To the Union Republican Voters and Vigilance Committees of Allegheny

But one working day remains before the elec-Sut one working day remains before the elec-tion. Every Republican should devote that day to active, disignat work. The Local Vigilance Committees, should meet nig tip until election day, and thoroughly, ex-amine and canvass their lists. If the names of any legal vaters are not on the registration list, they amine and canvass their lists. If the names or any legal voters are not on the registration list, they should neverth less be brought to the polls, and on making the proofs by amilavit, provided for by the registry law, they will be silowed to vote by the registry law, they will be silowed to voic.
In every election district there should be SPECIAL COMMITTEES ATFOINTED TO MARK OFF the names of those who have voted, and in that mano'clock voted. AFTER THAT HOUR SEND OUT for all such and have them brought in. HAVE CHALLENGERS APPOINTED to every election district, of good, reliable Kepubl cans, who are well acquainted with the citizens of the district. See that the tickets are correct and properly distribnted.

Bear in mind that, under the new Regis'ry law. the polis in city and county must be presed be-tween the hours of six and seven o'clock in the morning, and closed at To'clock in the evening. This wil give an opportunity to many of the working and business men to vote before going to their labors.

In another column of this paper you will, find the address of the Naturalization Comm thee, setting forth what constitute the requisite qualincations of voters, and containing other in formation, to which your careful attention is Remember that every naturalized voter must present his certificate of naturalization to the Election Board, and should therefore carry it with him on going to the polls.

Noters should be careful to examine their tickets and see that they are right, as the opposition have flooded the County with spurious ones, in the main Republican, but having on them names of certain of their cavdid tes, and more epectally the name of WM. It is to be hoped that every measure will !

adopted, by the earnest Republicans and the Vigilance Committees of this county, to bring out on Treaday next a FULL REPUBLICAN YOTE. and thus secure a great Republican victory.

morrow. Look out for them. REPUBLICAN State Conventions are to be held on the 13th, in Maryland and Arkansas. OUR very full list of the municipal nominations in the cities and boroughs will interest our local readers.

THE western section of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, from Charles. ton to Guyandotte, is to be put under contract within twenty days.

WEOEVER HAS the savings of his industry invested in government bonds, ought to vote for the Republican candidates as a measure of self-protection.

THE opposition ticket is headed by man who stands convicted of the petty meanness of dodging his taxes since 1867, although his wealth is acknowledged to count by millions.

A soldier who votes to morrow for Asa Packer blots out with his own hand the record he made in the war. Who will do it?

MR. PACKER says the blacks were emancipated in a manner unknown to the Constitution. Does he maintain that, therefore, slavery ought to be restored? SEE THAT every Republican voter i brought out to-morrow. To this end make arrangements to-day. Victory may depend on a single vote, though we hope to have thousands to spare. THE downfall of Republics has invariably commenced with the elevation of rich men to office, simply because of their riches. Is that why the Democrats wish to elect Mr. Packer?

GEARY helped to give California Constitution in which slavery was forbidden. Packer, when in Congress, voted to keep Kansas out of the Union because she had a free Constitution.

VIRGINIA has ratified the XIVth and XVth Articles, with an almost unanimous vote of her new Legislature. Now for Ohio to morrow-and Mississippi and Texas next month—and Georgia to follow in due time.

An opposition editor at Altoona "believes that he has made a mistake in supporting Packer in the Convention." There is so little doubt of this, that the people will take warning from his unhappy example.

WHAT could be more humiliating than to have the Governorship bought with money. Mr. Packer has nothing else to give for it. Neither valuable public services, nor the capacity to render such services. He has money, and nothing Anhonest Democratic journal, the New York Citizen, alluding to the want of any indications of true loyalty in the Harrisburg platform on which Mr. Asa Packer stands, frankly declares that it "neither expects nor wishes that such a party should carry Pennsylvania."

