CATTLE. There was a very full supply of cattle the market, notwithstanding, did not turn out as bad as might have been expected. Good cattle sold fully up to on sale to-day, well on to 1,000 head, but pected. Good cattle sold fully up to per steam.

Latest—Flour closed dull and slightly Latest—Flour closed dull and slightly last weeks prices, but commonish cattle, of which there was an over supply, were dull, as there were but few country buyers in attendance, The sales reported aggregated 951 head, and of these an unusually large number were from Green, Washington, Butler, and other adjoining countles. Ohio and Indiana were also represented, and there were sever-al carloads from Chicago. There were some unusually fine cattle on sale, in-cluding 32 head sold by Haas & Krans, of our best butchers, at 8 cents; this is an putside price, but there has not probably been a better drove of cattle in probably losen a better drove of casts in market this year, and this is saying a good deal. Quotations may be fairly given at 3@4 for scalawags; 4½@5½ for fair to prime stockers; 6@7 for good to medium butchers stock, and 6¾@7¾ for medium butchers stock, and 6¾@7¾ for prime to extra do. Notwithstanding the offerings were unusually large, there were but few left over unsold, and as already noted, prime fat cattle sold up to last week's prices.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point with scant seven feet in the channel by the Monongahela marks last evening. Weather clear and warmmercury 79 in shade.

Business continues quite active at the lever, the offerings of freights for all points being quite liberal, and all the boats loading seem to be getting about as much as they can handle. The Glendale took out well on to 600 tons—and the Wild Duck and barges will leave to day with close on to a 1,000 tons.

The R. C. Gray, Capt. Whittaker, is filling up steadily, and will be the next boat out for Cincinnati and Louisville. The Glendale departed for St. Louis last evening with an excellent freight list and quite a number of passengers. Pilots—Marshall and Oakes. The Bellevernon, will probably go on The Messenger is still undergoing repairs, and consequently, is not yet ready for business. The Wild Duck, Capt. Anawait, will
