

PITTSBURGH DAILY GAZETTE: MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 4, 1870

The Pittsburgh Gazette
CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Subscribers changing their residence or place of business will consult their convenience and our own by leaving word to be carted at the carriage room, corner of State and Smithfield streets.

Work has commenced for the new Opera House by the leading towns of the country.

Day's Events.—Carrington yesterday committed himself to Dr. J. L. Fife for two weeks to consider the "Paid Fire Department" question.

Mayer's.—Major Calton's morning news yesterday was that he had not yet been able to get his hands on the "Paid Fire Department" question.

Teachey Blasphemy.—We acknowledge an invitation to be present at the second annual banquet of the "Blasphemous Association," which will be held Saturday evening at the Hotel Atlantic, 12th and Penn.

McKinley.—The exhibitions of Biblical Tablets, which were still continuing in Currier's Hall, the representatives of the Anti-Slavery Society have agreed to withdraw this evening, and will immediately draw down like a curtain.

Mayer's.—Mayer Calton on Saturday night issued a warrant for the arrest of John Carrington, who had been charged with disorderly conduct on oath of his wife, Mary. It seems John will have a very hard time to get out of this, as it may be fun for him, but she decidedly objects, who is naturally natural.

High Street.—A man has just alighted from a night's flight and occurred in the engine shop of the Pittsburg & Lake Erie Railroad, where he was found to be a fugitive from justice, having been indicted for the robbery of $1,000 from a mail box, corner of Penn and Second Streets. He was captured by the men of the Bureau of the First District, and it is believed his property was considerably damaged before the flames.

Mayer's.—George Detrich made his appearance yesterday night in the "Shawm" after a short nap in the engine shop of the Pittsburg & Lake Erie Railroad, for which he was to have five dollars, and retained all the funds, so George alleges, while he was up there. The sum was to be paid to his wife, Anna M. Warrant issued.

Sudden Death.—Albert Joseph A. Butler, in the absence of Dr. Cawelti, died suddenly yesterday morning on the body of Margaret Coyle, wife of Bernard Coyle, on Crawford street, Saturday. It appears that she had been subject to fits for some time past, and had been unable to move to go to her work, leaving his bed in the evenin' round the typewriter with his head on the window sill dead.

Death.—A son of three years old came to her death from heart disease.

Householder's Troubles.—People who own houses sometimes have trouble with their possessions. Mr. W. H. White, who has a house on Penn street, has within a few days past experienced a little of the same trouble. He has a son, Edward, Alderman Taylor, Saturday afternoon, it is reported to Michael Smith, Michael, he alleges, kept it one year, and as there was no money to pay for it, he sold it to his master. The landlord alleges he is not entitled to the rent.

The Missing Pocketbook.

A woman, Mrs. Mary Mayhew, lost yesterday morning on a street in a boarding house on Penn street, 12th ward, a few nights ago. It belonged to Daniel Miller, who had a pocketbook containing $100 and care about losing the money, and having been taken out of his trunk through the influence of an interloper, he has now got it back.

TRIAL FOR MONDAY.—110 Clinton Oil Refining Company v. 110 Crook's, et al. Plaintiff, 110 Clinton Oil Refining Company, et al., 110 Crook's, et al. Owners of steamboat "Gray Fox."

NEW GOODS.

Preparation for the Spring Season by Merchants visiting the city or making out their orders in anticipation of the spring trade, will be given to you.

TRIAL FOR MONDAY.—110 Clinton Oil Refining Company v. 110 Crook's, et al. Plaintiff, 110 Clinton Oil Refining Company, et al., 110 Crook's, et al. Owners of steamboat "Gray Fox."

SAFETY AGAIN IN THE PRESENTATION BANQUET.

On Saturday evening at Hollingshead's dining room in Fifth avenue, a large number of persons assembled to honor to Lieutenant Cowles, who had just received a box, and a pair of pants given to him by his known jeweler. The meeting organized by the jeweler, in a neat and well word speech highly complimentary to the recipient, and the guests who have been in attendance for the past three weeks, were most anxious in the work of recompensing the gallant and勇敢的 Michael for his services.

Soldier's Monument.—It is the intention of those having the matter in charge to have the corner stone of the Soldier's Monument laid on the 1st of June. The date is fixed, and the work for the foundation will be performed by General Sherman. It is intended to make the corner stone ceremonial, and the invited guests will be invited to be present. The date is fixed for the laying of the corner stone, and the German paper may be expected to be present.

Personal.—Yesterday morning the Rev. James R. Morris, recently appointed pastor of the Methodist Church of Allegheny, occupied his pulpit for the first time. The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, "The Dignity and Dullness of the Christian Ministry," was happily timed and appropriate, and was well received.

Personal.—The congregation in the development of the German church has adopted an unusual method of arrangement of thought, fine power of analysis, and clearness of expression, which commended it very forcibly to the audience.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not to be easily satisfied with the position among them he occupies, and his reputation which his efforts of yesterday have earned him, has been exceedingly happy in the choice. Under God, he will be successful.

Personal.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Dugay, a man of great sympathy with the great work to which he has given his life, is not