The Committee on Reconstruction still have before them the Tennessee case Secretary of State Platcher was before those anxious and persistent for such action, that Gavernor Senier was elegated by fraud, the vote at election being $5,000 more than nine months provious. Cartificates of election were given without regard to the right of holders to exercise the elective franchise. The principal argument for reconstruction at the present time is that the State flowerment is unable or unwylling to protect the people from the Ku-Kiux and other misrauders, and that the axion proposed would be justified under the clause of the Constitution that the United States shall guarantee to every State a Republican form of Government.