Mr. H. W. WILLIAMS is an accomplished jurist, has been long on the bench, and is widely recognized as a learned and upright magistrate. In his election the rights of the people, by a faithful rendering of all constitutional questions, will be abundantly secured. On the eve of elections the Democrats ordinarily set all sorts of deceptive reports in circulation. Be not deceived by any of them. Every thing for which the slightest show of proof can be adduced, was brought out early in the canvass. All late reports are designed to impose

THE Lake Shore Railway Company seems to have been hit hard by the failure of their. Treasurer. A dispatch says: It was understood that they have de-ided to issue $2,000,000 convertible sinking fund bonds, bearing seven per centing fund bonds, bearing seven per centinterest, to meet the immediate liabilities of the Company, and more especially to take up the Wabash stock falling due on

THE Republican party cannot afford to lose a single vote to-morrow. Let no citizen stay at home and pray for the success of the ticket through his neighbors, votes and exertions. Go to the polls early and deposit your vote, and then see to it that your Republican neighbors do likewise. Nothing can be more at variance in with the spirit of genuine Democracy than to make the possession of wealth a recommendation for public station. Mr. PACKER has nothing but money to distinguish him from the masses of his fellowcitizens, and but for his money would never have been thought of in connection with the Gubernatorial office.

A CORRESPONDENT Writes us concern. ing a dirty little trick which has been resorted to, by a local opponent of Hon. MILES HUMPHBEYS, a candidate on our legislative ticket. It has been exposed and can do no harm to the prospects of Mr. H. His legislative record has triumphantly challenged the scrutiny of all his honest constituents.

REPUBLICS, whenever true to elementary principles, endeavor to ameliorate the condition of the poor and oppressed; to protect them in the enjoyment of equal political rights with their more prosperous fellow-citizens, and to give them fair chances for bettering their circumstances. What sympathy has Mr. Packer shown for poor men, since he left the ranks of that class?

A vote for Packer is a vote for the repeal of the railway tonnage-tax, which subjects the great corporation under his control to a large contribution for the expenses of the Commonwealth. Repeat the tax and the people will have the amount to make good, in some other form, from their own pockets. Shall we aid Mr. Packer in dodging this tax, as he has already dodged his personal obligations? LOOK OUT for spurious naturalization papers to-morrow. The Registry law has a god in pickle for any man who attempts to use that kind of a document. Remember that high Democratic authority confesses that twenty-two thousand of them were voted on last year. These coffee-stained certificates of knavery are all extant, and some of them may turn up at the polls to morrow. Watch for them, and nail their owners !

In 1862 this country shook under the tread of armed hosts. The constituted authorities called loudly upon the people for help. Strong hands and brave hearts were wanted for duty on the field of battle. GEARY went himself, taking his son with him; and the son was slain in one of the bloodiest fields of the war. PACK ER staid at home intent only on doubling his millions. Which of them, in these times of peace, deserve the grateful recognitions of the men of Pennsylvania? In 1861 the debt of this State was almost $38,000,000. Nearly $4,000,000 was added thereto by the Republicans, after the war began, to arm and equip soldiers for the work of putting down the Rebellion. November 30th, 1868, which was the date of the last official exhibit, the debt was reduced to less than $33,000,000. Nine millions and more paid off. The State Treasurer now proposes to cancel another million of the debt, due July 1st, 1870, and will accomplish it in advance of that date.

A VERY large audience listened, on Saturday evening, with sincere satisfaction, to the speech of H. Bucher Swore, Esq. An open-air meeting, and held at one of the most conspicuous points in a crowded thoroughfare, the people gave careful attention, and constantly reiterated the tokens of their appreciation. Mr. Swore has not been half well enough known by the people of these cities. But he is now in a fair way to be better known and appreciated. His address on Saturday night was the gem of the canvass here, and will be so remembered. Ir is clearly the better opinion now that the XVth Article does not apply to Chinese immigration. In his late speech at Cincinnati, this opinion was faithfully expressed by Senator Monton, who spoke of the amendment thus: It provides that no citizen of the United States shall be debarred from the right of suffrage on account of race or color or previous servitude. The Chinese are not citizens of the United States, and under the laws of the United States they cannot be. The laws of the United States do not permit them to be naturalized, and unless naturalized and first made citizens of the United States, they could not posthe come under the operation of the differenth Amendment.

HERE are Asa Packer's views touching the African slave trade. He voted first to lay on the table and, subsequently, on its final passage, against, the following resolution offered by Mr. Etheridge, Dec. 19, 1856, on occasion of the landing of two slave cargoes on the Southern coast: Resolved, That this House regards all suggestions and propositions of every kind, by whomsoever made, for a revival of the Africas slave trade, as shocking to the moral sentiment of the enlightened portion of mankind, and that any action on the part of Congress conany action on the part of Congress con-niving at or legalizing that horrid traffic would justify subject the Government and citizens of the United States to the re proach and excration of all civilized and Christian people in the world. Yet he now asks for the votes of the free people of Pennsylvania!

