

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE. OFFICE: SIXTYE BUILDING, 61 AND 63 FIFTH AVENUE. OFFICIAL PAPER OF PITTSBURGH, Allegheny and Allegheny County. SATURDAY, JAN. 29, 1870.

THE LEGISLATURE OF GEORGIA is at last legally organized for business. We shall hear, within a week, that it has ratified the XVth Article, thus anticipating the action of Nebraska.

CHAS. BATES' journal is addressed by the discovery of forged Cuban bonds on the market. Imagine the anxiety which they are arousing in the minds of the Cuban people.

WE HAD from Harbinger, that the Commission bill for the South Side bridge has been passed by the Georgia Legislature.

IT IS PROBABLY to learn, from the Williamsport Gazette, that the franchise of the canal has been secured by the State.

THE INVESTIGATION into the case of the late Mayor, Mr. James H. Hunt, who was last year elected to that office by a very large majority of the citizens.

TWO WEEKS of the most important business have been introduced by Senator Howland in the House of Representatives.

WE ARE gratified to learn that Gen. J. M. Moorehead, the President of the Monongahela Navigation Company.

ANOTHER ISTHMIAN CANAL. A French engineer named Liden de Payth, after long and careful exploration, announces that he has found a route from the Atlantic to the Pacific that may be discovered.

THE VOTES of Messrs. Lowry and Billingsworth were in favor of the proposed canal. The length of the canal is thirty-eight and one-fourth leagues, or, say, one hundred and fifteen miles from sea to sea.

THE FUGITIVE Commercial and the half score of Republican Journalists who follow its lead, attempt to sustain their support of the bill by the purpose of breaking up the "Carson bill" that has for its object the construction of this canal.

WHETHER such a loan can be negotiated is to be seen. We think it rather doubtful. But if it can be done, it will be a great boon to the State.

PROBABLY no interest in the South was broken up by and related by the war of the rebellion as the growing and manufacturing of sugar in Louisiana.

THE CONVENTION now engaged in a revision of the Constitution of Tennessee, is playing the part of the cross-advancing the work with rapidity.

THE CONVENTION now sitting to amend the Constitution of the State of Illinois, is playing the part of the cross-advancing the work with rapidity.

REPUBLICAN RESTRAINT. Gen. Irwin's readiness to unite with the Democrats to overthrow the Republican government, shows that the course he has taken is not a course of expediency.

THE W. W. Irwin, who has been employed by the Democrats to carry out the purpose of breaking up the "Carson bill" that has for its object the construction of this canal.
