CITY AND SUBURBAN.

THE GAZETTE is furnished in the city for six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $8 per annum: 3 mos., $2.

A Fine Well of lubricating oil has been struck near Sharon, Beaver county, Pa.

Correction.—In our returns of the elected city councilmen we inadvertently omitted the name of Mr. Montgomery Fedder of the Common branch.

Real Estate.—See advertisement of McClung & Rainbow, Real Estate and Insurance Agents, 195, 197 and 199 Centre avenue. tf.

Bank Stock at Auction.—10 shares Franklin Savings Bank will be sold on Monday evening next, at 7½ o'clock, at A. Leggate's Auction House, 159 Federal street, Allegheny.

Assault.—Bernard Hogan alleged before Alderman Shore yesterday that Micheal Cook had committed an unprovoked assault and battery upon him by which he was severely abused. The officers are in search of Micheal.

To Claremont.—The following citizens were taken to the Work-house yesterday: James Martin, John Hanlon, John McLaughlin, Pat McGraw, Humphrey Desmond, John Williams, Jesse Wilson, Jno. Johnston.

Disorderly.—Humphrey Desmond acted in a disorderly manner yesterday in the Fifth ward, Allegheny, by beating his wife and creating a disturbance generally around the neighborhood. Alderman Stewart committed Humphrey to jail for thirty days, and he subsequently retired to Claremont.

A Mistake.—Gen. McClellan did not arrive in the city yesterday but will doubtless pass through as soon as convenient, if for no other reason than to look at the elegant assortment of fine trunks, valises, traveling satchels, &c., which Liebler, No. 104 Wood street, always has on hand. Other travelers might inspect the stock with advantage.

Elegant.—The stock of goods at Moorhead's, No. 81 Market street, is really an elegant sight and worth a visit to the store to inspect. A better stock has never been brought to Pittsburgh. Ladies should patronize this establishment in making their season's purchases, as they will find the assortment and prices of the most satisfactory character.

A Musical Curiosity.—The largest portable pipe organ ever brought to this city is now on exhibition at George Toerge's Music Store, No. 50 Seventh avenue. We invite the public to examine the superb instrument before it goes to its destination, as it was no sooner in the store than it was sold.

GEORGE TOERGE, only Agent.

Fall Stock.—Finest brands of tobacco, snuff, cigars and everything in that line at Megraws, No. 45 Hand street, the great emporium of the trade in the city. Dealers, wholesale or retail, will find it to their advantage to patronize this establishment. The stock is full and complete, all of the best quality and sold at the most reasonable prices.

Disorderly Baker.—Wm. Baker, formerly employed in Knox's paint shop, on Sandusky street, Allegheny, was discharged a few days ago. Yesterday he went there to settle up, when it is alleged he became very abusive toward the foreman, Mr. Edward Gatchell, who subsequently made information against him for disorderly conduct, before Alderman Irwin. The case was, however, amicably arranged.

Absconding Boarder.—Alderman Arbeitz had a case of false pretense before him yesterday in which Nicholas Adrian appeared as prosecutor and Fred Saxonhiemer defendant. The defendant was charged with obtaining from the prosecutor nine dollars and a half in boarding and cash with which he cleared out. The transaction occurred at Rochester. Saxonheimer was committed to jail for trial.

Misdemeanor.—W. J. Burns, a livery stable keeper, alleged before Alderman McMasters yesterday, that H. D. Taylor had hired a horse and buggy of him on Tuesday night, drove four or five miles out into the country and back, and in coming into the city run into a lamp post, broke the buggy down and vacated it. The damage was about twenty-five dollars. The accused was arrested and held for trial for misdemeanor.

The Keystone.—Queensware, Bristolware and all articles in that line, every style and price, may be obtained at the warehouse of the Keystone Pottery, Messrs. Kier & Co., proprietors, No. 363 Liberty street. The stock on hand is very full and complete, and no difficulty can be experienced in making a choice. As a home institution, the Keystone should be patronized.

