Ritualists Excited over the Rescript of Pope Pius—The Press still Discusses the Probabilities of War Between the United States and Spain—Effect of Uncle Hyacinth's Letter to the Pope—Still Another Aspirant for the Spanish Throne—Spain Resolved to Save Cuba at all Hazards.

(Special Dispatches to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, September 22.—The Ritualists, clerical and lay, are just now deeply excited over the contents of the rescript of Pope Pius the Ninth, in which His Holiness repudiates the idea of non-Catholics or persons not in full communion with the Catholic Church attending at the Eucharistic Communion in Rome, and taking part in the proceedings. Puseyism or ritualism will not do. The delegates must belong to the Holy Mother by profession and baptism. Rev. Dr. Cumming will not accept of an oral discussion with the assembled prelates.

LONDON, September 22.—One hundred thousand dollars worth of cotton was withdrawn from the Bank for New York. The prospects of a cotton crop in India are favorable.

SPAIN.

LONDON, September 22.—The Times says the Spaniards have found the advantage of a bold display of patriotism and national courage. They met an imagined affront with immediate defiance, though their threatened adversary is ten times more powerful than themselves. Siskies is manifestly alarmed at the result of his proceedings, and has requested further instructions. Funds have been raised in Washington for the purpose of withdrawing his note. If this is the actual case, Spain shows her own feebleness, and her want of national honor, but does not partake of the nature of bravado. She has declared that, if driven to extremity, she will fight. No doubt she will do so for her to gain any advantage by doing so out of the question. But as the matter stands, it is not clear that she has any advantage. America may fairly decline an easy victory on such onerous and political terms. The people and Congress of America are resolved not to part with Cuba without a struggle. A contest could only result in the sacrifice of Cuba, and Spain is not likely to do this. Siskies expected no such resistance as his note provoked. Possibly in the face of such opposition, his proceedings may be abandoned by his Government. It is believed he exceeded his authority, and America cannot be responsible for his act.

The Standard thinks the loss of Cuba, and perhaps Porto Rico, would be the certain result of a war with the United States. Spain is the mischief for Spain would end, after months of combat, for she must agree to peace. But this is not the chief point. It is the corresponding good to the United States. War would cause serious interruption of her commerce and result in the loss of the destruction of her shipping. It is not probable the American Government will interfere any further in Cuban affairs.

MADRID, September 22.—The Treaty of Commerce between Great Britain and Spain will be completed.

The first subject of discussion before the Cortes on re-organization was the choice of a King. Of the candidates such as suggested, the King of Portugal seems to be the favorite.

General Pierré arrived at Taragona Tuesday, and the Republicans made a great demonstration in his honor. Much excitement prevailed, and there were some disturbances in the street, during which the Secretary of the Government was killed. The Government steps to restore order. Many persons were arrested, the Republican clubs dispersed, and the Volunteers disbanded.

An order has been issued for the arrest of Pierré.

Gen. Prim has returned from France. Soon after his arrival a Cabinet Council was held, at which it was resolved to use every effort to save Cuba and to dispatch more troops to the island.

The Taragona affair was also discussed, and strong measures proposed for the preservation of public order.

Prince Napoleon is spoken of as a candidate for the Throne.

TARAGONA, Sept. 22.—Gen. Pierré has fled from here to Valencia. It is reported he was stopped at Tortosa and arrested.

MADRID, Sept. 22.—The Republican violence committed at Taragona. Regent Serrano will leave the city probably this week for the Baths of Alabama.

PARIS, September 22.—A banquet and fete were given in this city in commemoration of the 21st of September, 1792.

PARIS, September 22.—Evening.—The Emperor presided at the Council of Ministers today.

Evidence has been discovered which leads to the belief that the woman and five children discovered dead this week were murdered by the husband and eldest son of the family.

PARIS, September 22.—Le Temps says the noble and courageous answer of Fore Hyacinth will create an immense effect, appearing, as it has, on the eve of a great council. It is truly a sign of the times.

Le Soleil is of the opinion that the attitude of the eloquent and earnest preacher must exercise great influence in the present crisis of the Church.

The Journal des Debats looks upon the religious situation as one fraught with serious consequences. It is said the coming Council at Rome will meet only to ratify the decision of a most tyrannical committee, but the attitude of certain German and American bishops, and the compliance of certain Italian and French ecclesiastics, show that the labors of the Council will not be so easy and direct as was anticipated. ### THE CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, September 22.—President Grant and family returned to Washington this morning. Secretary Cox, and Attorney General Hoar, called upon him soon after his arrival. They subsequently visited the Department of State.

SELECTIONS OF SPANISH-AMERICAN INTERESTS.

After the return of the President this morning, and particularly as he spent several hours with Secretary Fish, at the Department of State, it is probable that the conference, the supposition being that it had reference to our relations with Spain. This is probably not the only authority for the positive assertion. It is certain, however, that the President is already cognizant that some time ago Minister Siskies was instructed to mediate between Spain and the United States Government, and that the latter has been made to it by respectable parties, who had visited Spain and obtained information of the state of the country, and that his friendly offices would meet with favor. Such offers not being unbecomingly in our own history, and that the object of the mediation was to involve the United States in a war, the Government, after mature consideration of the proposed relation, has checked in its friendly disposition, but is not willing to agree to our accommodation between Spain and Cuba on the terms proposed. The mediation is simply, in that the mediation is declined.

