FIRST EDITION.

MIDNIGHT.

THE CAPITAL.

(By Telegram to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)
WASHINGTON, October 11, 1898.
YERGER AND BROWN CASES.
The Yerger case will be heard on Friday as to the question of jurisdiction. The Brown case, from Texas, is to abide the decision of the Yerger case. The Court adjourned upon the announcement of the death of ex-President Pierce.

THE LATE FRANKLIN PIERCE.

The Court of Claims met this morning, but no business was transacted, the Court having adjourned until tomorrow with respect to the memory of Ex-President Pierce. All the Government buildings, and all flags on public and private buildings, are at half mast, as a tribute of respect to the memory of Franklin Pierce.

CANADA.

What Can the Matter Be? Volunteers Armed and Equipped at Midnight!

(By Telegram to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)
MONTREAL, October 11.—There is considerable excitement here owing to the sudden order last night to turn out all the volunteers for service in short notice. Many of them were dragged from their beds to muster at the armory, where every man received his arms and accoutrements with orders to parade to day. It is not supposed that Federal troubles are apprehended; but rather that complications will arise from the Hornet affair. Sir Francis Hincks has been sworn in as Finance Minister.

THE ORIGINAL SIMON-PURE DEMOCRATIC TICKET TO BE VOTED—AN ELECTION PROCEEDS—GOING TO THE POLLS IN BOATS—RAILS RECEIVED AT THE SECONDARY WINDOW.

(By Telegram to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)
PHILADELPHIA, October 11.—It is now probable the city ticket originally nominated by Democrats will be run. Handbills appeared to day urging the Democrats in strong language to vote the original ticket, and stating that printed ballots would be furnished at the polls tomorrow. In some places these posters were torn down, causing fights. The banks all along the river have been closed for a week past, and to-morrow the voters will have to vote in boats. The house in which the election will be held has several feet of water on the first floor, and the voters will be taken in at the second story window.

CINCINNATI.

Anti-Nuisance Meeting—Saratoga Language—Horse-whipped for It.

(By Telegram to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)
CINCINNATI, October 11.—Joseph L. Keck was whipped Thomas Hyattman this morning for the following language used by the latter at a meeting of citizens, in Delhi township, on Friday, to abate the nuisance of the fertilizer company, viz: "Ben Eggleston was our first district, and St. Keck was President of the city council. We have representatives of the people here, why not call them honorable? Have they done any worse than these property in this community, and these millions are ready to buy it up at a low rate, when they have got a great part of it, you find that the factory will be removed. Weather cool, cloudy, and "spitting" rain, with a prospect of a full vote to-morrow. Gov. Hayes is in the city.

LOUISVILLE.

Assembling of the Commercial Convention—21 States Represented.

(By Telegram to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)
LOUISVILLE, October 11.—At seven o'clock this evening there were registered over 200 delegates. Twenty-one States are represented, namely: Kentucky, Kansas, Georgia, Indiana, Iowa, Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, Maryland, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, North Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont, Texas and Virginia. Every train and steamer to-day will bring large additions. All the hotels are engaged, and many of the delegates will have to be quartered in the residences of private citizens, which have been thrown open for that purpose.

Funeral of Ex-President Pierce.

(By Telegram to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)
CONCORD, N. H., October 11.—The remains of Ex-President Pierce were removed at eleven o'clock this forenoon to the State House, where a large number of people took a last view of the departed. A small detachment of troops from Concord and other places were present. The funeral will be held at one o'clock, where the rites of the Episcopal church were performed.

NEW YORK CITY.

Insurgent Leaders Shot—Conflicting Reports—Government Alarmed for the Safety of Madrid—French Miners yet Discontented—Release of Miners Prisoners Demanded.

(By Telegram to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)
SPAIN.
MADRID, October 11.—Official reports state that 1800 insurgents of Reus surrendered to General Baldrick. Deputies Mogyetie and Falados have given in their submission to the Government.
Fighting continues at Laragosa, and the authorities demand reinforcements. Disturbances broke out in Valencia on Friday, but in Aragon and Catalonia the situation has not lost its importance. Parties just arrived here report that the republic has been proclaimed at La Carolina and Gaudosa. It is feared the insurgents will make a movement on Madrid, and great precautions are taken to resist them.
October 11.—Evening.—Carbolic acid was used to kill the rats. Berillo and Carbajal, two insurgents, were captured and taken to the town of La Carolina, where they were shot. Aragon has been reported quiet. The order has been restored in Saragosa. Many of the insurgents were killed, wounded and taken prisoners.

PARIS, October 11.—Dispatches from

Austin in the department of Aveyron, last evening received. Up to a late hour the situation in the department of Aveyron was quiet. A large number of men were enrolled as Home Guards, of whom one hundred and seventy-eight were in the field. The total receipts for domestic sales for 1898 were $12,710. The report of the foreign committee is ready, showing the mission force to be thirty-seven.
In the Court of Oyer and Terminer to-day, Judge Ingraham, in his charge to the Grand Jury, alluded to the law making it a crime for two or more persons to conspire together to obstruct any act injurious to trade or commerce, and called attention to the recent gold combination, and said it is the duty of the Grand Jury, as well as of the public, to inquire into such occurrences, and if brought about by a conspiracy, and if so, to present the guilty parties for trial.
The Cooper Institute was crowded to-night by friends of Cuba to celebrate the first anniversary of Cuban independence. Cuban Minister to Washington, President of the Cuban League, and other prominent persons in various parts of the country, and a number of the members of the Junta and others. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed.

