

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

The Gazette is furnished in the city for six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $3 per annum: 3 mos., $2.

The Vigilance Committee of the First Ward, Allegheny, will meet at the school house this evening.

A Temperance and Reform meeting was held Tuesday evening last at Hall's School House, Robinson township.

Correction.—In our notice of the new Bellefield Church we stated that the former edifice destroyed by fire had cost $12,000. The church cost $18,912.

Eleventh Ward, Attention.—The Vigilance Committee of this ward are urgently requested to meet at the school house this evening at half past seven o'clock.

Store Robbed.—The clothing store of Mr. Ebbert on Penn street, in the Ninth Ward, was entered by burglars early yesterday evening and clothing to the value of $300 carried away.

A "Flicker" Lifted.—Alexander Pavent was relieved of a gold watch and chain, valued at $100, while attending the ball at Turner's Hall, Tuesday evening. No clue to the thief.

Serious Fall.—Mrs. Cavanagh, an old lady, fell from a second story window of her fruit store, Fifth avenue, last evening, and broke her skull. Dr. McCook trepanned the skull after the accident.

Instant Death.—Yesterday afternoon Wm. H. Kish, sixty years of age, residing at Bellevue, was thrown from his wagon on the New Brighton Road near the Jack's Run, and instantly killed. The accident was caused by his horse running away.

Sixth Ward, Allegheny, Attention.—The Republicans of this ward are requested to meet this evening at 7 o'clock at Motzinger's Hall, corner of Junius street and Beaver avenue, for the purpose of organizing for the coming campaign.

Mary's Festivities.—Annie Charlesworth alleges that Mary Doyle threatened to tear out one of her visual organs and otherwise acted in a disorderly manner by applying all sorts of abusive epithets to her. Alderman Strain issued a warrant for the arrest of Mary.

The Verdict of Public Opinion Sustains the Weed Machine.—It triumphs over the best all others fall. Success is ever the best evidence of merit and superior worth. And only 33 cents per day to pay for it. Weed at the Agency, R. H. Long & Co., No. 118 Market street.

Slight Fire.—The alarm of fire in Allegheny yesterday caused by the burning of a piece of paper in the kitchen attached to the Richter's saloon in the Diamond. The damage was extinguished with a few buckets of water.

Caught.—John Barker was yesterday placed in the lock-up on a charge of larceny. It appears that G. T. Volz, an agent of the Birmingham, Ala., counting house, was in Miller's saloon counting some money on the counter when Barker picked up a dollar and a quarter and slipped it into his pocket. He was captured by a policeman and taken to the lock-up.

Larceny.—Andrew Sheehan made information before Mayor Tuesday, charging Jim Williams, William Richardson and Christy Bradford with larceny of a watch and a pair of shoes from the saloon of Jim Williams, where he was a frequent patron. The parties were arrested and after a hearing, Williams was discharged and the others committed for trial.

Assault and Battery.—Charles Leonard yesterday made information before Alderman Thomas charging Sarah Jenkins with larceny of a watch and assault and battery. The parties were in a difficulty in Birmingham where a difficulty arose between them, whereupon it is alleged Jenkins violated the deponent violently. A warrant was issued.

Slight Fire.—About ten o'clock yesterday a slight fire occurred in a brick house occupied by Mr. Hamilton in the tenth ward, East Birmingham. The fire originated in the attic from a defective chimney and did not go into service as the fire was extinguished before the companies arrived. The damage was very slight.

Hasty Litigation.—Yesterday morning Mary Palmer made information before Alderman Thomas charging Sarah Jenkins with larceny of a watch and assault and battery. The parties were in a difficulty in Birmingham where a difficulty arose between them, whereupon it is alleged Jenkins violated the deponent violently. A warrant was issued.

The Police.—It is but more than a passing word of tribute to Mayor Brush and his police for the very excellent arrangements made and successfully carried into effect for the preservation of order and decorum on Tuesday. The police are daily growing better and more efficient and certainly added largely to their individual and collective reputations.

Committed.—James Smith, arrested in Indiana, Pa., for horse stealing, was committed to jail after a hearing before the Mayor yesterday. We stated a few days since that two valuable horses had been stolen from the stable of James Kelly, of Wilkensburg, which it appears were taken by Smith. An officer got track of him and followed him to Indiana, where he was arrested, having the horses in his possession, and brought back to this city.