False All Around.—Dr. J. W. Bratt, an Allegheny Dentist, alleged before Alderman Irwin yesterday, that Jane Lee had procured from him a set of false teeth by representing that the lady with whom she was employed would settle the bill. Yesterday, however, Jane cleared out at an early hour and has not been heard of since. The Alderman's police are on the lookout, and if secured she will have a chance to explain.

Refused to Pay.—Some time since John Mauer, employed in Lindsay's rolling mill, First ward, Allegheny, had his hand crushed. It was dressed by Dr. T. J. Allinder who alleges that Mauer refused that his employer would pay the bill, which was found to be false when the bill was presented, the gentleman stating he had nothing at all to do with it. Alderman Irwin had the case before him yesterday and succeeded in having it amicably settled, Mauer paying the bill.

Temperance Jollification.—Last evening a temperance jollification was held in Mozart Hall, under the authority of Morning Star Lodge of Good Templars. The hall was packed with members of the various organizations and ladies and gentlemen favorable to temperance, while some of the delegations were unable to gain admittance. Algernon Bell, Esq., presided. The exercises consisted of songs, readings, recitations, and congratulatory addresses. They were prolonged until a late hour, and were of a pleasant and interesting character.

An Old Fuss.—There is a piece of property located at the foot of Troy Hill, head of East Lune, Allegheny, which has already been the cause of extensive legislation and gives promise of still more. The latest is an information made yesterday before Alderman Mullen by John Roberts charging Charles Shafer with participating in a riot. The row was caused, it is stated, by an attempt made by Schafer to build a fence to enclose the lot, which was objected to by Roberts. Warrants issued.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—Mr. Proctor was the recipient of a benefit at the Opera House last evening, on which occasion "Damon and Pythias" was presented in a highly satisfactory manner to the large audience and very creditable to the members of the company cast in the piece as well as to Mr. Proctor. The matinee this afternoon will be a very interesting entertainment, and Mr. Proctor's engagement closes this evening. Tuesday evening the engagement of the Richings English opera troupe commences and promising to be the affair of the season, we would advise those securing seats for any particular night to secure them early.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—The matinee at the Pittsburgh Theatre this afternoon will be specially attractive, and there will doubtless be a crowded house, as usual.

PAREPA-ROSA.—The Parepa-Rosa opera season at the Academy of Music, commencing Monday evening, if we are to judge from the number of tickets sold, promises to be one of the most brilliant and successful that has ever been in this city.

THE SENSATION MINSTRELS.—This troupe of comic and sentimental vocalists, perhaps comprising more talent than ever before concentrated in one organization, gave their third night's entertainment last night at the Academy of Music before a large and appreciative audience. Their sentimental songs are popular and pleasing, and are marked with exquisite taste and feeling in their delivery. As mimics, Messrs. Allen, Pettingill and Delehanty stand unrivaled. The jokes were neither threadbare nor coarse, though at the same time sidesplitting, and rendered with appreciative talent. To-morrow evening will be the last appearance of the company; but it is unnecessary to prevail upon the public to patronize them, for well packed houses are a criterian that their popularity is a sufficient recommendation.

Life Insurance.

What is the security of Policy Holders? A great deal is said of the security offered by the Eastern companies in their immense reserves, and of the advantages to the insured from the New York and Massachusetts inspection laws, but the following deliverance of Commissioner Sanford, of the latter State, shows that, notwithstanding all that can be said on this head, policy holders have absolutely nothing but the personal honesty of the managers on which to rely.

Fifty-six companies doing business in Massachusetts, in 1868, the Commissioners says, "received an income from premiums of nearly SEVENTY MILLION dollars. A little over eleven millions was called for to pay losses, thirteen millions and a half went for current expenses, and if we charge all other expenditures for dividends and other out goes, amounting to nearly sixteen millions, against the premium income, we still have left an excess of about thirty millions, to say nothing of nearly nine millions of income from other sources, which the companies might have swallowed up in mismanagement, extravagance and fraud, and still insolvency to more magnificent plundering in the future."

These institutions, Mr. Sandford says, "have the largest opportunity and the largest temptation to defraud their patrons."

If Mr. Sanford is correct, the value of some millions of Pittsburgh investments depends entirely on who will be the managers of the various