Vote for Packer to-morrow and you say to the world that the patriotism of the days of '61 was a mistake; that the war thousands of brave Union lives were needlessly lost; that rebellion was warranted hearts of the Southern people. Vote for renew your gratitude to the heroes of the the whole, unbroken set of candidates war; you reassure the soldier President nominated by their party. that you are with him in heart and spirit and have no occasion to regret his elevation to office and heartily endorse his administration of public affairs, Which course will you pursue? With your country or against it? It requires but little time for the honest and patriotic citizen to make up his mind to vote the whole Republican ticket.

GOVERNOR SENTER delivers his message to the Tennessee Legislature to day. He will urge the adoption of the XVth Article, but without avail. The Legislature is violently reactionary, and will press through to the bitterest end. Even before the organization of one branch was completed, a bill was introduced to destroy a vital part of the free school law. The Democracy are everywhere hostile to popular education. And popular education is always bad for the Democracy.

The sound Republicans of Tennesse find much reason for hope, in the revolutionary policy of the temperary majority. Their organization will be once more animated and invigorated for an assured triumph. A sincerely patriotic Conservatism holds the balance of power in Tennessee, and current events tend powerfully to Republicanize this class of citizens. No one looks to a wager for an argument, but it is usually indicative of the set of the current of popular opinion. For example, large bets have been stand. ing open for Democratic acceptance at Philadelphia, during the week past, that now proposes to imitate his example!

GEARY majority would not be less than five thousand, with no takers among Mr. Packer's sporting friends. Indeed, it is understood that the Great Dodger himself surrendered his last hope of election a month ago. Now, if any Democrat in this vicinity feels more sanguine than that, and thinks his opinion, that Mr. Packer will be elected, worth backing up, we are authorized to inform him, that he can be accommodated with an invest. ment of $1,000 or more on the event, on application at the GAZETTE counting. room, where the funds are ready for that

The latest form of trickery that has come under our observation is a ticket bearing all the names of the Republican nominees to the Assembly with an addition made thereto of one Democratic candidate. If such a ticket shall be voted, all the names it bears, from Governor to Constable, will have to be thrown out, under Section 50, of the Election Law of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows: "If upon opening any ticket, as aforesaid, there be found any more names writ-ten or printed on any of them than there ought to be, or if any two or more such papers be folded together deceitfully, such tickets shall be rejected and not counted among the votes; but no ticket shall be rejected by reason of its containing fewer names than the proper number,"

The sum in default is over $25,000. This is only a little more of Mr. Packer's dodging! He succeeded so well by his carpet-bag flank movement upon Philadelphia, in bilking the State and County Treasuries of the large taxes previously assessed upon his immense wealth, that his pocket railway concern

GHENY COUNTY. After almost a year's cessation from political strife, the citizens of Pennsylvania are again involved in a great contest. Divided as heretofore into two great parties-Republican and Democraticthere is yet no question before them of principle or of policy; for all such were fully discussed and emphatically passed upon by the voters of the State in the triumphant election of the Grant and Colfax electors last year. The propriety and justice of the Fifteenth Amendment, so much invelghed against by the Democracy of the present day, and the impro-prieties and shortcomings of the Johnson administration, with which they were only too glad, in their great desire for place and profit, to affliate are of the past; settled by the verdict of the people of the whole country in November last, and to their entire and great satisfaction. No new issues have arisen or could since then arise, and in the canvass of this year the voters of Pennsylvania are called upon only to reaffirm or disaffirm a former verdict.

The Republicans of Allegheny county are not and have not been unwilling to open the old questions anew. On the contrary, they have invited and challenged the Democratic party to a free and and discussion before the account. full discussion before the people of every point of difference between the two parties, in the full faith and confident belief that the inevitable repetition of the vote of 1868 might in a measure tend the vote of 1868 might in a measure tend to impress upon it the fact that there are questions which have been finally decided upon, and principles which, though good enough in their day, the progress of the country has now model, checker, but good enough in their day, the progress of the country has now made obsolete; but to day the canvass in this county, now almost at an end, presents the strange spectacle of a party in power, and therefore necessarily to be assailed, willing to accord to its opponents not only an investigation of its conduct airce it has been in, but also a new trial of those principals. in, but also a new trial of those principles upon which the voters of the nation decided it should come into power,
