

The Pittsburgh Gazette

OFFICE: GAZETTE BUILDING, 51 AND 53 FIFTH AVENUE, PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA

MOBILITY, OCTOBER 25, 1899. THE PUBLICATION OF THE GAZETTE FOR THE YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1900, WAS LESS THAN FOR THE YEAR PRECEDING BY THE SUM OF $45,700, 289.54.

The Reading Times suggests that the new election law should have another year's trial, in the hope that less confusion will result from its operation.

It is understood that Mr. Brantford, the N. Y. Treasurer, will resign, or be suspended forthwith. He asks for an investigation, which should be granted to him.

The New Constitution for New York is recommended by the vast majority of the unanimous vote of the bar, the highest professional standing. It is to be voted on in November next. Mr. J. B. ...

The Altona "Vindicator" indignantly pronounced the leading Democratic paper in the State. Apparently the Altona critic has no exchange of views with the Democratic journal of Pittsburgh.

It is said that Senators and Members have prepared to send four bills for introduction in Congress in December, providing for funding the public debt, a four cent bond, and other measures.

Various resolutions of the House, and showing that twelve years ago, one of the acknowledged leaders of the opposition in the State, supported the proposition.

The Republican press, in the minority counties, are unanimous in demanding that the peculiar interests of the minority should be increased consideration with the Legislature. The claim should be cordially endorsed in all quarters of the State.

The Democratic programme in the South, for the future, will be to establish a property and educational tax as a condition to suffrage, in their restored constitutions. The plan is to apply it with the hope, and the hope is that it will effectively disfranchise the freedmen. They insist that all this can be done under the Fifteenth Amendment.

Reverend James M. Smith, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, is to be elected Moderator of the General Conference of the denomination, to be held in New York City, in the month of May next.

It has been distinctly alleged, ten days ago, that the Assistant Treasury Agent, Mr. Work, Gen. Butler, had information that the "gold ring" tapped the telegraphic wires, during the great movement of the gold.

The new law of 1898 has a Republican majority of 24 in the Senate, and 79 in the House. The House has changed since the last time when our States were uniformly and vigorously Democratic.
