WASHINGTON, Oct. 9, 1869. INTERESTING INDIAN INTELLIGENCE. Gov. Burbank, of Dakota, ex-officio Superintendent of Indian Affairs for that territory, has forwarded to the bureau copies of letters from First Lieut. Woodson, of the Commissary Department, and Capt. D. C. Poole, Indian agent at White Stone Agancy, in that territory, with reference to the present and anticipated troubles among the Indians, and asking that troops be stationed there. Lieut. Woodson reports that the subsistence stores at the agency are in a great state of insecurity. The recent disturbances among the Indians occasioned Carr and his Pawnee scouts in July last, Carr and his rawness could in July lass, and are being constantly incited by less friendly Indians, with whom they are in daily communication, to revenge the death of their fallen comrades. They have organized a war party against the Pawnees, and have viaited near their reservation and taken some scalps. The Pawnees, in return, visited the Whet-stone agency and stole a number of horse devoted to the financial question. He stated, as the entire policy of the Ad-ministration in regard to the public debt, that it is to be paid, principal and inter-est, according to the terms of the con-tract, and in coin, or that which men will receive as the equivalent to coin. He claimed that if none of the public debt had been paid since 1863, the funded debt of the country would not bear less than $3,200,000 in addition to the $366,-000,000 notes in circulation. If in these four years, exhausted as we have been by war, we have been able to pay tweatyby war, we have been able to pay twenty-five or thirty three per cent of the public debt, shall we hesitate as to our course ances among the Indians occasioned by the introduction of whisky has re-aulted in great destruction of public property. Another Fire:-Between nine and ten o'clock Saturday night, a alight fire oo-curred in the cellar under the Central Bank on Fifth avenue. It appears that the cellar is used to deposit ashes and other rubbish in, and one of the rooms was swept out and the rubbian deposited on the ash pile and in a few moments a bucket of hot ashes was thrown upon a it, which caused the fire. The Vigilant g engine was in service and the fire was done. Almost a Ent.-Abbut has positive of o'clock yesterday morning, a alight fire occurred in a job printing office, on the third floor of Philo Hall Building, but it was extinguished before any serious dam-age,was done. Marvin's Crackers have no superior in the market. Special care is taken in their manufacture, and as a consequence, the best article is produced. They should be on hand in every house, as no table is complete without such articles. Almost a Fire .- About half past twelve
