RIGHT REVENUE.

Pardon of Wm. C. Wray and Co., W. Wray, who were arrested for the same offense, will be granted to them.

Many of our readers will be gratified to learn that William C. Wray, of this city, and George W. Shaw, of Connetquot, Pa., were pardoned by the President.

As Mr. Wray is well known in this community, and the respect with which he is held, it is not surprising that he should have been pardoned.

In the early part of 1917, the store of Shaw & Wray, in Connetquot, Pa., was burned, and the loss was estimated at $100,000.

This fire was caused by a gas leak, and the store was completely destroyed.
