John Owens. We see it stated in the New York papers that Mr. John Owens, the great comedian, contributed one hundred dollars to the Avondale relief fund. This is characteristic of the man. In addition is characteristic of the man. In addition to being the leading actor of the day, he has a most excellent heart. Mr. Owens, we learn, will be at the Opera House next week, commencing Monday night, during which time we will have "John Unit" and other specialties. Seats will be in demand at the Opera House during his angagement. as our people have a his engagement, as our people have a very high appreciation of the man as well as of his talent.

Another Cutting Affray. About half-past ten o'clock last night a cutting affray occurred on Fifth avenue, near the Old Theatre. It appears that David Hall and James Young got into a difficulty in Buckalew's saloon and came out on the sidewalk to fight and were striking at each other when officer Jones interfered. Hall, it is alleged, turned his attention towards the police officer and struck him on the head with a knife, inflicting a slight wound. He was taken and struck him on the head with a knife, inflicting a slight wound. He was taken to the watch house and locked up, and the officer, we are informed, will make information before the Mayor this morning, charging Hall with felonious assault and battery.

Another Homicide. The shooting affray at Saw Mill Run, an account of which we published Monday, in which Frank Schnecke was shot by his father in law, Thomas Caroon, resulted in a homicide, notwithstanding the wound was thought to be a very trifling one. Monday night it appears mortification set in and at one c'clock the injured man expired.

Coroner Clawson held an inquest yesterday morning. Following is the substance of the testimony: Hugh Robers testified—I saw Schnecke pick up a stone on the Ferry Landing, and start toward Caroon's house. Oscion walked away. Schnecke threw the stone, and Caroon shot him.

Amusements. OPERA HOUSE.—Mrs. Emma Waller's rendition of "Elizabeth, Queen of Eng. land" at the Opera House last night, was truly excellent, and her support from the company was all that could be desired. Mr. Chester's Essex was equal, and in some respects superior to that of and in some respects superior to that of Taylor, and the entire cast, was good. The piece will be repeated to night, when we hope to see the house full, as it is seldom the public have an opportunity of seeing a lady of so much talent upon the stage as Mrs. Waller, supported by such an excellent company.
