

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

The Gazette is furnished in the city for six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $5 per annum - 3 mos. $2.

Our Readers in Allegheny, on the west side of Federal street, who do not get their paper before seven o'clock in the morning, will do us a favor by leaving word to that effect in our counting room. The tardiness on the part of the carrier is wholly inexcusable as we print and deliver the papers to him in ample time to enable all to be circulated before seven o'clock.

For Sale.—A fine family horse. Enquire at 115 Market street.

Allegheny Council held a regular meeting to-night.

The Fifth Ward.—It is reported that the election for Alderman in the Fifth ward will be contested.

An Error.—There was a slight error in our return of the election in Birmingham. The Republicans elected their entire ticket, except the candidate for Constable.

Dull.—Police news was exceedingly dull through the city yesterday, and will probably remain so for some time to come.

Will be sold at public sale, at Sampson & McNally's salery and sale stable, Nos. 139 and 141 Third avenue, at 11 o'clock, one horse and buggy in good order.

Official Vote.—The return judges of the several wards, boroughs and townships will meet at the Court House at ten o'clock tomorrow, (Friday) to return the official vote of the county for State and county officers.

Good House and Lot in Allegheny, at auction. A first-rate property located on Beech street, Monday next, at two o'clock. The lot is large and the property desirable. See advertisement on fifth page, by A. Leggett, auctioneer.

Stone Throwing.—Mrs. Margaret Fleming made information before Alderman Thomas against Daniel Grogan, man Thomas against Grogan, charging him with throwing a large stone through the front window of her house, at an early hour Sunday morning. Warrant issued.

Immolation.—Kate Jackson, colored, stated to Alderman Thomas yesterday that Addison Davis, also colored, had threatened to immolate her. She fears she is being persecuted by him, and is on the lookout for Addison with a view of preventing the threatened calamity.

Fair and Festival.—The Fair and Festival in the new Episcopal Chapel of Trinity Church, Sixth street, which has been largely attended and liberally patronized on Tuesday and Wednesday, will continue to-day and tomorrow evening. Choice dinners and suppers are served, and numerous useful and fancy articles are displayed for sale at moderate prices. The proceeds are to be expended in furnishing the chapel.

Almost a Fire.—About half past eight o'clock last night the fire department was called out by an alarm of fire from No. 27, corner of Grant & Wylie streets. The cause of the alarm was ascertained to be the burning of a bed in Mr. Kelly's house, on Fifth avenue, near Ross street. It was extinguished by the application of a few buckets of water, consequently the department were not called into service. The loss was very trifling.

Now is the time to get good fresh lake fish. Ben Pulvers always has on hand at No. 45 Diamond street, Allegheny City, corner of Ohio and Federal streets, the very best. Lovers of fresh fish will find it to their advantage to call on him and get their supplies. They will find a superior assortment of all kinds of fish, and will find him polite and courteous, and always giving satisfaction to customers who may favor him with their patronage. See advertisement.

Horrible Accident.—A dispatch received here from Franklin, in this State, states that on Tuesday night at eleven o'clock a signal tower on Mine Hill Railroad, near Mountain, took fire, burning to death the watchman and his children. A sister of the watchman jumped from a window and escaped. The fire, which originated at the base, ascended with such rapidity as to envelop the tower before realizing their horrible position.

A False Friend.—Rachel Harris, had a false friend—Rachel Harris, had a false friend—Rachel Harris, had a false friend. He is not her friend now, the friendship was broken up when Edward entered Rachel's house and abstracted feloniously therefrom a pocketbook containing nineteen dollars and a half, and a silver sleeve button. This occurred on Monday, yesterday. Edward had a hearing on a charge of larceny before Alderman Cantel, which resulted in a committal to the county jail. He was also required to give bail to keep the peace.

Murder at Freeport.—Mr. Straub, a young man about twenty-two years of age, died Tuesday morning from injuries received Sunday morning, at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Straub, it hands of his mother, Mrs. Straub, it appears, is subject to periodical fits of insanity, and Sunday morning, while his son was eating his breakfast, she slipped up behind him and struck him on the back of the head with a coal piece, splitting his skull. She immediately fled, and was arrested on the afternoon of Wednesday and committed to the Armstrong county jail.

