6. Whenever an attempt is made to vote illegally, or a vote is cast by any vote inlegally, or a vote is cast by any person not having proper papers, and not a legal voter of the election district, have the offender promptly arrested. 7. The following abstract as to qualifi-cations of voters, proof of age, cc., is ESFECIALLY commended to the attention of the voters:

of the voters: QUALIFICATIONS OF A VOTER.

He must be a native or naturalized before the election. EXCEPTION - Persons VOTING ON AGE, (being under twenty two years of age,) may vote without being assessed and without having paid such tax. This exception does not extend to naturalized citizens.

3. All persons citizens of the United States formerly qualified voters of this States, but who had removed therefrom and paid taxes, as berein before indica-and paid taxes, as herein before indica-ted, are entitled to vote after six months' residence in the State. All of the above classes should be registered within ten days prior to the Election; but if through neglect or oth-erwise their names do not appear on the Registry list, they will be allowed to vote Only on going to the rolls, and making only on going to the polls and making affidavit of the fact that they fall within amdavit of the fact that they fail within One of these classes, and filing at the Bame time the affidavit of one qualified elector of the District in proof of their residence, within that Election Dictrict for ten days preceding the Election-ex cepting persons who render proper, proof of their right to vote on age who are not required to pay a tax.

PROOF OF AGE.

PROOF OF RESIDENCE.

Residence within the State may be the fact of residence within the state may be proved in the same manner as age, but the fact of residence within the proper elec-tion district, MUST BE PROVED by his own oath and the testimony of at least one qualified elector and comptent witness. The residence must be bona fide and not simply for the purpose of voting. IN CASE OF REMOVAL within ten days before the election he may vote in the district from which he removed.

PROOF OF NATURALIZATION.

The only evidence of naturalization is the certificate under the seal of a competent court, produced to the election offi-cers. Its Loss and contents cannot be proven in any case.

The naturalization certificate must be produced to the election officers by the naturalized citizen before voting, and upon the vote of such person being re-ceived, it is the duty of the election officers to write or stamp on such naturali-zation certificate the word "voted," with the month and year. EXCEPTION-Where a naturatized citi dent of the district where he offers to vote, for at least ten years next preceding the election, his own oath (without production of any certificate) shall be prima facia evidence of naturalization. IDENTITY. Although the certificate is evidence of naturalization, yet the person offering to vote, MUST, IF REQUIRED, PROVE BY LE-GAL EVIDENCE (not his own oath) that he is the identical person named in such certificate. PAYMENT OF TAXES May be found by the production of the receipt for the payment of tax, and oath of the person himself or other com-petent witness. If he fail to produce such receipt he must make oath to the payment of a tax. If required, the enuineness of the receipt must be proved. OPPOSING EVIDENCE.

Evidence may be produced against any person claiming the right to vote, or to contradict the evidence in his behalf.

GENEBAL MATTERS. Any election officer or qualified elector has the right to challenge any person offering to yote; and, when objection is thus made, it is the duty of the inspec-tors to require such person to prove his right to yote. The testimony must be astisfactory to the inspectors.

right to vote. The testimony must be satisfactory to the inspectors. Persons whose names are registered may be challenged, and when challenged they are required to produce the same proof as to their right to vote as persons who are not registered. Where there are more names on a ticket than there ought to be, the ticket should be rejected. The Polls should be closed at the proper hour regardless of the fact whether or not all persons pres-ent have voted.

Temporary absence on public business or in the military service, does not dis-qualify a voter. Native citizenship must be proved when such proof is required by either of the inspectors or by any qualified voter. The minor children of Dersons who were silens though born persons who were allens, though born out of the United States, if dwelling in the United States at the time of the naturalization of their parents, become citizens by such naturalization of their parents. Proof cf the fact, if required, must be made by the production of the certificate or duplicate thereof, and evi-dence of identity, as in other cases.
