PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, Sept. 21, 1869. The markets generally are quiet and devoid of any new characteristics worthy of special notice. The demand for almost everything is entirely local and confined mainly to supplying immediate wants of the home trade, while in regard to prices, there are no material changes one way or the other.

APPLES-Dull with a large supply; sales at $1,50@2,50 per bbl. BUTTER-Is coming in pretty freely.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, Sept. 21, 1869. .The oil market was again quiet to-day, and while there was a fair amount of business in the aggregate, yet there did not appear to be that sensitiveness of feeling which has prevailed for some days past. Operators generally have become more reconciled, and appear satisfied to let the market take its natural and legitimate course, and consequently the feeling is not as unsettled and excited as it was at the close of last week. Compared with yesterday, prices have undergone but little change, though the tendency, if anything, seemed to be downward. Antwerp is unchanged.

CRUDE Sales 2,000 bbls seller 60 days, 40 to 45 Sales 2,000 bbls seller 60 days, 40 to 45 gravity, at 14%; 500 October seller, at 14%; 1,000 on broad guage cars at Venango City, at $5,80; 2,000 September, at 14%; and 1,000 do, at 14%. There seems to be no inquiry for either buyer or seller options all year, at least there has been no sales for several days.

REFINED. Sale 500 bbls each, November and De-Sale out DDIS cach, November and Documber, at 32½; 500 each October to January inclusive, at 32½; and 1,000 last half September, at 32½. From the above it will be seen that prices, compared with yesterday, have undergone no change whatever,