A Murderer's Confession.—On our seventh page this morning will be found full, the confession of Zachary Taylor Hockenberry, confined in the Butler County jail under sentence of death for the murder of his cousin, Annie Cantel. The words, must be a wicked and hard-hearted criminal who richly deserves the execrations of all men. The inconspicuous death in prison of a murderer is a great literary phenomenon, and a heartless wretch, judging from his incoherent and wages industry, crinate slaughter on the "small fry."

Serious Accident.—A rather serious accident occurred at the Elmwood Hotel, where works of Albert (Harry) Wylie & Co. are being carried on. On Wednesday afternoon, Mr. E. H. Brown, an employee of the firm, was engaged in repairing Lewis Waugh was engaged in repairing a canal over the arch of which had been broken on the day previous, thereby causing a large tide, two by three feet, and two inches thick, striking down in the open the tile fall, striking Wylie was also struck and severely injured.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY ELECTION RETURNS.

The Gazette is furnished in the city for six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $5 per annum - 3 mos. $2.

Our Readers in Allegheny, on the west side of Federal street, who do not get their paper before seven o'clock in the morning, will do us a favor by leaving word to that effect in our counting room. The tardiness on the part of the carrier is wholly inexcusable as we print and deliver the papers to him in ample time to enable all to be circulated before seven o'clock.

For Sale.—A fine family horse. Enquire at 115 Market street.

Allegheny Council held a regular meeting to-night.

The Fifth Ward.—It is reported that the election for Alderman in the Fifth ward will be contested.

An Error.—There was a slight error in our return of the election in Birmingham. The Republicans elected their entire ticket, except the candidate for Constable.

Dull.—Police news was exceedingly dull through the city yesterday, and will probably remain so for some time to come.

Will be sold at public sale, at Sampson & McNally's salery and sale stable, Nos. 139 and 141 Third avenue, at 11 o'clock, one horse and buggy in good order.

Official Vote.—The return judges of the several wards, boroughs and townships will meet at the Court House at ten o'clock tomorrow, (Friday) to return the official vote of the county for State and county officers.

Good House and Lot in Allegheny, at auction. A first-rate property located on Beech street, Monday next, at two o'clock. The lot is large and the property desirable. See advertisement on fifth page, by A. Leggett, auctioneer.

Stone Throwing.—Mrs. Margaret Fleming made information before Alderman Thomas against Daniel Grogan, man Thomas against Grogan, charging him with throwing a large stone through the front window of her house, at an early hour Sunday morning. Warrant issued.

Immolation.—Kate Jackson, colored, stated to Alderman Thomas yesterday that Addison Davis, also colored, had threatened to immolate her. She fears she is being persecuted by him, and is on the lookout for Addison with a view of preventing the threatened calamity.

Fair and Festival.—The Fair and Festival in the new Episcopal Chapel of Trinity Church, Sixth street, which has been largely attended and liberally patronized on Tuesday and Wednesday, will continue to-day and tomorrow evening. Choice dinners and suppers are served, and numerous useful and fancy articles are displayed for sale at moderate prices. The proceeds are to be expended in furnishing the chapel.

Almost a Fire.—About half past eight o'clock last night the fire department was called out by an alarm of fire from No. 27, corner of Grant & Wylie streets. The cause of the alarm was ascertained to be the burning of a bed in Mr. Kelly's house, on Fifth avenue, near Ross street. It was extinguished by the application of a few buckets of water, consequently the department were not called into service. The loss was very trifling.

Now is the time to get good fresh lake fish. Ben Pulvers always has on hand at No. 45 Diamond street, Allegheny City, corner of Ohio and Federal streets, the very best. Lovers of fresh fish will find it to their advantage to call on him and get their supplies. They will find a superior assortment of all kinds of fish, and will find him polite and courteous, and always giving satisfaction to customers who may favor him with their patronage. See advertisement.

Horrible Accident.—A dispatch received here from Franklin, in this State, states that on Tuesday night at eleven o'clock a signal tower on Mine Hill Railroad, near Mountain, took fire, burning to death the watchman and his children. A sister of the watchman jumped from a window and escaped. The fire, which originated at the base, ascended with such rapidity as to envelop the tower before realizing their horrible position.

