OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, Sept. 9, 1869. Government bonds declined to-day

Government bonds declined to-day under a tight money market, and in consequence of large offers to the Government; over eight million bonds being offered and only two millions wanted. New 5-20s sold down to 118%, and 1881s to 120. At the close, however, the market improved slightly.

Gold opened at 135%, declined to 134%, and sold up to 135%, closing steady at 1351%. The short interest has been materially increased since the decline, and if the money market will be relieved tomorrow by the payment of about two and a half millions of currency, a sharp rise may take place, either to-morrow afternoon or on Saturday evening. The afternoon or on Saturday evening. The movement in the south to demand gold in payment of cotton may tend to advance the premium temporarily until gold finds its way back. The New York World has advocated this system of bringing about specie paymenss quicker than in any other way for | 1,08 some time, and in its favor are the facts that he circulating medium would there-

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSEURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, Sept. 9, 1869. The general markets are quiet, though here is, nevertheless, a fair yolume of business in the aggregate; as has been the case for some time, the demand for almost everything is confined to supplying immediate wants of the local trade, while prices generall are unchanged. The receipts of grain and flour are only moderate, though the supply is fully equal to the demand, and the same is true of other articles not necessary here to specify. Fruits continue to arrive pretty freely, but under the influence of a steady demand, der the innuence of a steady demand, prices are fully sustained.

APPLES—In steady demand, with sales at from $2 to $3,50 per bol, and choice may be quoted at $4.

BUTTER—Is scarce and in demand, and with the sales at height sold at nd prime to choice is being sold at BERRIES-Sales Blackberries at $1@ ,10 per bucket. CHEEST-Is steady, but unchanged, CHEESE—18 steady, but unchanged, ranging from 15 to 17, the outside figure for New York Goshen.
