch Chunk, an eloquent and instructive speaker, addressed a large meeting at Beaver last evening.

The approximate registration of Crawford county foots up a total voting list of 18,490, about 800 votes less than were actually polled at the Presidential election.

The rumor of a fortnight since that General G. M. Dodge would succeed Gen. Rawlins in the War Office seems to have had this foundation: That the probability of an early vacation of the portfolio, either by the resignation or the death of the then Secretary, had directed the President's attention to General Dodge, and letters of enquiry were probably written, to sound him upon the point of acceptance.

The evident inclination of the opposition leaders to discard ex-Senator BRUCKNER from any position of influence and honor in the party is really a matter for public regret.

ROLS OF HONOR XVIII and XIX, just issued by the Quarter Master General, embody the record of the instrument of forty thousand, three hundred and forty-three Union soldiers, in the various National Cemeteries.

The Tennessee rebels propose to follow the Georgia precedent, and reform their Legislature, as soon as it convenes.

to be expelled on the ground that they claim to represent districts which have no legal existence. The ulterior purpose contemplated by the rebel plans is to maintain the illegality of all legislation which may have been had under the amended Constitution of '65, when the votes of these eight members have been required to make a quorum.

Major General JOHN A. RAWLINS, Secretary of War, who died at Washington, on Monday last, was born in Illinois, Feb. 18, 1831, of parents still living. Reared as a farmer, he began the study of the law at Galena, in 1854, and was admitted to the bar the ensuing year, devoting himself to the profession, and voting with the Democratic party until the outbreak of the rebellion.

BURIED ALIVE. The calamity at the Avondale colliery is most shocking. At this writing, there seems little reason to hope for the ultimate rescue, alive, of the two hundred human beings who were, on Monday morning cut off by fire from the light and air of Heaven and immured, perhaps speedily suffocated, hundreds of feet below the earth's surface.

The terms of the existing treaty of 1765 with Spain are so peculiar that it is conceded on all hands at Washington that our recognition of Cuban independence would lead inevitably to a war with Spain, whose flag would at once appear as the pirates of the world, in pillaging and scattering our shipping.

The ratification of the XVth Constitutional consumption of the Union, on the basis of all classes of inhabitants. As we have possessed occasions, intimate, the proposed Amendment is in danger of defeat.

By both the contending parties, upon an agreed basis, and involving no compromise of our own peace, dignity or resources. But this attempt is futile to negotiate an impossible agreement between two parties, one of which has the laws of nations, the entire public code of most world, upon its side, rights the most clearly indisputable, and which never again a first-rate power, would never be impugned, while the other rejects every reasonable proposal, and demands nothing less, in effect, than the forcible intervention of a third party, the government of a republic which has first abolished its own institutions of human slavery at a fearful cost, for the maintenance of that slavery in an independent Cuba.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS. —The California State Fair opened yesterday with a splendid showing of stock. The attendance is large.

—Senator Sumner has been invited to preside at the Massachusetts Republican Convention, which meets on the 22d. —The Grand Lodge of the United States of the Ancient Order of Good Fellows will convene at Cincinnati today.

—Er President Johnson still lingers in Nashville, having been there some ten days scheming for election to the U. S. Senate. —Mrs. A. B. Busch, of German descent, while laboring under delirium induced by sickness, drowned herself in a cistern at St. Louis, yesterday.

—The New England Fair opened at Portland, Me., yesterday. The display of cattle is very fine, and of horses larger than at any previous exhibition. —Prof. Davidson's scientific party has returned to San Francisco from Alaska. The result of the expedition is satisfactory, never before penetrated by white men.

—The partition walls of a large new brick building, in Baltimore, were yesterday morning, wrecking the building. Several bricklayers and hod carriers were buried in the ruins. They were rescued, severely cut and injured. A fourth, named Benj. Locks, colored, a hod carrier, was dead.

—Judge Jere S. Black, of Penna., has brought suit in the court of common pleas against the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Co., for injuries sustained some time during the early part of the summer. Had the Railroad Co. been paying the physicians who attended Judge Black during his illness, he would probably have been more intelligent.

—The Ohio excursion party arrived at Topeka, Kansas, Sunday night, and although there was a heavy storm, and the people turned out and gave them a warm welcome, they were taken from the depot to the hotel in carriages and their wants provided for. Yesterday the weather was fine and the whole party was shown the city surroundings. They leave for Sheridan today.

—The Susquehanna Railroad Directors election yesterday, the Park party organized by clearing W. S. Church, President and J. K. Herrick, Vice President. The Ramsey party at a separate meeting, cast their votes, and were by indications engaged in canvassing. The polls, as both parties held, will go to the polls, and had separate inspectors, and received votes twice from certain towns.

THE TENNESSEE REBELS propose to follow the Georgia precedent, and reform their Legislature, as soon as it convenes. This body has eight members, elected from certain Eastern counties, who are