A False Friend.—Rachel Harris, had a false friend—Rachel Harris, had a false friend—Rachel Harris, had a false friend. He is not her friend now, the friendship was broken up when Edward entered Rachel's house and abstracted feloniously therefrom a pocketbook containing nineteen dollars and a half, and a silver sleeve button. This occurred on Monday, yesterday. Edward had a hearing on a charge of larceny before Alderman Cantel, which resulted in a committal to the county jail. He was also required to give bail to keep the peace.

Murder at Freeport.—Mr. Straub, a young man about twenty-two years of age, died Tuesday morning from injuries received Sunday morning, at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Straub, it hands of his mother, Mrs. Straub, it appears, is subject to periodical fits of insanity, and Sunday morning, while his son was eating his breakfast, she slipped up behind him and struck him on the back of the head with a coal piece, splitting his skull. She immediately fled, and was arrested on the afternoon of Wednesday and committed to the Armstrong county jail.

A Murderer's Confession.—On our seventh page this morning will be found full, the confession of Zachary Taylor Hockenberry, confined in the Butler County jail under sentence of death for the murder of his cousin, Annie Cantel. The words, must be a wicked and hard-hearted criminal who richly deserves the execrations of all men. The inconspicuous death in prison of a murderer is a great literary phenomenon, and a heartless wretch, judging from his incoherent and wages industry, crinate slaughter on the "small fry."

Serious Accident.—A rather serious accident occurred at the Elmwood Hotel, where works of Albert (Harry) Wylie & Co. are being carried on. On Wednesday afternoon, Mr. E. H. Brown, an employee of the firm, was engaged in repairing Lewis Waugh was engaged in repairing a canal over the arch of which had been broken on the day previous, thereby causing a large tide, two by three feet, and two inches thick, striking down in the open the tile fall, striking Wylie was also struck and severely injured.

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

The Gazette is furnished in the city for six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $5 per annum - 3 mos. $2.

Our Readers in Allegheny, on the west side of Federal street, who do not get their paper before seven o'clock in the morning, will do us a favor by leaving word to that effect in our counting room. The tardiness on the part of the carrier is wholly inexcusable as we print and deliver the papers to him in ample time to enable all to be circulated before seven o'clock.

For Sale.—A fine family horse. Enquire at 115 Market street.

Allegheny Council held a regular meeting to-night.

The Fifth Ward.—It is reported that the election for Alderman in the Fifth ward will be contested.

An Error.—There was a slight error in our return of the election in Birmingham. The Republicans elected their entire ticket, except the candidate for Constable.

Dull.—Police news was exceedingly dull through the city yesterday, and will probably remain so for some time to come.

Will be sold at public sale, at Sampson & McNally's salery and sale stable, Nos. 139 and 141 Third avenue, at 11 o'clock, one horse and buggy in good order.

Official Vote.—The return judges of the several wards, boroughs and townships will meet at the Court House at ten o'clock tomorrow, (Friday) to return the official vote of the county for State and county officers.

Good House and Lot in Allegheny, at auction. A first-rate property located on Beech street, Monday next, at two o'clock. The lot is large and the property desirable. See advertisement on fifth page, by A. Leggett, auctioneer.

Stone Throwing.—Mrs. Margaret Fleming made information before Alderman Thomas against Daniel Grogan, man Thomas against Grogan, charging him with throwing a large stone through the front window of her house, at an early hour Sunday morning. Warrant issued.

Immolation.—Kate Jackson, colored, stated to Alderman Thomas yesterday that Addison Davis, also colored, had threatened to immolate her. She fears she is being persecuted by him, and is on the lookout for Addison with a view of preventing the threatened calamity.

Fair and Festival.—The Fair and Festival in the new Episcopal Chapel of Trinity Church, Sixth street, which has been largely attended and liberally patronized on Tuesday and Wednesday, will continue to-day and tomorrow evening. Choice dinners and suppers are served, and numerous useful and fancy articles are displayed for sale at moderate prices. The proceeds are to be expended in furnishing the chapel.

Almost a Fire.—About half past eight o'clock last night the fire department was called out by an alarm of fire from No. 27, corner of Grant & Wylie streets. The cause of the alarm was ascertained to be the burning of a bed in Mr. Kelly's house, on Fifth avenue, near Ross street. It was extinguished by the application of a few buckets of water, consequently the department were not called into service. The loss was very trifling.

