FINANCE AND TRADE.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, March 7, 1870.

The speculative interest in Wall street was centred chiefly in the Gold Room, where there was considerable excitement and frequent fluctuations in premiums. At one time the price suddenly advanced from 112¼ to 113, on the rumor that the funding bill had been postponed. This was soon contradicted, but later telegrams stated the bill was being debated and that night sessions would be held until it was disposed of. The Room commenced to discount on the passage of the bill when an avalanche of sales took place and the price tumbled to 112¾. The fresh decline to-day has had a tendency to weaken greenback prices of produce and merchandise and to unsettle business generally.

The money market was abundantly supplied with capital at 4 to 5 on call, with exceptions at 6. Discount being ruling under the decline in gold; prime 7@9. Sterling heavy at 8¼@8¾. Gold opened at 113, touched 113¼, fell to 112¾, and closed at 112¾. Clearances $75,000,000. Carrying rates 1¼@6 per cent.

Government heavy and lower. Coupons of '81, 14¼@14½; do '62, 11@11½; do '64, 9¾@10; do '65, 10@10½; do new, 8¾@9; do '67, 9¾@9¾; do '68, 9¾@9¾; 10-40's, 89@89¼. State securities strong: Missouri, 93; old Tennessee, 57; new do, 46¾; old Virginia, 74¾; new do, 70; old North Carolina, 45½; new do, 21.

Railroad market strong and very close to the highest prices of the day. The most active stocks were Northwestern, Lake Shore, New York Central, Reading and Rock Island. It is reported that a bill will soon be introduced into the legislature to increase passenger fares on fast trains of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroads. Miscellaneous and express were dull and the only feature was a decline to 37¼ for Pacific Mail.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
MONDAY, March 7, 1870. }

This week opens just as it closed last week, very dull and neglected with scarcely enough doing in either crude or refined to establish quotations. We were under the impression that thus far this year the oil brokers have had but little to do, and that, like Othello, their occupation was almost gone. In this, however, it seems we were mistaken. One firm, it is said, did more business in February than during any preceding month since said firm came into existence.

CRUDE.

Market, dull and neglected, and if anything, prices are lower, with a continued downward tendency. We have but a single sale reported, 1,000 seller April at 12. Spot or seller March is still quoted at 12½@12¾. Buyer all year 14½ bid, 14¾ asked.

REFINED.

Continues extremely dull and weak, and prices are still tending downward. March quoted at 26¾@27; April, 27¾; April to December, 29; May to December at 30.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
MONDAY, March 7, 1870. }

Trade in general merchandise continues dull and somewhat neglected, but we are in hopes that an improvement is near at hand. The continued decline in gold and consequent unsettled condition in financial matters, is not without its influence on business, tending as it does to unsettle values, and while there is no remarkable fluctuation to report, the tendency of almost everything is downward. Sugars have still further declined, and are now lower than they have been for several years. Provisions, also, have declined considerably within the past thirty days, and there is no certainty that the bottom has yet been touched. The grain and flour trade continues very sluggish, and there is scarcely enough doing to establish quotations. Notwithstanding the supply was only moderate and the weather favorable, the complaining among the drovers was loud and bitter, and the butchers, also, growled considerably. The great trouble lies in the fact that Cattle are too high in the west—prices are relatively higher in Chicago than here; butchers cannot advance the price of meat and consequently cannot pay an advance for cattle, and without an advance drovers can make nothing, and it is possible that some of them lost money to-day. It is said, and we have no doubt it is true, that all the cattle on sale from Chicago, comprising 30 car loads, out of the entire 40, cost a quarter more than those of last week, though, as will be seen by reference to the report of sales, prices ruled no higher than last week, and the presumption is that the drover had to stand the loss of that quarter of a cent and in some instances even more. We know that these drovers are always growling, but that they had good cause to complain this week is generally conceded.

The great proportion of the cattle on sale to-day were of the better grades, consisting mostly of nice fat smooth steers, and had it not have been for the one great drawback, the extreme prices, the market, would doubtless, been a good one, and all the pens would in all probability have been cleared by 10 o'clock A. M. As it is, there were quite a number left over, and we heard of several car loads that were not put upon the market at all. There was considerable inquiry for stock steers, and but very few of them on sale, which as in the case of fat cattle, was owing to the fact that they are worth relatively more in the west than they will bring here. This class of stock may be quoted at 5¼@6¾. Prime fat steers, 8 and extra do 8¼@8¾; with but very few sold above 8¼.

