

Pittsburgh Courier

VOLUME LXXXIV.

PITTSBURGH, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1869.

NUMBER 221.

FIRST EDITION.

NEWS BY CABLE.

DISAFFECTION AND DISLOYALTY IN SPAIN.

Further news from the insurrection at Barcelona—Proposed Radical Demonstration in Madrid—Trouble Anticipated in Spanish Prisons—Not to be Wounded—Mr. Gladstone and the Fenian—Jeff. Davis on his way to the United States—Object of Lord Clarendon's Visit to Paris—Turkey and Egypt—London "Times" on the Cotton Question—Pere Hyacinthe to be Executed—Eruption of Mount Etna.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Consols, 82½; on account, 82½. American securities firmer. Five-Twenty Bonds: 62½, 84½, do. 62½, 83¼; do. 67½, 82; 10-40s, 75; 62½ at Frankfurt, 87½; Erie, 25½; Illinois, 32½; Atlantic & Great Western, 27½; Rentes, 70; 87c.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 27.—Cotton market firm; middling uplands at 12½; Orleans at 12½; sales 12,000 bales. California white wheat 10s 8d; red wheat 9s 3d; 40s 4d. Western four 2s 4d. Corn 3d 6d. Peas 4s 4d. Pork 11s. Beef 8s. Lard 7½. Cheese 6s. Bacon 5s 6d. Spirits petroleum 4s; refined 4s 7d.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Tallow 47s. 3d., and quiet and unchanged. Calcutta cotton 63s. Petroleum at Antwerp 57½. Cotton at Havre 12½; firm.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—The break in the Erie Canal, at Pook's Brook, has been repaired and navigation is fully resumed.

—The new buildings of the National Military Asylum at Milwaukee were dedicated yesterday afternoon by the Hon. J. H. Rogers of St. Paul and Mayor of Milwaukee, who was accompanied by a heavy escort of 100 men.

—A Radical Republican Democratic demonstration is announced to be made in Madrid, Wednesday the 29th. It is thought that there will be some trouble in connection with the demonstration.

—A Paris correspondent of the London "Times" says: "The interest in the Cuban matter is increasing at Paris, but the public must not expect to learn precisely the interests between Madrid and London. There is a difficult game to be played in order to avoid wounding Spanish pride."

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, September 27.—Mr. Gladstone, in reply to a petition from the Fenians, promises to submit the petition to the Queen, but does not pledge the government to any particular action on the subject. He acknowledges the soundness of the judgment exhibited by the petitioners in attaching the true character of the Fenian cause.

Jefferson Davis sailed for America on Saturday on the steamer Baltimore.

The Daily News to-day reports that the object of Lord Clarendon's visit to Paris was to announce to Napoleon an arrangement between Austria, Prussia, and England to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

SECOND EDITION.

TO PENNSYLVANIANS.

Address of the Republican State Central Committee.

TO THE PEOPLE OF PENNSYLVANIA:

The approach of an election for Governor of the State and Judge of the Supreme Court calls upon us to address you. That election, although confined to State limits, and exercise an important influence hereafter on the politics and destiny of the nation.

Arranged against us, and endeavoring to secure your votes for its candidates, is the same Democratic party which was overwhelmingly repudiated by the people at the last Presidential election. It has changed none of its principles and reformers of its practices, but it is as odious to-day to all loyal men as it has been heretofore. Its southern wing caused the rebellion and strove to destroy the Union which was solemnly pledged to your fathers. Its Northern wing gave all the sympathy, aid and comfort to the rebellion that it dare, by resolutions in its State and National Conventions, and by the votes of its members in our State and National Legislatures against all propositions and bills offered by loyal men tending to strengthen the arm of the National Government in its efforts to crush the rebellion.

THE CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 27, 1869. EXTRAORDINARY ARRIVAL OF PASSENGERS.

The official returns of passengers arriving in the United States during the quarter ending June, shows an extraordinary increase. The whole number is 117,662, of whom nearly 65,000 were females.

SALE OF PROPERTY.

In pursuance of act of Congress, the United States Marshal, John W. Geary, has sold the property of the late John W. Geary, late of this city, and who was a member of the House of Representatives, at the sale of the 30th of November.

M. J. HOGERTY HAS AN INTERVIEW.

Mr. Hogerty, a long and satisfactory interview with the President to-day on the subject of his rejection by the British Government as Consul at Glasgow.