Now is the time to get good fresh lake fish. Ben Pulvers always has on hand at No. 45 Diamond street, Allegheny City, corner of Ohio and Federal streets, the very best. Lovers of fresh fish will find it to their advantage to call on him and get their supplies. They will find a superior assortment of all kinds of fish, and will find him polite and courteous, and always giving satisfaction to customers who may favor him with their patronage. See advertisement.

Horrible Accident.—A dispatch received here from Franklin, in this State, states that on Tuesday night at eleven o'clock a signal tower on Mine Hill Railroad, near Mountain, took fire, burning to death the watchman and his children. A sister of the watchman jumped from a window and escaped. The fire, which originated at the base, ascended with such rapidity as to envelop the tower before realizing their horrible position.

A False Friend.—Rachel Harris, had a false friend—Rachel Harris, had a false friend—Rachel Harris, had a false friend. He is not her friend now, the friendship was broken up when Edward entered Rachel's house and abstracted feloniously therefrom a pocketbook containing nineteen dollars and a half, and a silver sleeve button. This occurred on Monday, yesterday. Edward had a hearing on a charge of larceny before Alderman Cantel, which resulted in a committal to the county jail. He was also required to give bail to keep the peace.

Murder at Freeport.—Mr. Straub, a young man about twenty-two years of age, died Tuesday morning from injuries received Sunday morning, at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Straub, it hands of his mother, Mrs. Straub, it appears, is subject to periodical fits of insanity, and Sunday morning, while his son was eating his breakfast, she slipped up behind him and struck him on the back of the head with a coal piece, splitting his skull. She immediately fled, and was arrested on the afternoon of Wednesday and committed to the Armstrong county jail.

A Murderer's Confession.—On our seventh page this morning will be found full, the confession of Zachary Taylor Hockenberry, confined in the Butler County jail under sentence of death for the murder of his cousin, Annie Cantel. The words, must be a wicked and hard-hearted criminal who richly deserves the execrations of all men. The inconspicuous death in prison of a murderer is a great literary phenomenon, and a heartless wretch, judging from his incoherent and wages industry, crinate slaughter on the "small fry."

Serious Accident.—A rather serious accident occurred at the Elmwood Hotel, where works of Albert (Harry) Wylie & Co. are being carried on. On Wednesday afternoon, Mr. E. H. Brown, an employee of the firm, was engaged in repairing Lewis Waugh was engaged in repairing a canal over the arch of which had been broken on the day previous, thereby causing a large tide, two by three feet, and two inches thick, striking down in the open the tile fall, striking Wylie was also struck and severely injured.

ALLEGHENY.

The Gazette is furnished in the city for six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $5 per annum - 3 mos. $2.

Our Readers in Allegheny, on the west side of Federal street, who do not get their paper before seven o'clock in the morning, will do us a favor by leaving word to that effect in our counting room. The tardiness on the part of the carrier is wholly inexcusable as we print and deliver the papers to him in ample time to enable all to be circulated before seven o'clock.

For Sale.—A fine family horse. Enquire at 115 Market street.

Allegheny Council held a regular meeting to-night.

The Fifth Ward.—It is reported that the election for Alderman in the Fifth ward will be contested.

An Error.—There was a slight error in our return of the election in Birmingham. The Republicans elected their entire ticket, except the candidate for Constable.

Dull.—Police news was exceedingly dull through the city yesterday, and will probably remain so for some time to come.

Will be sold at public sale, at Sampson & McNally's salery and sale stable, Nos. 139 and 141 Third avenue, at 11 o'clock, one horse and buggy in good order.

Official Vote.—The return judges of the several wards, boroughs and townships will meet at the Court House at ten o'clock tomorrow, (Friday) to return the official vote of the county for State and county officers.

Good House and Lot in Allegheny, at auction. A first-rate property located on Beech street, Monday next, at two o'clock. The lot is large and the property desirable. See advertisement on fifth page, by A. Leggett, auctioneer.

Stone Throwing.—Mrs. Margaret Fleming made information before Alderman Thomas against Daniel Grogan, man Thomas against Grogan, charging him with throwing a large stone through the front window of her house, at an early hour Sunday morning. Warrant issued.

Immolation.—Kate Jackson, colored, stated to Alderman Thomas yesterday that Addison Davis, also colored, had threatened to immolate her. She fears she is being persecuted by him, and is on the lookout for Addison with a view of preventing the threatened calamity.