Wanted Her custom.—Mary Murphy, proprietor of a small dogger on Virginia alley, it is stated became very angry with a neighbor, Miss Nancy J. Blair, because that lady chose to patronize some other establishment for investigators. To satisfy her revenge, it is alleged, she passing Nancy's house yesterday, threw a brick through it. Nancy summoned Alderman McKenney, and made information against her for malicious mischief. Warrant issued.

Youthful Forger.—A lad named John Crow was brought to the city yesterday by a Buffalo detective and lodged in jail to await trial in the United States Court on a charge of altering or counterfeiting a check. The boy, who is rather bright and intelligent, operated in Titusville, securing postal orders for two dollars and seven dollars, and then making them out for larger amounts. He was successful in several instances in defrauding the money. He confessed the guilt and urged to keep his father, an aged and infirm man.

Public Sympathy.—The verdict in the case of officer William Gray of this city, charged with burglary in the Fayette County Court, finding him guilty of the crime in so well and favorably as such comment is in the opinion of the known. There is but one opinion in the case and that is that he is innocent. We cannot see why such a verdict should have been rendered on the testimony adduced, and believe that Executive Clemency could not be better exercised than in his case.

Lager Confiscated.—Yesterday afternoon two kegs of lager mysteriously disappeared from in front of Schlein's confectionery, corner of Robinson and Federal streets, Allegheny. Later in the day three young men named respectively Patterson, Shields and Caskey, acting in a boisterous manner in the First Ward, Allegheny, attracted the attention of the police, and eventually found themselves in the lock-up. Circumstances connected with the disappearance of the "fluid," and Mr. Schlein accordingly charged the matter to the jury. They will have a hearing this morning.

An Incident.—The President accompanied by his lady a short distance from the city riding in a carriage was halted by a tall, lank fellow, who wanted to get into the carriage. The President, who was in the carriage, said, "This is the little broad den." The man, who was a moment, and with a twinkle of his eye said, "Get along little man, I ain't this years but wait a little longer to see our President. That little fellow won't pass for him just this time." The President laughed heartily and the carriage drove on. The chap taking his carriage by the wayside to await somebody he could believe was the President of the United States.

Disorderly.—Coal Lane, in the Sixth ward, was excited yesterday by a wordy warfare between Mrs. Annie Wilson and Mrs. Elizabeth. Eliza eventually conquered in words, but subsequently was brought before Alderman Strain by her defeated rival for a disorderly conduct. The language used on the occasion was thought by the Alderman to be very bad and he divided the costs between them.

Safe Deposit Company.—The importance of this institution to the public cannot be fully appreciated, except by a personal examination of the great security it affords against fire and burglary. To holders of securities it affords a place of safe deposit protection for all kinds of valuables, and for all other business men, places. We recommend to all holders of securities and parties having a large number of little papers to visit the Safe Deposit Company and inform themselves of its workings.

An Omission.—In our report of the reception of the State, we unintentionally omitted to state that the following officers of the regular army called upon and paid their respects to the President, at the Monongahela House, in full dress uniform, during Tuesday evening: Gen. K. H. R. Whiteley, commander of the Army of Engineers, Major J. A. K. Ramsay, of the Ordnance Department, and others whose names we could not ascertain.

Difficulty on a Street Car.—Tuesday evening a difficulty occurred on a street car on the Birmingham railway, between John Ridenbaugh, the conductor, and William Lang and Thos. Dunn. Lang and the conductor were arrested by the police and taken to the lock-up, when the latter was released and the former locked up for a hearing, which he got yesterday morning, and was fined ten dollars. Dunn made information before Alderman Thomas charging the conductor with assault and battery, and Ridenbaugh made information before Alderman Thomas charging Dunn with the same offense. Warrants were issued in both cases.

The Relief Meeting.—A meeting of citizens to take measures for extending some relief to the Avonport sufferers was called for yesterday afternoon at the Mayor's office, but the excitement of the previous day seemed to have overshadowed everything else, and at the time, three o'clock, the attendance was found to be so small that the meeting adjourned until next Monday afternoon. Bishop Kerfoot presided, with Benjamin Morgan as Secretary. The Secretary was instructed to issue circulars to the pastors of the churches in the two cities, requesting them to make mention of the meeting at their pulpits next Sabbath morning. A note palpitant next Sabbath morning, which enclosed a dollar for the relief fund.

