OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, Sept. 27, 1869. Up to the present time it was impossible to settle up the enormous business of last Thursday and Friday of the gold the Committee of nine to return to the Gold Exchange Bank, and if they were dealings were entirely suspended on Saturday and Monday. It so far turns out that but few houses were compelled to withdraw from the Clearing House, but the losses sustained by the bull clique must be immense. Their net profit on gold was large, but they being the principal owners, and supporters of Reading, Ohio and Missisippi, Erie, Lake Shore and Cleveland and Pittlsburgh were unable to hold on to their stock in order to sustain gold, thus suffered heavily by the decline. Ohio and Missisippi declined to 251/2, which is 3 per cent. below the panic of 1866;

110 to 88; Erie from 391/2 to 30, and Reading from 951/4 to 931/4. From all indications, it is apparent that the panic is over, and it now depends how gold will open on Tuesdayif lower than 132, a further decline is inevitable, but if at about 135, a rapid great panic, and a quick realization of profits. What the ultimate price of gold will be, the opinions are undivided, but as to the immediate future, it is doubtful whether the bear element will have any power since the gold still re-

At the close, however, the decline was very marked, and was about one and a half per cent. Opinions are much devided, and judging from the fact that a large short interest exists, the market will be sustained for the present, but lower prices have ultimately to Stocks, as indicated above, are very heavy, and have severely suffered to-great extent, in confusion by the block in business at the Gold Exchange Bank, which temporarily keeps the gold dealers out of a large amount of money, and, moreover, leaves in doubt the standing of numerous firms, with the natural result of extreme caution and uneasiness in every brauch of business. The Gold Exchange Bank is making its clearings on the business of Thursday, but has not yet made the first settlement on the enormous transactions of Friday. The Gold Room held an executive session at ten this morning to consider what means should be adopted to hasten a set-tlement of last Thursday and Friday's business. After-some discussion, a committee of nine was appointed to agree upon and report some method for expediting business, and a recess was taken.

The members reassembled at one The members reassembled at one o'clock, the Committee of nine stated they had got the Gold Exchange Bank to postpone the declaration of any more observations and also suggested defaulters until 2 r.m., and also suggested that a Committee of four be appointed to wait upon the Bank of New York and see if that institution would assist in clearing the gold operations of Friday, owing to the fact that the Gold Exchange Bank has not got through with Thursday's operations. A resolution was offered that non-com iance with the regulations of the Gold Exchange Bank to take up the gold of Exchange Bank to take up the gold of Belden & Co. shall not work a suspension of any member of this body. This was lost by a very decided vote.

A letter was received from William F. Livermine & Co., giving notice of their outstanding transactions being all their outstanding transactions being all to the account of William Heath & Co., Smith, Gold. Martin & Co., and James Fiske, Jr. This letter was ordered on A resolution was adopted instructing not able to receive the assistance of the Bank officers, to ascertain for themselves what they could of Belden's affairs and report as early as possible. During the discussion Mr. Milbank, who acted as Belden's clerk on Thursuay, said he distinctly recollected the account that was handed in. Belden's account was on the chilt side $2,770,000 and on the credit debit side $3,770,000 and on the credit side $3,755,000. From this it would be seen his indebtedness to the Bank was $15,000 in gold. This must have been the Wednesday's business. After another recess the Board assembled at three o'clock. The Committee appointed to ascertain the condition of Belden & Co. with the Gold Exchange Bank, said they were unable to make any report, and adjournment took place until to-morrow morning. As to the final issue of the present dead lock, it about 90 at the close. Lake Shore from may be concluded that everything demay be concluded that everything depends upon the clearings of Smith, Gould, Martin & Co., and from what is generally understood as to the extent of their settlements, at 150, there appears to be but little doubt that their clearings will turn out all right. On Saturday a large number of injunctions were sued out before the Supreme dvance will undoubtedly follow this reat panic, and a quick realization of National Bank Examiner states freely that every National Bank in this city is in sound condition and conservatively managed. Also that the Tenth National Bank is to-day a creditor at the clearing house for over half a million of dollars. house for over nair a million of dollars.

The following formal announcement of a failure was read at Stock Exchange this morning. "President of the New York Stock Exchange. Dear Sir—In

The money market during the forenoon was in a state of utter confusion.
The enormous balances locked up at the Gold Exchange Bank, estimated at from 8 to 14 millions, rendered it almost impossible to get money, and street lenders were exacting higher rates for carrying securities ranging from ½ per cent. on Governments to 2¾ per cent. on New York Central. In the afternoon the mar-