Fair and Festival.—The Fair and Festival in the new Episcopal Chapel of Trinity Church, Sixth street, which has been largely attended and liberally patronized on Tuesday and Wednesday, will continue to-day and tomorrow evening. Choice dinners and suppers are served, and numerous useful and fancy articles are displayed for sale at moderate prices. The proceeds are to be expended in furnishing the chapel.

Almost a Fire.—About half past eight o'clock last night the fire department was called out by an alarm of fire from No. 27, corner of Grant & Wylie streets. The cause of the alarm was ascertained to be the burning of a bed in Mr. Kelly's house, on Fifth avenue, near Ross street. It was extinguished by the application of a few buckets of water, consequently the department were not called into service. The loss was very trifling.

Now is the time to get good fresh lake fish. Ben Pulvers always has on hand at No. 45 Diamond street, Allegheny City, corner of Ohio and Federal streets, the very best. Lovers of fresh fish will find it to their advantage to call on him and get their supplies. They will find a superior assortment of all kinds of fish, and will find him polite and courteous, and always giving satisfaction to customers who may favor him with their patronage. See advertisement.

Horrible Accident.—A dispatch received here from Franklin, in this State, states that on Tuesday night at eleven o'clock a signal tower on Mine Hill Railroad, near Mountain, took fire, burning to death the watchman and his children. A sister of the watchman jumped from a window and escaped. The fire, which originated at the base, ascended with such rapidity as to envelop the tower before realizing their horrible position.

A False Friend.—Rachel Harris, had a false friend—Rachel Harris, had a false friend—Rachel Harris, had a false friend. He is not her friend now, the friendship was broken up when Edward entered Rachel's house and abstracted feloniously therefrom a pocketbook containing nineteen dollars and a half, and a silver sleeve button. This occurred on Monday, yesterday. Edward had a hearing on a charge of larceny before Alderman Cantel, which resulted in a committal to the county jail. He was also required to give bail to keep the peace.

Murder at Freeport.—Mr. Straub, a young man about twenty-two years of age, died Tuesday morning from injuries received Sunday morning, at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Straub, it hands of his mother, Mrs. Straub, it appears, is subject to periodical fits of insanity, and Sunday morning, while his son was eating his breakfast, she slipped up behind him and struck him on the back of the head with a coal piece, splitting his skull. She immediately fled, and was arrested on the afternoon of Wednesday and committed to the Armstrong county jail.

A Murderer's Confession.—On our seventh page this morning will be found full, the confession of Zachary Taylor Hockenberry, confined in the Butler County jail under sentence of death for the murder of his cousin, Annie Cantel. The words, must be a wicked and hard-hearted criminal who richly deserves the execrations of all men. The inconspicuous death in prison of a murderer is a great literary phenomenon, and a heartless wretch, judging from his incoherent and wages industry, crinate slaughter on the "small fry."

Serious Accident.—A rather serious accident occurred at the Elmwood Hotel, where works of Albert (Harry) Wylie & Co. are being carried on. On Wednesday afternoon, Mr. E. H. Brown, an employee of the firm, was engaged in repairing Lewis Waugh was engaged in repairing a canal over the arch of which had been broken on the day previous, thereby causing a large tide, two by three feet, and two inches thick, striking down in the open the tile fall, striking Wylie was also struck and severely injured.

Blight Fire.—There was an alarm of fire about half past one o'clock yesterday, from box 18, occasioned by a fiery chimney at the corner of Bedford avenue and Arthur street. The fire department turned out, but on learning the cause of the alarm, returned before reaching the place from whence the alarm came.

Plain and Dress Goods.—All colors, Bates & Bell's.

MARRIED: EDMISTON—BEACON—In Brownsville M. E. Church, by Rev. L. E. Johnson, assisted by Rev. W. M. Lewis and J. L. Dixon, October 13, Mr. W. M. EDMISTON to Miss JENNIE BEACON.

DIED: GARR—On Tuesday morning, October 13th, 1893, SARAH A. FLEISHER, widow of James Carr, in the 38th year of her age.

Funeral will take place from the residence of her husband, No. 123 Beaver street, Allegheny, on THURSDAY AFTERNOON at 3 o'clock. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Funeral on Wednesday morning, October 13th, at 11 o'clock P. M., CHARLES H. DENISON, in the 61st year of his age, at his residence, No. 1000 Liberty street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.