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

CITY COUNCIL.

Regular Monthly Meeting—Reports of Committees—The Retrenchment and Reform Committee—The New Market House.

A regular meeting of the Select and Common Councils of this city was held yesterday morning, September 27th, '69, at 2 o'clock P. M.

Select Council.

Members present: Messrs. Armstrong, Brown, Burgin, Coffin, Craig, Dickson, Edwards, Gallaher, Gross, Hallman, Hartman, Herron, Jones, Kirk, Lauffer, Littell, Lloyd, Morrow, Murray, McClelland, McEwen, Mahan, Ogden, Rafferty, Ross, Rush, Schmidt, Scully, Simpson, Turona, Walworth, S. J., Walworth, Z. Watson, Wilson, Zern, and President McAuley.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

The election of those two men will be of vital importance to the people. It will destroy the sham pretensions and professions of the Democratic party, always arrogant and never fulfilled. It will establish the prosperity of the people on an enduring basis.

INFORMALITIES.

The President on taking the Chair called the attention of the members to the fact that certain ordinances had been acted on at a meeting and after action sent into Common Council, which had been returned by that body in consequence of informality, said ordinances having no title as required by the rules. The following were the ordinances: For paying forty-third street; opening of Broad street; opening of Broad street; opening of Broad street; opening of Broad street.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Before proceeding with the regular order of business, it was on motion resolved to take up business from Common Council passed at a former meeting, but not previously reached in the Select Council.

The following business was concurred in: A resolution in relation to the Commercial bill for printing the Record. Resolution prohibiting oil refineries on the Allegheny River from depositing refuse in said stream.

RETRENCHMENT AND REFORM.

The report of the committee on Retrenchment and Reform was read and approved. Mr. Shipon opposed the resolution relative to taking up water pipes laid out last year, as it would be a useless expenditure of money.

Mr. Morrow desired that the committee might have an opportunity of completing its work.

Mr. Edwards moved to concur.

Mr. Zern suggested by moving to refer to the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh.

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The "Times" of today, in an article on the cotton question, says: "If cotton is dear without being so dear as it is, the most important thing is to preserve peace and check the contagion of revolution in France in case of the Emperor's death, but not to leave Germany unanilly."

THEIR WEIGHT AS EVIDENCE OF IRREGULARITIES.

THEIR WEIGHT AS EVIDENCE OF IRREGULARITIES.

The weight of twenty inch pipes (excepting the out pipes) varies from 2,660 to 2,810 pounds, and that is a fair range within the letter and spirit of the contract.

The variance is not the fault of the contractor, but the fair and natural result of matters over which he has no control. The city has not been charged with a single pound of castings beyond the honest weight of these actually delivered. Any statement to the contrary is untrue.

The undersigned neither desires concealment nor to investigate, but he protests most earnestly that he should not be condemned unheard.

THEIR WEIGHT AS EVIDENCE OF IRREGULARITIES.

The undersigned neither desires concealment nor to investigate, but he protests most earnestly that he should not be condemned unheard.

THEIR WEIGHT AS EVIDENCE OF IRREGULARITIES.

The undersigned neither desires concealment nor to investigate, but he protests most earnestly that he should not be condemned unheard.

THEIR WEIGHT AS EVIDENCE OF IRREGULARITIES.

The undersigned neither desires concealment nor to investigate, but he protests most earnestly that he should not be condemned unheard.

THEIR WEIGHT AS EVIDENCE OF IRREGULARITIES.

The undersigned neither desires concealment nor to investigate, but he protests most earnestly that he should not be condemned unheard.

THEIR WEIGHT AS EVIDENCE OF IRREGULARITIES.

The undersigned neither desires concealment nor to investigate, but he protests most earnestly that he should not be condemned unheard.

THEIR WEIGHT AS EVIDENCE OF IRREGULARITIES.

The undersigned neither desires concealment nor to investigate, but he protests most earnestly that he should not be condemned unheard.

THEIR WEIGHT AS EVIDENCE OF IRREGULARITIES.

The undersigned neither desires concealment nor to investigate, but he protests most earnestly that he should not be condemned unheard.

THEIR WEIGHT AS EVIDENCE OF IRREGULARITIES.

The undersigned neither desires concealment nor to investigate, but he protests most earnestly that he should not be condemned unheard.

(Continued on Eighth Page.)