the Committee would be appointed in accordance with Mr. Brown's motion. Mr. Gross thought that the Committees should not be joined. He thought the Committee that was now asked for was to try the matters at variance between Mr. Smith and the Committee on Re trenchment and Reform. Mr. Morrison called for the yeas and nays on Mr. Rafferty's amenuments, which was lost by a vote of 33 nays to 3 on Mr. Rafferty's amendment resolutions: yeas. The question then recurred to Mr.

Kirk's resolution which was adopted. Mr. Burgwin asked if the motion of Mr. Kirk was intended to cover all three resolutions. Mr. Kirk said that it did not. Mr. Brown held that it did, as his motion which Mr. Kirk stated, was embodied in the resolution. Mr. Craig thought there was a differ-between Mr. Kirk and Brown which he hoped would be harmonized. Mr. Craig moved that all after "Resoly-ed," in the first resolution, be stricken out of the report. The Chair ruled that was Mr. Brown's motion which being embodied Obituary .-- We are pained to announce able light nutritive food, a superior arti-cle for puddings and jellies, and is highly recommended by physicians for invalids and children. Sold by all grocers. T the death of Mr. Thomas J. Hoon, for many years connected with the Alle-gheny Valley Kallway's clerical Department, who died of consumption, near Meadville, on last Sunday night. The deceased was a most estimable young man and held the respect and esteem of all who knew blin. He was a son of the late Alderman Hoon of the Second ward. His remains will arrive in the city this morning, and the funeral will take place this af ernoon at two o'clock from the residence of his guardian, Col. William Phillips, No. 177 Third avenue.

Paintul Death, -Saturday afternoon a little child residing with its parents, at the head of Beaver street, Second Ward, Allegheny, accidently drank a quantity of lye which had been prepared for cleaning purposes. She immediately took sick and a physician was summonsed but notwithstanding all the exer-tions of medical skill, death was the result. She was buried yesterday after-noon, The Coroner did not hold an inauest.