Caged at Last.—On Tuesday of last week we published an account of a daylight robbery perpetrated at the corner of Grant street and Cherry alley, by which Daniel Reynolds was relieved of a silver watch worth sixty dollars. Officers Moore and Rush were entertained with the case, which they have worked up successfully. Yesterday John Grogan and David Gill were arrested and the watch was recovered at Deroy's pawn shop, where it had been left by the thief. It is alleged that Gill and Grogan are the alleged thieves who took the watch, and on information made by Chief Hagan they were committed for a hearing on Saturday at the 25th inst., at which time Reynolds, the man who lost the watch, is requested to be present.

Mysterious Occurrence.—Mr. George W. McIntyre, druggist at the corner of Fifth avenue and Erie street, died yesterday afternoon about a four o'clock, under circumstances rather peculiar character. It appears that he left his boarding house on the corner of Grant street, at two o'clock yesterday morning to meet some friends at the Union depot, who were expected to arrive at that time. On his way to the depot he was stopped by a man who took the watch, and on information made by Chief Hagan they were committed for a hearing on Saturday at the 25th inst., at which time Reynolds, the man who lost the watch, is requested to be present.

The Master Mechanic.—The National Master Mechanic Association are now present holding their annual session at the Monongahela House in this city. The Association is composed of the master mechanics of the several railroad shops in the United States, and its object is the improvement of rolling stock and to ascertain the best material to be used in its construction, and where such material may be obtained to the best advantage. The first session was held yesterday morning, and the Association will close its business this afternoon.

The meeting was called to order by the President, H. M. Britton, after which L. P. Dodge, Secretary, read the minutes of the preceding meeting. The signing of the Constitution was next in order. The Treasurer, Mr. S. Hays, presented his report, which showed the Association to be in a healthy condition financially. Reports of committees were then called for. The committee on the construction of boilers, composed of Messrs. Haysey, of C. & P. R. R., Anderson, of N. W. R. R., and J. R. R. R., presented a report in favor of the homogeneous steel plate boilers. The committee on plate boilers, composed of Messrs. Filbeck, M. T. R. R., Perry, of A. & E. R. R., presented an elaborate, thorough and practical report on the subject of plate boilers, recommending to manufacturers and railroads to use the homogeneous steel plate boiler.

Messrs. Brown, E. R. N., Chapman, C. & P. R. R., and C. & P. R. R., presented a report on the subject of packing for pistons, valve stems and pistons rods. The report recommended the use of a special style of piston packing, and believed it advisable to submit all styles presented to another twelve months' trial. For valves, the committee recommended the use of the valve of the state, if it can be obtained entirely free from grit. The committee on incrustation of boilers, composed of Messrs. Haysey, of C. & P. R. R., Anderson, of N. W. R. R., and J. R. R. R., presented a report on the subject of safety valves, six-ported valves, and recommended the use of a special style of safety valve on all boilers, and left all other matters to be decided, three machines adopting the same style of safety valve. The committee on the subject of the lock-up, recommended the use of the lock-up, and the committee on the subject of the lock-up, recommended the use of the lock-up.

A full and elaborate report was presented by the committee on the general stocks and bonds, and was read by Messrs. Wells, J. M. & Q. R. R., Pendleton, of R. R. R. R., and Van Veitchan, A. & S. W. R. R.

RECEPTION OF OFFICERS.—The next business in order was the election of officers. The committee on the subject of the lock-up, recommended the use of the lock-up, and the committee on the subject of the lock-up, recommended the use of the lock-up.

Mr. H. M. Britton, President of the Association, was elected President by a unanimous vote. N. C. Chapman of the C. & P. R. R., was elected Secretary. S. J. Hays of the I. C. R. R., Treasurer. L. P. Dodge of Chicago, was re-elected Secretary of the committee on the subject of anti-friction valves, failed to report.

A lengthy report upon the explosion which occurred at the Monongahela House, on Tuesday evening, was presented by Messrs. Losey, of C. & P. R. R., and Cullin, of C. & P. R. R., and L. C. & L. C. R. R. The report was carefully prepared and contained a large amount of valuable information. No further business of importance was transacted, and the Association adjourned until the next meeting, which will be held on Thursday evening, 16th inst. Respectfully,
Geo. E. McGintyre,
Chairman.

S. A. COVATTA, Secretary.

PITTSBURGH, Sep. 15, 1899.
Mr. G. E. McGintyre, Dear Sir: I am pleased to receive your note of this date, and to say it would afford me great pleasure to accept the banquet given by the manufacturers of Pittsburgh, on the evening next, at Washington, Pa., on that date, will prevent him from being present. Very respectfully,
To S. A. COVATTA, Secretary.

