-The New Albany Ledger, of Monday, says: The case of Capt. Josiah Murray, who was tried before Mayor Hart, Saturday afternoon, upon a charge of burglationals. riously entering the house of Win. Ea. ton, on the 17th inst., for the purpose of robbery, created considerable comment. The main facts in the case, as we learn them from other parties, and from the evidence, are about as follows: About seven months ago Capt. Murray came here from Dover, Tennessee, with the hull of a small sternwheel boat. The hull or a small sternwheel boat. The hull was built at that point, and it was towed here to be completed. When the boat left there, Wm. Eaton and his fauily came on board with their household goods, Mrs. E. being employed to cook goods, Mrs. E. being employed to cook and wash and take care of the Captain's clothes. It seems the furniture of Eaton was attached for debt by the authorities of Dover, and having no money to pay the debt, Capt. M. paid it and took a bill of selection to make the cook of them. of sale of them, to prevent further attachments. Soon after the boat reached here Eaton rented a house and set up

On Friday morning, the 17th, about o'clock, Mrs. Eaten testified she heard some one in her room, her husband being absent, and upon striking a light discovered Capt. Murray, who field when she turned up the lamp. Upon the floor she found a mankercher entry some napers the latter being the latter. some papers, the latter being receipts given by the Postmaster at Dover for registered letters. registered letters. Mrs. E. swears positively that she recognized Murray in the house, and another witness swore that he saw him coming out of the alley at Mrs. Eaton's house about 4 o'clock that morning. He, however, was not positive that it was Murray.

The defense set up an alibi, and produced witnesses from Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. Birth, their daughter and house duced witnesses from Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. Birch, their daughter, and a boarder, to prove that they saw him go to bed at 10 o'clock on the night of the 17th, and that he was called up to breakfast next morning. The defense also proved that Mrs. Eaton had charge of part of the Captain's clothes at the time of the burglary endeavoring to establish the burglary; endeavoring to establish the impression that she got hold of the re-celpts and handkerchief in that way. The bill of sale of the household goods was proven, and offered in evidence, but the Court held that it had nothing to do with the case. At the close of the evidence, of which the above is a synopsis, the attorneys argued the case and submitted it to the Court. The Court decided it this morning by holding defendant to bail in the
