Church Extension.—It may not be known to most readers that John Weeley Church (colored) editice has recently been enlarged to double its former capacity, and is now dapable of comfortably seating some seven hundred bersons. The building is located on ori alley connecting Arthurs and Roborts streets, in the Eleventh ward, is a brick structure, and is a credit to the congregation which worships therein. Since the advent of the pastor, Rev. Dr. Williams, large socessions have been made to the membership, and to his indefatigable labors is the congregation indebted for their fine may church edifics. Mr. Littell said the motion to adopt is a whole did not out off debate. Any member had a right to take exceptions to any item in the appropriations.

Mr. Rafferty said that he had been informed-by Mr. Allider that the city was holding a large amount of money from year to year which might be used in lifting bonds due, and thereby stop the accuring interest. He thought if that was the case there was something MAYOR'S OFFICE. Report of the Mayor's Clerk, of the Revenue Received and Business Transacted Buring the Year-we are indebted to James S. Patterson, Esq., Mayor's Clerk, for the following the Mayor's office during the fiscal year, ending January 81st, 1870, and also of the the matter.

Mr. Kirk desired to know what the item of $40,000 for city property was in revenue collected from fines and other sources for the month of January, 1870, and the total for the entire year.

The whole amount collected during the year, 28,827,80, has been paid into the City Treasury. This is the largest return by several thousand dollars ever made in any previous year, and it is not probable that the receipts will be as a several years to come.

e pictures could not be made as graceful of and faithful in themselves as to precided the possibility of ridiculously misrepresenting the subjects portrayed; but the chasteness, neatness and beauty of the sketches presented in the first sories last night to a large and intelligent audience assembled at Turner Hall, fully impressed us with the ability of the performers to do as much credit to the Biblical scenes as most artists do on canvas or steel plate. The more solemn and holy incidents excorded in the New Testament of course will not be presented, as the Turners have keen appreciation of what is in accordance with exact good taste; but the leading ordinary historical access will be faithfully translated in living figures in the several sarrial performances to follow on the first Monday to feach of the seven succeeding weeks:

The programme so faithfully followed out last night was as follows:

1. Creation of the World.

2. The Publishman to Adam and Experience of the seven as follows:

The vote was then announced, from which it appeared that Dr. A. G. Mo-Candless had received 56, J. J. Albeitz 37, and M. A. Edwards 45 votes, they being the highest three on the list.

A motion was then made to elect John McManus King to fill the remaining varency.

Some discussion ensued upon this motion, but it was finally carried by a large majority.

OTHER BUSINESS.

Mr. McCandless stated that the Street Committee had elected Mr. Wm. Roe, clerk, and asked for his confirmation, which was agreed to.

President McAuley now called attention to the changes in the rules, adopted by Select Council. The only material change was the one making the Committee on Retrenchment and Reform a standing instead of special one, and providing for its reporting through the Select branch.