ST. LOUIS.

Important Railroad Movement—Questions for Discussion by the National Board of Directors.

(By Telegram to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)
St. Louis, October 11.—At a meeting of the Board of Trade, to-night, Gen. G. W. Blair, of Kansas, presented the project of building a railroad from Lebanon, Laclade county, Missouri, the present terminus of the South-Western Pacific R. R., to Fort Scott, Kansas, via a route from St. Louis to South-east Kansas and the great stock raising country west and south, 120 miles shorter than any present or projected route. The project met with much favor, and the Board adopted resolutions asking the attention of merchants and capitalists to the project.
The President offered several questions to be discussed by the National Board of Trade at its next meeting, in substance as follows: Asking Congress to appropriate sufficient money to remove the obstructions to navigation in the Mississippi river and its tributaries; also, to furnish aid to work in connection with the essay now operating on the bar at the mouth of the Mississippi, so that a channel, the depth of twenty feet, may be maintained; the reduction of the duty on foreign salt to fifteen per cent; also, the rate established before the war; the passage of a law by Congress to control the railroads of the country to transport local passengers and freight at the same pro rata rate per mile as they do through passenger cars; also the passage of a general law by Congress regulating the width of draws and spans of bridges over the Mississippi, Ohio and other rivers.
The Board also adopted a resolution expressing regret at the death of Franklin Pierce and commending the Administration.

The Case of the Cuba—Life of the Deference—Another Resumption.

(By Telegram to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)
WASHINGTON, N. C., Oct. 11.—The case of the Cuba was opened this morning by Mr. J. P. Lowe, of New York, who appeared, with Col. George Davis and Judge G. P. Mears, for the Republic of Cuba, by reading the commission of Consul General Higgin as an officer of the Cuban navy, and also formal protest by him against the exercise of jurisdiction by the civil courts over his ship, she being a public ship of a recognized nation. He declares it untrue that she has offended against the neutrality laws of the United States. In order to allow the Government to produce witnesses, United States Commodore Rutherford continued the case until Saturday next.

Important Order by Gen. Canby.

(By Telegram to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)
REIZMOON, October 11.—Gen. Canby issued an order to-day postponing until after the admission of the State, the appointment of the State proxies in railroad bonds. This order will keep the railroad organizations as they stand at present, until the permanent State Government goes into effect.
An engagement occurred last week between a small detachment of troops and Cubans, near Puerto Príncipe. Reports have been circulated of the intended evacuation of Puerto De Paero, but they prove untrue.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

Through trains are now running regularly on the Erie railroad.

All the distillers in the second Ohio district are to be re-surveyed.
The cotton shipments from Virginia City for the past week were nearly two hundred and thirty thousand dollars.
Cyrus A. Eastman, appointed Treasurer of the San Francisco Mint some time since, has accepted the position.
A heavy rain storm prevailed at New York on Sunday, and extended throughout New England.
The Memphis Board of Aldermen yesterday rescinded its action in reference to the sale of the Little Rock Railroad stock.

STATE ITEMS.

WILKESBARRE has a school in which women are taught.

The Department of Soldiers' Orphan Schools favorably considered one hundred and sixty applications for admission into the orphan schools in this State, during September.
The Reading manufacturing establishments are at a standstill and house-keepers a good deal inconvenienced by the damage resulting from the recent freshets.
On Thursday, of last week, the railroad shops at Patterson were closed in obedience to an order issued several weeks ago. A number of the employes have been given employment at Altoona, and others at the shops at Renovo, on the Philadelphia and Erie road.
An attempt was made to steal the church plate at the Catholic church in Mauch Chunk last week. Through the courageous action of the priest, who discovered the intruder in the very act, the church plate was saved and handed over to the authorities in the jail.
At the recent meeting of the Lutheran Synod of Pennsylvania, held at Lebanon, Rev. Dr. Valentine, President of Pennsylvania College, at his own request, was elected Moderator of the Maryland Synod, with expressions of regret on the part of the Synod to have to consent to the separation.
The Philadelphia Post says "outrages by Mayor Fox's men are so numerous that it is impossible to 'gather them up.' We don't print half of them, nor do we learn of half that occur. Democratic aldermen invariably hush up cases where police officers are the defendants, and many a guilty blue coat escapes a thorough ventilation."
At Sharon, Mercer county, last week a young man named Carmody, was stabbed in the abdomen by one McKee, re-entring a wound four inches long, and deep enough to scrape the intestines. McKee was arrested. He has already served one term in the Sing Sing Penitentiary, one term at the Dry Tortugas, and one term in the Allegheny Penitentiary.
JOHN SHEPHERD, an athlete, was very seriously injured at the Conneautville Fair. He was performing his feats upon a horse, and had run his mile, and was engaged in walking a tight-rope, when he came in collision with a horse, when he came in collision with the horse and carriage on the track, the driver not observing him in time to turn out of the way. He fell from the horse, and struck him on the lower part of the spine, knocked him violently forward on his face, in which position both wheels of the buggy passed over his body lengthwise.
