PITTSBURGH, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1869.

(SECOND SESTION.)

SENATE: Telegraph Communication between the U. S. and Foreign Countries—Long Discussion Without Action—Reduction of Army Officers—Consideration of the Georgia Reconstruction Bill—The Debate Continues Until After Midnight—The Bill, in an Amended Form, Finally Passed, HOUSE Not in Session.

(By Telegraph to the Pittaburgh Gasette.)

Taca, they would be found putting themselves a position to be most accept. If was not here contempt accept. It was not here contemplated to force any measure upon Georgia, but aimply to say to her, if you do not give us the security we require, you can remain where you are. Those who had the upper hand: In Georgia never would adopt the Fifteenth Amendment unless under compulsion, for they would be urged not to go one step further than offer most indiana did not move to insert in the bill a clause directing the military commander in Georgia to declere the amendment adopted, without the formality of a vote on the subject.

Mr. MORTON asked why did not the Senator think of that when he voted to imposs the Fourteenth Amendment?

Mr. EDMUNDS denied he had so voted for the reconstruction measures referred to.

ARNOLD AND HARTMAN.

The District Attorney having an nonnoed that he intended tory the cases of the Commonwealth vs. William Arnold And Leonard Hartman, asked that the Parameter of the Situation—Hartman on the common was crowded almost to suffocation, so great was the siturest manifested by the public in the matter. When the first case was called, Mr. Haines, counsel for Hartman, asked that the virial be post-poned for a weak active day. Haines, counsel for Hartman, asked that the virial be post-poned for a weak active day. Haines, counsel for Hartman, asked that the virial be post-poned for a weak active day. The New York Times says that saide from the causite which he applied to Greeley, that Buller's letter is a case of a pecial pleading shogether out of place. It then reviews the proscription of Southern men, and says that the dignity of the United States, the confidence is already feels in its own people, and the confidence it seeks to inspire in foreign powers regarding its fainre, alike demand the broad, generous policy of general amnesty. If there chance to be here and there men whom it is wall to except, let them be individually reserved by name from the operations of a wide, sweeping and magnanimous act. We have conquared once by arms, let ms conquar again by magnanimity.