The Commercial Depression.—Repeated earthquakes.—The People flee to the Mountains.—Yellow Fever.

NEW YORK, September 22.—The steamship Arizona brings Panama dates to the 13th. The commercial depression still continues at Panama. Earthquake had taken place along the Peruvian coast. On the 15th of August, at Arica, the shock was terribly severe at half past four in the morning, and at five in the afternoon a second shock occurred; and at nine a third, but both of the latter were less than the first. The people, dreading another sea inundation, completely deserted the place, taking refuge in the mountains. In August, yellow fever shocks were felt very early in the morning of the 15th, causing the inhabitants to desert their beds and take to the surrounding hills.

Yellow fever has again made its appearance at Pina Gusa and Mijelmas. The number of deaths from the movement of the earthquake are received from Tacna and Arequipa.

This sum is designed by the donor for the erection of a building similar to and adjoining the present institute, the site for which has already been purchased, and the construction of the new building, is to be applied to a gallery of painting, in honor of the donor, refers to the pecuniary difficulties of Tenn., but expresses confidence in the great national resources of the State, and the high sense of honor of her people, and that the trustees to keep these bonds for the present, as they are increasing in value, and when necessary to dispose of them at the highest price.

POLITICAL.

Massachusetts Republican Convention.—Speech of Senator Sumner.—Patriotic Resolves.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

WORCESTER, MASS., September 22.—The Republican State Convention met this morning. The attendance was large and enthusiastic. Hon. Chas. Sumner presided and made an eloquent speech. The election ticket was re-nominated by acclamation, with the exception of State Auditor, the name of Chas. Edick, of Canton, being substituted for that of the present incumbent.

Dr. Lovins made a speech at the caucus held on Tuesday night and claimed that the Republicans were the only party that our foreign relations there are with two cardinal principles which I have no hesitation to avow at this time: Sympathy with all struggling for human rights. In this spirit he would now approach the subject of the history of that country.

Speaking of the patronage which enabled Columbus to discover this new world, of all the possessions once held alone remain; and Cuba is now in arms against her mother country. While Spain is struggling to hold the title that remains to her in this new world, two questions occur, first as to the duty of the United States. Quoting from a French statesman the words uttered in 1850, he said that colonies are to be sold for the tree only till maturity comes, when they will do what Carthage did, and what America will do if she has not arrived at that state of maturity. The day has come, he said, when the people of the colonies are to be asked to give up their foreign power over the colonies in this hemisphere must cease. (Applause.) And yet while Spain has her colonies, she has a right to them, and that policy for the United States, and that is, of strict non-intervention except in the case of a manifest wrong.

Spain at this moment engaged in a comedy and a tragedy. The comedy is hunting for a King, and the tragedy is sending armies against Cuba. It is not for us to become actors, either in the comedy or the tragedy. If Spain is to be a nation, she must recognize the rights of the people of Cuba, and she must recognize the freedom of every man.

On the subject of our foreign relations, the speaker said he would gladly bid his friends, he would speak to-day, and he would say to you, as he had said already, that we, as a nation had suffered fearfully at the hands of England. He did not intend to say that we were to be a nation, but in view of all England's complicity in our rebellion he would not attempt to set a price upon the head of any man who would attempt to do so.

He would not make any formal demand upon that power—not a dollar more—not a word to England, upon the subject of the subject, to offer such reparation as she deems proper, and to open a party of Canada to consider a consideration, to decide what reparation we shall require.

Mr. Sumner referred to the Committee on Resolutions not being ready to report, nominations of a State ticket was proceeded with as follows: Secretary of State, Homer A. Nelson; Comptroller, Wm. F. Allen; Attorney General, M. E. Champlain; Treasurer, Wheeler H. Bristol; State Engineer, Van Rensselaer; Canal Commissioner, W. W. Wright; State Prison Inspector, E. Laflin; United States Marshal, J. A. Peck; United States District Judge, J. A. Peck; United States District Judge, J. A. Peck.

Five two-story houses on Central avenue, Cincinnati, were burned Tuesday night. They were occupied as shops, dwellings and saloons. Loss $14,000; insurance, $4,000. Three children aged respectively two, five and seven years, all boys, were burned. Their parents were rag pickers. The father's name was Peter Montag. All were in bed when the flames sprang from their house, and the parents escaped in their night clothes on the adjoining roof and were taken down on a ladder. They went away in search of their children, who were taken out of the ruins at midnight.

Judge Embrey, of Memphis, Tenn., Supervisor of Internal Revenue, accompanied by M. E. Rider, deputy U. S. Marshal, went to the store of Edmonds, Pelligrini & Co., wholesale dealers, and demanded the books and papers. On the refusal of the firm to deliver them, except on due process of law, the officers took forcible possession of the store. Yesterday the firm entered suit against Edmonds, Pelligrini & Co., the Collector, for $100,000 damage, and also procured warrants for their arrest for unlawfully seizing the store.

At New Haven, Conn., on Tuesday a fire destroyed the building occupied by Wood & Co. music dealers Tuttle, Moorehouse & Taylor, job printers; H. W. Thompson, grocer; H. W. Robinson, blank book manufacturer, and E. M. Qualis, book and shoe dealer. The entire loss is about $70,000—mostly insured. About one hundred men are thrown out of employment by the fire.