Killed on the Railroad.—David Bangham, a resident of Wilkensburg, received fatal injuries on the Pennsylvania Railroad, near Brinton station, Tuesday afternoon. He was walking on the outer edge of a track along which a locomotive was approaching from an opposite direction. A bend in the road prevented him from seeing the engine. He was struck and killed on the spot, and just as it came opposite, a puff of smoke obscured him from view. Just as the junction of the locomotive passed over him, an engineer observed him immediately after and stopped the engine, ascertained that he had been hit in the breast, but was still able to move, and had crawled back to the track. He was taken to the station, and Dr. Hamilton summoned, and he, upon his arrival, pronounced the man's injuries fatal. The accident occurred at four o'clock, and six o'clock the man died. He resided with his family about three miles from the station, where Alderman Donaldson yesterday held an inquest. The victim was sixty-one years of age, a farmer by occupation, and leaves a wife and several children. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above and exonerated the employee of the locomotive from all blame.

"Marching Phalanx."—The Eighth Ward Vigilance Committee held their regular meeting last evening at the Franklin Street School House. A committee was appointed to make arrangements to hold a general mass meeting and other business was transacted. After which the meeting adjourned until the evening of the 20th inst. The meeting of the 20th inst. will be held at the Franklin Street School House, fully equipped for parade duty.

Spalding's Jatananul cures Baldness, Restores Grey Hair.

Barbary on the River.

A day or two since we published allegations of Frank Mooney, a deck hand on the steamer Flirt during a recent trip up the Missouri river, concerning abuse and harsh treatment he had received at the hands of the officers of that boat, against whom suit has been brought at St. Louis. The Democrat of Monday says of the case, in substance:

The statement of Mooney was so full of horrible cruelty and inhuman barbarity that we expressed a doubt of its truth, and thought it might be the invention of a mind embittered by hatred and actuated by a spirit of revenge. The statement of Mooney has been verified by the oath of several persons who were eye-witnesses to the transaction. These men, employed as deck hands on the Flirt, say that the boat was a day's journey below Fort Buford when the shooting of Mooney occurred.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

The Flirt was at the time and captain was lying at an island, and the men were engaged in fishing. The boat was on board drift wood in the river, and was to be fastened to the shore. The line was too short, and he seized the lead John Garrett. Garrett was on the line, and was shouting, and struck Mooney on the back with the lead, weighing about six pounds. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth. The lead struck Mooney on the mouth.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Mellon.

WEDNESDAY, September 15.—The first case called up was that of the Commonwealth vs. James McKenna indicted for larceny. Louis Koskey prosecutor. It was argued by the accused stole from the defendant $125. Jury out.

The next case called was the Commonwealth vs. O'Neil and O'Neil for surety. The defendants were held in $500 each. The next case taken up was in the Oyer and Terminer, Commonwealth vs. John Anderson, indicted for rape. On trial.

The Soldiers' Monument.—The proposition to erect the Soldiers' Monument in the Allegheny Cemetery has, we believe, been abandoned, and we would now suggest to the Allegheny Park Commission the propriety of making some definite proposition to the Association to secure its erection on Solitary Hill. We have received the following communication from Gen. Pearson, who has from the beginning taken a lively interest in the affairs of the Association and has rendered it valuable aid. The General at one time strongly favored the Cemetery site, but he has since favored his better judgment to prevail in the matter, as will be seen by the following:

MESSRS. EDITORS: Having received a number of communications asking me to give to the "Soldiers' Monument" I desire to state, on behalf of the Building Committee, that no action has been taken by the Committee on the subject of erecting a monument on the site of the Soldiers' Monument. The Building Committee has no desire to proceed according to the instructions of the Association, to have the monument erected on the site of the Soldiers' Monument, believing in the opinions expressed through the press of the city, the community would not be satisfied with the location. The Building Committee is not settled, so that the matter can be proceeded with as rapidly as I would suggest that a meeting of the Association be called, and that arrangements be made for submitting a proposition to a vote of the Association. This vote can easily be taken at the October election. If this course is adopted, the Association will be relieved of the burden of the monument, which people have cast upon it, and at the same time an opportunity will be given for time to have a vote in the matter. I would suggest, therefore, that the President call a meeting of the Association as early as possible, so that the vexed question may be definitely settled.

A. L. PRANSKY,
Chairman Building Committee.

Amusements.—The Worrell sisters are still holding high carnival at the Opera House,