Jas. McAllister 16 head nice smooth oxen from West Virginia, held at 8@8¾.

Haas & Kraus 58 head, same kind, from Chicago, at 6@8.

SHEEP.

The number of sheep on sale was larger than it has been for several weeks past, about 1,200 head; the market was slow, the butchers taking hold rather sp ingly, and so far as we could learn, there was only one bunch sold to go East. Holders, however, were pretty stiff, refusing to make any concessions in order to effect sales, and they could not well do otherwise, as they had to pay more for them in the country. Commonish sheep sold at $3¼@3¾ per head, fair at $4@4½, and prime to extra at 6@7 cents per pound. One bunch of fancy, averaging 111 lbs, brought 7¾.

Emerick & Co. sold 75 head of extra, averaging 111 lbs, to Tosh, at 7¾.

J. F. Neely sold 84 head of prime, from Beaver county, at an average of about 6½.

Jas. Kerr retailed 151 head of fair to extra at 5@7c.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was about stationary last evening, with 6¾ feet in the channel. Weather continues cold and decidedly winterish, with every appearance of more snow. Mercury stood at 30 to 31 nearly all day, but was falling again last evening.

Business is moderately active at the landing, as much so as could reasonably be expected under existing circumstances. Freights are plenty enough but shippers appear to be holding back in hopes of reduced rates.

The Argosy is still laid up, but will probably make a move some of these days soon.

The hull for Capt. Wash Kerr's new Portsmouth packet, should reach here soon, as he expects to have her out this spring.

Died at his residence South Pittsburgh Monday March 7, 1870. Frank D. Adams, Son and partner of J. S. Adams, coal merchant.

The Belle did not go out yesterday in consequence of having to make some repairs to her boilers.

The Messenger was to have left Cincinnati for New Orleans on Saturday.

The low boats Dick Fulton and A. J. Baker were at Cairo on Friday, and the Mary Alice was at Memphis the same day.

The Savanna, from St. Louis, is the only transient arrival we have to report. She had a good trip. Capt. Tom Rogers is in command and he proposes to return to St. Louis forthwith.

The new steamer Juniata, Capt. C. S. Brennan, is now receiving for Cincinnati, and will leave promptly as advertised, on Thursday.

Nick Wahlsten and Crate Reno were the pilots on the Savanna from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh.

Capt. Dryden telegraphs that steamboat captains will find him at Jeffersonville in daylight and New Albany at night.

A dispatch from Capt. Dexter, dated at Cincinnati, says that everything was working smoothly on the City of Evansville.

Mr. Alexander Havlin, clerk on the Savanna, is an old Pittsburgher, but has not been steamboating here for several years.

—Says the Cincinnati Commercial, of Saturday: A rumor reaches us to the effect that the pilots of different trades can not agree on terms. There was an apparent "war among the roses" yesterday, but as the knights of the wheel were generally reticent, and the suasion bridge remains in its accustomed place, we apprehend no harm. Further developments may come to light to-day.

—In regard to the proposed enlargement of the canal around the falls of the Ohio river at Louisville, Ky., General Weitzell, Government Engineer in charge of the work, has stated that he can, by the first of November next, put the canal into condition to pass steamboats of three hundred and fifty feet in length by sixty-four broad. But the funds are not yet forthcoming.

—The Piles for the bridge across the Illinois at Beardstown are being driven on the Beardstown side, and the timbers for the bridge are being rapidly brought forward. The work of constructing the piers is now progressing, and the piers are being driven on the opposite side of the river.

—The sale of the steamer Dexter by County Treasurer Graf, of New Albany, has been postponed until the 16th inst., in order to enable the Treasurer to file, before the County Board a petition from Captain Montgomery for a reduction of appraisement and thus settle the claim for delinquent taxes is based.

—The last Shreveport Southwestern says: The last up freights landed here were on Wednesday, and consisted of 50 hhds of whisky. On Cotton, $2 per bale. Passage—Cabin, $15@20, and deck $5@6. Cattle—corn fed, $3, and grass fed, $2 per head. Beef, tierces, $14, and bbl, 7½c.

—Ivan Fagan, one of the crew of the Neville, who was badly scalded by the explosion of the boilers of that boat, died of his injuries Thursday, at New Palestine.

—George L. Reppart has resigned charge of the office of the St. Charles, and Mr. W. S. Dravo is his successor.
